Key Business Activities March Quarter 2025

Capital Raising

Investor Centre Limited (ICU or the Company) is in final stage negotiations with a private investment company for participation in the Company which will be subject to, amongst other things, regulatory and shareholder approval. This will assist the Company moving forward with planned operations after the September quarter. Negotiations are expected to be concluded in May 2025.

Pulse Markets

ICU's wholly owned subsidiary, Pulse Markets Pty Ltd (Pulse) continues to grow its wholesale business.

Pulse has been involved in negotiations, that are expected to be concluded in May, to operate a wholesale Managed Discretionary Account. Pulse has continued discussions with a large stock-broker as an "Introducing Broker" for the promotion of wholesale trading for key high net worth clients already known to Pulse. The new Broker is expected to commence operation after June 30.

Other activities

Other activities for the quarter included the following:

ICU is in advanced discussions with a foreign investor that will enable ICU to recapitalize and expand its potential in the third quarter of 2025.
