This quarter has been marked by significant achievements, including the successful launch of four new products. Our ability to anticipate and meet evolving consumer demands remains a core driver of our success.

“Our robust performance during the 2025 11.11 Global Shopping Festival, achieving 84% year-on-year growth across major e-commerce platforms, highlights the effectiveness of our digital marketing strategies. Collaborations with key opinion leaders and livestream shopping initiatives continue to deepen consumer engagement and drive sales in highly competitive markets such as China. Our targeted influencer campaigns have successfully enhanced brand visibility domestically, resonating with Australian audiences.

“As we advance our US market entry strategy, we are building a foundation for long-term growth in one of the world’s largest consumer health markets. With a strong cash position and no debt, EZZ is well-equipped to pursue strategic acquisitions, expand its product portfolio, and capitalise on opportunities such as the Australian Open to enhance brand awareness across key international markets. We remain committed to delivering sustainable growth and creating long-term value for our shareholders.”

Operational and Trading Update

In Q2 FY25, EZZ Life Science Holdings continued to achieve robust operational performance, driven by its commitment to innovation, market and channel expansion, and strategic partnerships. The quarter demonstrated EZZ’s ability to effectively leverage its market insights, capitalise on growth opportunities, and deliver value to shareholders despite the competitive and complex landscape.

The total operating cash inflow for the quarter was $1.6m, after paying $1.4m in taxes. This compares to a cash outflow of $749,000 in the PCP and a cash inflow of $75,000 in Q1 FY25. Notably, the Company achieved a $2.2m increase in customer receipts during the quarter despite a 3.9% reduction in advertising experience compared to PCP. This growth was primarily driven by EZZ’s distribution partnership with Pinehills.

During the quarter, EZZ successfully launched four innovative products tailored to meet evolving consumer demands:

- EZZ Immune Defence;
- EZZ Propolis PRO 2000;
- EZZ Glutathione Health Support; and
- EZZ Vitality Boost.

These new additions have been well received in the market, further strengthening EZZ’s position and demonstrating its agility in responding to consumer needs.

Domestically, EZZ expanded its retail footprint by securing listings in 14 new independent pharmacies, increasing the accessibility of its product range in the Australian market.

EZZ enhanced its brand visibility by activating its strategic partnership with the Australian Open through a series of impactful initiatives. These included a prominent launch event in mainland China and a pre-event content session at Rod Laver Arena in Melbourne featuring Australian tennis legend Mark Philippoussis. The campaign centred on creating Australian Open-themed content highlighting the Company’s children’s product range, tailored for distribution across multiple social media platforms in China, effectively engaging with global and regional audiences.

EZZ also engaged the Australian audience through a targeted influencer campaign featuring renowned fitness expert Jono Castano, which successfully promoted the Company’s healthcare products and drove brand engagement.

Internationally, the Company made substantial progress in its US market entry strategy by conducting extensive market research, engaging with key agencies, and formulating a comprehensive market entry plan. Execution of this strategy remains on track for the second half of FY25. EZZ conducted a comprehensive product and ingredient analysis of the top 100 best-selling products on Amazon and TikTok in the U.S. Based on this analysis, the Company is now focused on developing some its own new products, with the goal of ensuring that their effectiveness surpasses that of the competitive products in the market.

A major highlight of the quarter was EZZ's outstanding performance during the 2025 11.11 Global Shopping Festival. Revenue from the major marketplaces (Douyin, Kuaishou and Tmall) increased by 84% year-on-year to $5.9 million. This result reflects the effectiveness of EZZ's digital marketing strategies, including its focus on key opinion leaders (KOLs) and livestream shopping events in China.

EZZ exhibited at the Tax-Free World Association (TFWA) Exhibition and Conference in November in Dubai, connecting with prospective buyers and retailers across the Middle East, further broadening its international reach.

As at 31 December 2024, EZZ reported a cash balance of $19.9m, reflecting an increase of $1.6m from the previous quarter and maintaining a debt-free position (excluding lease liabilities). The Company has also benefited from a strengthening USD, with most of its cash reserves held in USD-denominated currency. This robust financial position provides EZZ with the flexibility to advance its strategic growth initiatives, including new product development and market expansion efforts in the US and other key regions.

Outlook

Looking ahead, EZZ remains focused on its strategic priorities for the remainder of FY25. In the US, the Company is advancing its market entry plans with a focus on replicating the digital and influencer marketing strategies that have proven successful in other markets.

The Australian Open in January 2025 presents a significant opportunity for EZZ to enhance consumer engagement and brand awareness, particularly across the Asia Pacific region. The Company plans to maximise this partnership by integrating the event into its broader marketing strategy, leveraging both physical and digital channels to reach a diverse audience.

EZZ is also exploring the potential for expanding its product portfolio into adjacent categories that complement its existing range, ensuring sustainable growth and increased market share. The Company continues to evaluate acquisition opportunities that align with its long-term strategic goals, aiming to deliver enhanced value to shareholders.

Through its proactive approach to innovation, market development, and strategic partnerships, EZZ is well-positioned to build on its momentum and capitalise on emerging opportunities.
