

Amplitude Energy executive changes

Amplitude Energy Limited (AEL: ASX, “Amplitude Energy” or “the Company”) today announces that Dan Young, Chief Financial Officer (CFO), has decided to resign to pursue other opportunities.

The Company will conduct a search process for a new CFO. Throughout his notice period, Mr Young will support an orderly transition to Eddy Glavas, Chief Commercial Officer. Mr Glavas is a long-standing and respected member of the leadership team and will be appointed as Acting Chief Financial Officer effective 26 May 2025.

Jane Norman, Managing Director and CEO, stated, “Dan has made significant contributions to the Company over the past three years, including leading the July 2022 equity raise, the bank debt facility for the Orbost plant acquisition, the FY24 cost-out programme and the 2024 debt amendment and extension. During his tenure, he has contributed to the improved operational and financial performance of the business, laying the foundation for our next phase of transformational growth including the East Coast Supply Project. On behalf of the Board, I wish him every success in the future.”

Amplitude Energy Limited (ASX: AEL) is an Australian gas production company focused on supplying the Southeast domestic gas market. The company owns and operates offshore gas fields in Commonwealth waters and onshore processing plants in the Otway and Gippsland Basins, close to Australia’s largest gas demand centres, as well as non-operated oil production in the Cooper Basin. Amplitude Energy has a portfolio of long-term customer gas supply contracts, while retaining exposure to tight Australian East Coast spot gas markets. The company also holds an extensive portfolio of exploration and development prospects in the Otway and Gippsland Basins, including undeveloped discovered resources such as the Annie and Manta gas fields, in close proximity to its existing infrastructure.
