Letter to HTAL Shareholders

22 May 2025

Dear HTAL Shareholders,

Offer to acquire 100% of your HTAL Shares for A$0.032 cash per HTAL Share

I am pleased to enclose an Offer from Hutchison Telecommunications (Amsterdam) B.V. (HTABV), an indirect wholly-owned Subsidiary of CK Hutchison Holdings Limited (CKHH), to acquire all of your shares in Hutchison Telecommunications (Australia) Limited (HTAL). HTABV currently holds approximately 87.87% of the HTAL Shares.

The Offer is A$0.032 cash for each of your HTAL Shares.

Why you should accept the Offer

The reasons why you should accept the Offer include:

- the Offer represents a substantial premium to recent trading levels and compelling value for your HTAL Shares despite there being no change of control in HTAL;
- the Offer provides certainty of value in cash and the opportunity to immediately realise your investment for cash, avoiding the uncertainties and risks associated with HTAL's business;
- a competing proposal is highly unlikely;
- HTAL's share price may fall in the event the Offer is not successful and in the absence of a superior proposal;
- you will not be obliged to pay stamp duty or (if your HTAL Shares are held in an Issuer Sponsored Holding) brokerage fees if you accept the Offer; and
- you will cease to be exposed to the risk of dilution related to HTAL possibly needing to raise funds to fulfil any future funding calls from its 50%-owned affiliate, VHAH.

The Offer is conditional upon certain terms and conditions, including that HTABV obtains a relevant interest in at least 97% of the issued HTAL Shares. The full terms and conditions of the Offer are set out in section 10 of this Bidder's Statement.

HTABV has already received Australian Foreign Investment Review Board (FIRB) approval in respect of the acquisition of up to a 100% interest in HTAL. Accordingly, FIRB approval is not a condition to the Offer.

2 Summary of the Offer and other information

The information set out in this section is intended to provide you with an overview of CKHH, HTABV, the Offer to acquire all of your HTAL Shares and some of the risks that you should consider.

The following is a summary only of the Offer and is qualified by the detailed information contained in the rest of this Bidder's Statement. You should read this Bidder's Statement in full before deciding how to deal with your HTAL Shares.

The full terms and conditions of the Offer are contained in section 10.

Part A – Summary of the Offer

What is the Offer?	The Offer is an offer by HTABV to acquire all of your HTAL Shares by way of an off-market takeover bid, on the terms and conditions set out in section 10.
What is the Offer Price?	The Offer Price is A$0.032 cash per HTAL Share.
Who is making the Offer?	The Offer is being made by HTABV, an indirect wholly-owned Subsidiary of CKHH. For further information on HTABV and the CKHH Group, please refer to section 4.
When does the Offer close?	The Offer is scheduled to close at 7:00pm (AEST) on  2025. You should note that the Offer Period can be extended as permitted by the Corporations Act.
What is the Bidder's Statement?	The Bidder's Statement sets out the terms of the Offer, information relating to the Offer, and the consideration you will receive under the Offer if it becomes unconditional.
Why have I received this Bidder's Statement?	This Bidder's Statement has been sent to you because you are a HTAL Shareholder on the Register Date. This Bidder's Statement is intended to help you to decide whether to accept or reject the Offer in respect of all the HTAL Shares you hold. You should read this Bidder's Statement carefully and in full before making a decision in respect of the Offer.
What are the conditions of the Offer?	The Offer is subject to the conditions which are set out in full in section 10.6. In summary, the key conditions to the Offer are that: • during or at the end of the Offer Period, HTABV and its Associates collectively have relevant interests in at least 97% of the HTAL Shares; • no dividends are declared, determined as payable, or paid during the period from the date of this Bidder's Statement and ending at the end of the Offer Period; and • no prescribed occurrences happen during the period from the date of this Bidder's Statement and ending at the end of the Offer Period.

	In respect of the condition referred to in the first bullet point, as set out in section 6.2, if permitted under the Corporations Act, HTABV intends to proceed with the post-takeover compulsory acquisition of all of the outstanding shares in HTAL. In order to do so, HTABV and its Associates must, during or at the end of the Offer Period, have a relevant interest in at least 90% of the HTAL Shares, and have acquired at least 75% of the HTAL Shares that HTABV offered to acquire under the Offer. If HTABV and its Associates have relevant interests in at least 97% of the HTAL Shares as a result of acceptances under the Offer, HTABV will, upon acquiring the HTAL Shares under those acceptances (during or by the end of the Offer Period), be able to proceed with the post-takeover compulsory acquisition (it being the case that, as at the commencement of the Offer Period, HTABV has a relevant interest in 87.87% of the HTAL Shares).
What happens if the conditions are not satisfied or waived?	If the conditions are not satisfied or waived by HTABV by the end of the Offer Period, then the Offer will lapse and your acceptance will be void. You will continue to hold your HTAL Shares and be free to deal with them as if the Offer had not been made.
Why should I accept the Offer?	The reasons why you should accept the Offer include: • the Offer represents a substantial premium to recent trading levels and compelling value for your HTAL Shares despite there being no change of control in HTAL; • the Offer provides certainty of value in cash and the opportunity to immediately realise your investment for cash, avoiding the uncertainties and risks associated with HTAL's business; • a competing proposal is highly unlikely; • HTAL's share price may fall in the event the Offer is not successful and in the absence of a superior proposal; • you will not be obliged to pay stamp duty or (if your HTAL Shares are held in an Issuer Sponsored Holding) brokerage fees if you accept the Offer; and • you will cease to be exposed to the risk of dilution related to HTAL possibly needing to raise funds to fulfil any future funding calls from its 50%-owned affiliate, VHAH.
How do I accept the Offer?	See section 10.3 of this Bidder's Statement which sets out the steps required to accept the Offer either online, by logging in to https://events.miracle.com/HTALTakeoverOffer or via the Acceptance Form which accompanies this Bidder's Statement (if you have received a physical copy of this Bidder's Statement).
Can I accept the Offer for some but not all of my HTAL Shares?	No. This is an Offer for all of the HTAL Shares that you own. You cannot accept this Offer for only some, but not all, of your HTAL Shares.

If I accept the Offer, when will I be paid?	If you accept the Offer and it becomes unconditional, then as a general position, HTABV will pay you the consideration for your HTAL Shares under the Offer on or before the earlier of: - the day that is one month after the date of your acceptance or, if at the time of your acceptance the Offer remains subject to a Condition, one month after the Offer becomes unconditional; and - the day that is 21 days after the end of the Offer Period.
What happens if I accept the Offer?	Once you accept the Offer (even while it remains subject to the Conditions), you will not be able to settle any sale of your HTAL Shares on the market, subject to your limited statutory rights to withdraw your acceptance in certain circumstances.
What are the tax implications of acceptance?	You should consult your financial, tax or other professional adviser on the tax implications of acceptance of the Offer. However, section 8 contains a general summary of the major likely Australian tax consequences for HTAL Shareholders who accept the Offer.
Do I pay brokerage or stamp duty if I accept?	You will not pay stamp duty on the disposal of your HTAL Shares if you accept the Offer. If your HTAL Shares are registered in an Issuer Sponsored Holding in your name and you accept the Offer from HTABV, you will not incur any brokerage in connection with your acceptance of the Offer. If your HTAL Shares are registered in a CHESS Holding, or if you are a beneficial owner whose HTAL Shares are registered in the name of a broker, bank, custodian or other nominee, you should ask your Controlling Participant (usually your broker) or that nominee whether it will charge any transaction fees or service charges in connection with acceptance of the Offer.
What if I am a foreign shareholder?	Foreign shareholders will receive the same cash consideration as set out under the Offer, which will be paid in Australian dollars. However, the tax implications under the Offer for those foreign shareholders may be different to those relating to Australian resident shareholders. You should consult your financial, tax or other professional adviser on the tax implications of acceptance of the Offer.
What happens if I do not accept?	If HTABV becomes entitled to compulsorily acquire HTAL Shares If the Offer becomes unconditional and HTABV obtains a relevant interest in, and ownership of, at least 97% of the issued HTAL Shares, it is intended that HTABV would, if permitted under the Corporations Act, proceed with the post-takeover compulsory acquisition of the outstanding HTAL Shares in accordance with the Corporations Act. If your HTAL Shares are compulsorily acquired by HTABV, it will be on the same terms (including the same consideration for each HTAL Share acquired) as the Offer. However, you will receive the money later than the HTAL Shareholders who choose to accept the Offer.

	If HTABV does not become entitled to compulsorily acquire HTAL Shares If HTABV does not become entitled to compulsorily acquire your HTAL Shares, you will: • retain your HTAL Shares; • not receive the Offer Price; and • remain a HTAL Shareholder.
What are HTABV's intentions in relation to HTAL?	For information on HTABV's intentions, please see section 6.
Can I withdraw my acceptance?	Once you accept the Offer, you will be unable to withdraw your acceptance and the contract resulting from your acceptance will be binding on you and your HTAL Shares, unless a withdrawal right arises under the Corporations Act. A withdrawal right will arise if, after you have accepted the Offer, HTABV varies the Offer in a way that postpones, for more than one month, the time that HTABV has to meet its obligations under the Offer. If this occurs, a notice will be sent to you at the relevant time that explains your rights to withdraw your acceptance of the Offer.
What if I require further information?	If you have any questions in relation to the Offer or how to accept it, or if you have lost your Acceptance Form and require a replacement, please call the Offer Information Line on 1800 992 145 (toll-free within Australia) or +61 1800 992 145 (from outside Australia). Calls to these numbers may be recorded.

Part B – Overview of CKHH and HTABV

Who are CKHH and HTABV?

CKHH is a multinational conglomerate incorporated in the Cayman Islands with its principal place of business in Hong Kong, and whose shares are listed on the HKEX. CKHH operates four core business divisions in about 50 countries/markets: ports and related services, retail, infrastructure and telecommunications (as well as finance and investments and other operations).

HTABV is an indirect wholly-owned Subsidiary of CKHH. It is a company incorporated in the Netherlands.

What interest do CKHH and HTABV have in HTAL?

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, CKHH has a total relevant interest in 88.48% (rounded to two decimal places) of the HTAL Shares. This total relevant interest comprises:

- HTABV's direct 87.87% shareholding interest in HTAL; and
- a relevant interest arising from the equitable mortgage that Glenfer Group Limited (a wholly-owned Subsidiary of CKHH) has in respect of Leanrose Pty. Ltd.'s (ACN 010 872 045) 0.62% shareholding interest in HTAL.

Due to the above and to the operation of section 608(3) of the Corporations Act, HTABV also has a total relevant interest in 88.48% (rounded to two decimal places) of the HTAL Shares.

HTABV and/or its Related Bodies Corporate have had a majority, controlling interest in HTAL since at least prior to HTAL's listing on the ASX in August 1999.

For further information, please refer to section 5.6.

3 Why you should accept the Offer

HTABV is offering to acquire up to 100% of the HTAL Shares it does not currently own for A$0.032 cash per HTAL Share.

3.1 The Offer represents a substantial premium to recent trading levels and compelling value for your HTAL Shares

The Offer provides attractive value to HTAL Shareholders based on HTAL's historical trading prices prior to the Announcement Date. If you accept the Offer, you will receive A$0.032 cash for each of your HTAL Shares, subject to the terms and Conditions of the Offer.

The Offer of A$0.032 cash for each of your HTAL Shares represents a substantial premium to the trading prices of the HTAL Shares over the past six months.

The Offer represents a premium of:

- 52.4% to the closing price on 21 May 2025 of A$0.021;
- 39.1% to the 1-month VWAP up to and including 21 May 2025 of A$0.023¹;
- 39.1% to the 3-month VWAP up to and including 21 May 2025 of A$0.023²; and
- 33.3% to the 6-month VWAP up to and including 21 May 2025 of A$0.024³, where 21 May 2025 was the last trading day prior to the announcement of the Offer.

3.2 The Offer provides certainty in cash and immediate value

The Offer to HTAL Shareholders is 100% cash and provides an opportunity to realise certain and immediate value for your entire shareholding interest in HTAL.

If you accept the Offer and it becomes unconditional, you will receive A$0.032 cash for each of your HTAL Shares. Being cash, the Offer Price is not complicated by the need to value other securities, and gives you the opportunity to realise your investment for certain value.

In contrast, if you do not accept the Offer, the amount you will be able to realise for your HTAL Shares will necessarily be uncertain. The Offer removes this uncertainty for HTAL Shareholders.

If you accept the Offer in accordance with the instructions contained in the Offer and the Offer becomes unconditional, you will be sent payment by the earlier of:

- the day that is one month after the date of your acceptance of the Offer or, if at the time of your acceptance this Offer is subject to a Condition, one month after any contract resulting from your acceptance of this Offer becomes, or is declared, unconditional; and
- the day that is 21 days after the end of the Offer Period.

3.3 A competing proposal is highly unlikely

HTABV currently has a direct 87.87% shareholding interest in HTAL. Accordingly, HTABV can, on its own, prevent any other potential bidder from acquiring the required number of HTAL Shares necessary to compulsorily acquire HTAL and complete any acquisition. As a consequence, HTABV believes that the likelihood of a competing proposal emerging for HTAL is low.

¹ Based on IRESS market volume data from 22 April 2025 to 21 May 2025, rounded to 3 decimal places.

² Based on IRESS market volume data from 22 February 2025 to 21 May 2025, rounded to 3 decimal places.

³ Based on IRESS market volume data from 22 November 2024 to 21 May 2025, rounded to 3 decimal places.

3.4 The HTAL Share price may fall in the event the Offer is not successful

The last closing price of HTAL Shares on 21 May 2025, being the last trading day prior to the Announcement Date, was A$0.021. Although many factors affect the price of any given quoted security, if the Offer lapses and no alternative superior proposal emerges, the HTAL share price may potentially trade at levels below the Offer Price.

The Offer provides Shareholders with the opportunity to promptly realise certain cash value and mitigate external and company-specific risks to which HTAL may be subject.

3.5 No stamp duty or brokerage fees in accepting the Offer

You will not be obliged to pay stamp duty if you accept the Offer.

If your HTAL Shares are registered in an Issuer Sponsored Holding in your name and you accept the Offer from HTABV, you will not incur any brokerage in connection with your acceptance of the Offer.

If your HTAL Shares are registered in a CHESS Holding, or if you are a beneficial owner whose HTAL Shares are registered in the name of a broker, bank, custodian or other nominee, you should ask your Controlling Participant (usually your broker) or that nominee whether it will charge any transaction fees.

3.6 HTAL's future funding requirements

HTAL Shareholders should also be aware of HTAL's future funding requirements, which should be taken into account in respect of whether to accept the Offer.

HTAL's cash flows derive primarily from dividends received from TPG. Its funding requirements are principally its annual administrative costs (which are minimal) and any funding required to satisfy its pro rata 50% share of any funding calls made by HTAL's 50%-owned affiliate, VHAH on its shareholders, being HTAL's wholly-owned subsidiary, H3GAH, and Vodafone International Operations Limited (VIOL).

VHAH's cash flows also derive primarily from dividends received from TPG. Its funding requirements are principally its annual administrative costs (which are minimal) and any funding required to satisfy its payment obligations under a A$4.9 billion three-year multi-currency syndicated facility agreement entered into in November 2023 with a syndicate of lenders (the Multi-Currency Facility). The facility is fully drawn, carries annual interest at a commercial rate, and matures in November 2026.⁴

If VHAH's cash reserves and cash flows are insufficient to fund payment of interest due under the Multi-Currency Facility, or the repayment of the Multi-Currency Facility on its maturity in November 2026, and if such funding is not available to VHAH from third party commercial lenders on commercially reasonable terms for VHAH, then VHAH must call on each of its two shareholders, H3GAH and VIOL, to provide to VHAH one half of the total amount of the required additional funding, and H3GAH and VIOL must each provide its share of the additional funding called for.⁵

If, in turn, HTAL's and H3GAH's cash reserves and cash flows are insufficient to satisfy any such funding calls from VHAH, HTAL or H3GAH (or both) will likely need to raise further funds from either debt financing (for example, third party loans), or equity financing (for example, a HTAL rights issue) which would be dilutive to HTAL Shareholders. HTAL Shareholders who accept the Offer will cease to be exposed to that risk.

⁴ See page 38, Note 10 in the HTAL 2024 Annual Report for the year ended 31 December 2024, released to the ASX on 28 March 2025.

⁵ Please refer to the VHAH Shareholders' Agreement as set out in Annexure C to the Notice of change of interest of substantial holder by, amongst others, CKHH, H3GAH and HTAL, in respect of their relevant interest in TPG, as released to the ASX on 13 July 2022.

In respect of any future TPG dividends and other distributions, it is noted that, on 14 October 2024, TPG released to the ASX an announcement that it had agreed to sell its fibre network infrastructure assets and Enterprise, Government and Wholesale fixed business to Vocus Group Limited for an enterprise value of A$5.25 billion which includes a potential contingent value payment, and which TPG anticipated would deliver net cash proceeds to TPG at completion of A$4.65 billion to A$4.75 billion. TPG later announced at page 2 of its 2024 Annual Report released to the ASX on 28 February 2025 that proceeds from the transaction would create an opportunity for it to optimise its capital structure. The completion of that sale remains subject to regulatory approvals being obtained. If that sale completes, there is no certainty of whether and the extent to which the sale proceeds would be distributed to TPG shareholders, including H3GAH and VHAH, and no certainty of whether and the extent to which any such distributions received by H3GAH and VHAH would be sufficient to meet their respective funding needs, or to make any distribution to their shareholders.

 - an indirect 13.91% shareholding interest due to H3GAH having a 50% shareholding interest in VHAH, a UK company which has a 27.82% shareholding interest in TPG (the other 50% of VHAH is owned by an indirect wholly-owned Subsidiary of Vodafone Group Plc), with the ownership and management of VHAH being regulated under the VHAH Shareholders' Agreement; and

5.6 Interests in HTAL securities

(a) CKHH and HTABV's relevant interest in HTAL securities and voting power in HTAL

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement and immediately before the first Offer was sent, each of CKHH and HTABV had a total relevant interest in 12,009,393,175 HTAL Shares, or approximately 88.48% (rounded to two decimal places) of the issued HTAL Shares. This comprises:

- 11,925,479,378 HTAL Shares which are held by HTABV (representing an 87.87% shareholding interest); and
- 83,913,797 HTAL Shares which are held by Leanrose Pty. Ltd. (ACN 010 872 045) (representing a 0.62% shareholding interest) and in respect of which Glenfer Group Limited (a wholly-owned Subsidiary of CKHH) has a relevant interest by virtue of having an equitable mortgage over those HTAL Shares.

Therefore, as at the date of this Bidder's Statement and immediately before the first Offer was sent, HTABV's total voting power in HTAL was approximately 88.48% (rounded to two decimal places).

(b) Acquisitions of HTAL Shares by HTABV or Associates

Neither HTABV nor any of its Associates has provided (or agreed to provide) consideration for a HTAL Share under a purchase or agreement to purchase during the four months before the date of this Bidder's Statement or in the period between the date of this Bidder's Statement and the date of the Offer.

5.7 Recent and historical trading of HTAL Shares

The last recorded sale price of HTAL Shares on the ASX on 21 May 2025 was A$0.021.

In the 12 months preceding 21 May 2025, approximately 11 million⁶ HTAL Shares representing approximately 0.1% of the HTAL Shares currently on issue were traded on the ASX at a VWAP of A$0.026, with a price range of A$0.020 to A$0.038.

5.8 Substantial holders

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, the following persons have disclosed themselves as 'substantial shareholders' of HTAL.

Shareholder	Voting Power	Number of HTAL Shares

As disclosed in the HTAL 2024 Annual Report and in substantial holding notices lodged with the ASX, each of:

- Li Ka-Shing Unity Trustee Company Limited as trustee for The Li Ka-Shing Unity Trust; and
- Vodafone Group Plc and Subsidiaries,

also have a relevant interest in the HTAL Shares in which CKHH has a relevant interest, though none of Li Ka-Shing Unity Trustee Company Limited as trustee for The Li Ka-Shing Unity Trust or Vodafone Group Plc or its Subsidiaries themselves hold any HTAL Shares. Accordingly, each also is taken to have voting power of 88.48% (rounded to two decimal places) in HTAL Shares as at the date of this Bidder's Statement.

⁶ 1 Based on IRESS market volume data from 22 May 2024 to 21 May 2025.

6 Intentions

6.1 Introduction

This section 6 sets out HTABV's intentions in relation to:

- the continuation of the business of HTAL;
- any major changes to the business of HTAL and any redeployment of the fixed assets of HTAL; and
- the future employment of the present employees of HTAL.

These intentions are based on the information concerning HTAL, its business and the general business environment which is known to HTABV at the time of preparation of this Bidder's Statement.

Final decisions regarding these matters will only be made by HTABV in light of material information and circumstances at the relevant time. Accordingly, the statements set out in this section 6 are statements of current intention only, which may change as new information becomes available to HTABV or as circumstances change.

6.2 Intentions upon obtaining a relevant interest in at least 97% or more of the HTAL Shares on issue, and being entitled to compulsorily acquire the remaining HTAL Shares

This section 6.2 sets out HTABV's current intentions if HTABV receives acceptance of the Offer pursuant to which it obtains a relevant interest in at least 97% or more of the HTAL Shares and, if following that, HTABV acquires at least 75% of the HTAL Shares that are the subject of the Offer such that HTABV is therefore entitled to proceed with the post-takeover compulsory acquisition of the remaining HTAL Shares under the Corporations Act.

(a) Corporate matters

It is intended that HTABV would:

- proceed with the compulsory acquisition of the outstanding HTAL Shares in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 6A of the Corporations Act;
- if a compulsory acquisition process is initiated, subsequently procure the removal of HTAL from the Official List of the ASX; and
- consider the replacement of some or all of the members of the HTAL Board. Replacement Board members have not yet been identified by HTABV and their identity will depend on the circumstances at the relevant time. This may simply occur via the resignation of some or all directors of the HTAL Board.

(b) Employees

If the Offer is successful, it is intended that HTAL's two employees – both of whom perform financial reporting and accounting functions – will continue in their present roles.

(c) Business and other

It is possible that, at some point in the future, after the completion of the privatisation and delisting of HTAL, HTAL's ownership of shares in TPG and VHAH (and all of the rights and obligations of HTAL and H3GAH under the VHAH Shareholders' Agreement) will be transferred to a wholly-owned Subsidiary of CKHH as part of an internal restructure for the purpose of consolidating, under a single holding company, all of CKHH's telecommunications interests and businesses.

It is HTABV's present intention to support any such transfer of shares in TPG and VHAH (and of all of the rights and obligations of HTAL and H3GAH under the VHAH Shareholders' Agreement).

6.3 Intentions upon not obtaining a relevant interest in at least 97% or more of the HTAL Shares on issue, and not being entitled to compulsorily acquire the remaining HTAL Shares

HTABV has not yet formed any intentions in respect of the corporate matters, employees, business or other matters of HTAL in a scenario where HTABV does not obtain a relevant interest in at least 97% of the HTAL Shares and does not become entitled to compulsorily acquire the remaining HTAL Shares. Further, HTABV has not made any decision on whether it would waive the 'Minimum 97% relevant interest' condition in section 10.6(a).

6.4 Limitations on intentions

The intentions and statements of future conduct set out in this section 6 must be read as being subject to:

- the law (including the Corporations Act) and the ASX Listing Rules; and
- the legal obligation of the HTAL Directors to act in good faith in the best interests of HTAL and for proper purposes and to have regard to the interests of all HTAL Shareholders.

7 Sources of Consideration

7.1 Consideration under the Offer

The consideration for the acquisition of the HTAL Shares to which the Offer relates will be satisfied by the payment of cash (in Australian dollars).

Based on the number of HTAL Shares on issue as at the date of this Bidder's Statement, and as HTABV already owns 87.87% of the HTAL Shares as at the date of this Bidder's Statement, the maximum amount of cash that would be payable by HTABV under the Offer if acceptances were received for all HTAL Shares in which HTABV does not already own is approximately A$52.7 million (the Offer Amount).

7.2 HTABV's funding arrangements

CKHH, the ultimate parent company of HTABV, has made a cash funding commitment in favour of HTABV (Cash Commitment). As disclosed in the CKHH 2024 Annual Report, as at 31 December 2024, CKHH has cash and cash equivalents totalling HK$121,303 million (equivalent to approximately A$25,134,787,924⁷ at the time). For the purpose of funding the consideration under the Offer, pursuant to the Cash Commitment, CKHH has agreed to pay, or procure one or more of its Subsidiaries to pay, HTABV an aggregate amount of up to A$70 million, which is equal to the Offer Amount and the amount of expenses reasonably likely to be incurred by HTABV in respect of the Offer in Australian dollars. The funds under the Cash Commitment can be drawn by HTABV from time to time.

Payment under the Cash Commitment is not subject to any conditions.

7.3 Provision of consideration

On the basis of the arrangements described in this section 7, HTABV believes that it has reasonable grounds for holding the view, and does hold the view, that HTABV will be able to provide the consideration offered under the Offer.

⁷ Based on the exchange rate of A$1: HK$4.8261 for 31 December 2024 as published by the Reserve Bank of Australia.

8 Australian Tax Considerations

8.1 Introduction

The following is a general description of the Australian income tax (including CGT), GST and stamp duty consequences to HTAL Shareholders on disposing of their HTAL Shares (through acceptance of the Offer) in return for cash consideration. The Australian taxation consequences for HTAL Shareholders will depend on their individual circumstances. HTAL Shareholders should make their own enquiries and seek independent professional advice on their circumstances.

The comments set out below do not apply to all HTAL Shareholders. They are relevant only to those HTAL Shareholders who are individuals, companies (other than life insurance companies), trusts and complying superannuation funds that hold their HTAL Shares on capital account for Australian tax purposes. This summary does not apply to HTAL Shareholders who:

- (a) hold their HTAL Shares on revenue account (such as share trading entities or entities who acquired their HTAL Shares for the purposes of resale at a profit) or as trading stock;
- (b) may be subject to special tax rules, such as partnerships, tax exempt organisations, entities subject to the investment manager regime under subdivision 842-I of the ITAA 1997 in relation to their HTAL Shares, insurance companies, dealers in securities or shareholders who change their tax residency while holding their HTAL Shares;
- (c) have a functional currency for Australian tax purposes other than an Australian functional currency; or
- (d) are subject to the taxation of financial arrangements rules in Division 230 of the ITAA 1997 in relation to gains and losses on their HTAL Shares.

HTAL Shareholders who are not resident in Australia for tax purposes should also take into account the tax consequences under the laws of their country of residence, as well as under Australian law, of the disposal of HTAL Shares under the Offer.

The following description is based upon Australian taxation law and practice in effect as at the date of this Bidder's Statement. It is not intended to be an authoritative or complete statement or analysis of the taxation laws applicable to the particular circumstances of every HTAL Shareholder. HTAL Shareholders should seek independent professional advice regarding the taxation consequences of disposing of HTAL Shares in light of their own particular circumstances.

8.2 Australian resident HTAL Shareholders

Acceptance of the Offer, if it becomes unconditional, will involve the disposal by HTAL Shareholders of their HTAL Shares, by way of transfer to HTABV.

The disposal of HTAL Shares acquired, or deemed to have been acquired, and which are held on capital account will generally have CGT implications. Such disposal will constitute a CGT event for CGT purposes (CGT Event A1). The time of the CGT event should be the later of the date on which the Offer is accepted and on which it becomes unconditional.

If the HTAL Shares are not disposed under the Offer and are instead compulsorily acquired in accordance with Chapter 6A.1 of the Corporations Act, the disposal under the compulsory acquisition will also trigger CGT Event A1. The date of the CGT event should be the date when the Bidder becomes the owner of those HTAL Shares.

Australian resident HTAL Shareholders may make a capital gain or capital loss on the disposal of their HTAL Shares under the Offer. Broadly, a HTAL Shareholder will make a 'capital gain' if the capital proceeds from the disposal of their HTAL Shares exceed the cost base of their HTAL Shares, while a HTAL Shareholder will make a 'capital loss' if the capital proceeds from the disposal of their HTAL Shares are less than the reduced cost base of their HTAL Shares.

Capital gains and capital losses of a taxpayer in a year of income are, broadly, aggregated to determine whether there is a net capital gain. If so, that net capital gain is included in assessable income and is subject to income tax. However, a 'CGT Discount' may be available to reduce the taxable gain for certain HTAL Shareholders (see further below).

Capital losses may not be deducted against other income for income tax purposes, but may reduce capital gains realised in the same income year or be carried forward to be applied against future capital gains (subject to certain loss recoupment rules).

(a) Capital proceeds

The capital proceeds from CGT Event A1 include the money received, or entitled to be received, in respect of the event happening. Accordingly, the capital proceeds arising from the disposal of the HTAL Shares by the HTAL Shareholders should include the consideration under the Offer (being A$0.032 per HTAL Share) that each HTAL Shareholder will receive by accepting the Offer (assuming it becomes unconditional).

(b) Cost base and reduced cost base

The cost base of HTAL Shares is generally their cost of acquisition or deemed cost of acquisition, plus certain other amounts associated with acquisition, holding and disposal of the HTAL Shares, such as brokerage fees or stamp duty. The reduced cost base is typically determined in a similar, but not identical manner (for example, it excludes certain amounts such as non-deductible interest). The capital loss will be calculated on the basis of the difference between the capital proceeds and the reduced cost base of the share.

However, if a HTAL Share was acquired (or deemed to be acquired) at or before 11:45am on 21 September 1999, the cost base may be indexed for inflation, by reference to changes in the Consumer Price Index from the calendar quarter in which the HTAL Share was acquired (or deemed to be acquired) until the calendar quarter ended 30 September 1999. HTAL Shareholders who are individuals, complying superannuation entities or trustees of a trust must make an election if they wish to rely on indexation. Companies will generally be entitled to include the indexation without making an election. Indexation adjustments are taken into account only for the purposes of calculating a capital gain, and not a capital loss. Whether it is better for any given HTAL Shareholder to make the indexation election or not will depend upon the particular HTAL Shareholder's individual circumstances, including the cost base of the HTAL Shares and whether the HTAL Shareholder has any available losses.

On the other hand, if a HTAL Share was acquired (or deemed to be acquired) after 11:45am on 21 September 1999, the capital gain or loss is generally calculated on the difference between the capital proceeds and the cost base for the share, with no indexation.

(c) CGT Discount

If a capital gain arises on the disposal of an asset, a CGT Discount may be available to reduce the capital gain for certain HTAL Shareholders.

A HTAL Shareholder who is an individual, complying superannuation entity or trustee of a trust, and who does not or cannot elect to adjust their cost base for indexation (as described above), may be entitled to a CGT Discount if a capital gain results from the disposal of HTAL Shares which were acquired by the HTAL Shareholder at least 12 months or more before the time of the CGT event. The availability of the discount for beneficiaries of a trust will depend upon the particular circumstances of the beneficiaries.

The discount generally involves the capital gain being discounted by half for individuals and trusts, and by one-third for complying superannuation entities. Companies are not entitled to a CGT Discount.

However, the methodology for trustees is complex, and such HTAL Shareholders should obtain specific advice in this regard, including in relation to the tax consequences of distributions attributable to discounted capital gains.

HTAL Shareholders should note that any available capital losses will be deducted from the gross capital gain before the CGT Discount is applied.

HTAL Shareholders should obtain their own tax advice in relation to the operation of these rules.

8.3 Non-Australian resident HTAL Shareholders

A HTAL Shareholder who is not a resident of Australia for taxation purposes (a Foreign Resident), or who is the trustee of a foreign trust for CGT purposes, will not make a taxable capital gain on the disposal of HTAL Shares under the Offer unless their HTAL Shares are 'taxable Australian property'.

Broadly, HTAL Shares held by a Foreign Resident will be taxable Australian property only if:

- (a) they are an 'indirect Australian real property interest';
- (b) they were used at any time by the Foreign Resident in carrying on a business through a permanent establishment in Australia; or
- (c) the Foreign Resident was previously an Australian tax resident and chose to disregard a capital gain or loss in respect of their HTAL Shares from CGT Event A1 on ceasing to be an Australian tax resident.

A HTAL Shareholder who satisfies limb (b) or (c) above should seek their own independent tax advice as to the tax implications of the Offer, including tax implications in their country of residence.

Indirect Australian real property interest

HTAL Shares should not constitute an indirect Australian real property interest provided, broadly, that the total market value of HTAL's assets that are taxable Australian real property is less than 50% of the total market value of HTAL's assets, or alternatively, if the HTAL Shareholder does not pass the non-portfolio interest test. The non-portfolio test is not passed if the HTAL Shareholder does not, at the time of the CGT event, or throughout a 12-month period beginning no earlier than 24 months from that time and ending no later than that time, hold, together with its associates, an interest of 10% or more in HTAL. While it is currently not expected that the HTAL Shares will constitute an indirect Australian real property interest, HTAL Shareholders are advised to consult their own tax advisers on the potential CGT implications of disposing the HTAL Shares.

Announced changes to foreign resident CGT withholding

HTAL Shareholders who are Foreign Residents should be aware that these rules are subject to proposed changes which may result in changes to their obligations under Australian taxation law. The changes are intended to apply from the later of 1 October 2025 or the first 1 January, 1 April, 1 July or 1 October after the amending statute receives Royal Assent. For disposals occurring once the changes are in effect, Foreign Residents should seek independent tax advice in relation to the new CGT rules for Foreign Residents.

8.4 Stamp duty and GST

HTABV will pay the stamp duty (if any) payable in Australia on the transfers of HTAL Shares under the Offer.

No GST will be payable on such transfers, except that GST will be payable on any fees or charges that a Controlling Participant (in respect of HTAL Shares held in a CHESS Holding) or a broker, bank, custodian or other nominee (in respect of HTAL Shares held for a separate beneficial owner) may charge in connection with acceptance of the Offer.

9 Other material information

9.1 ASIC modifications and exemptions

ASIC has published various legislative instruments providing for modifications and exemptions that apply generally to all persons, including HTABV, in relation to the operation of Chapter 6 of the Corporations Act.

Amongst others, HTABV has relied on the modification to section 636(3) of the Corporations Act set out in paragraph 6(e) of the ASIC Corporations (Takeover Bids) Instrument 2023/683 (Instrument 2023/683) to include references to certain statements which are made in, or based on, documents lodged with ASIC or given to the ASX. Under the terms of Instrument 2023/683, the parties making those statements are not required to consent to, and have not consented to, inclusion of those statements in this Bidder's Statement.

HTABV will make available a copy of these documents (or relevant extracts of these documents), free of charge, to HTAL Shareholders who request them during the Offer Period. To obtain a copy of these documents (or the relevant extracts), HTAL Shareholders may telephone the Offer Information Line on 1800 992 145 (toll-free within Australia) or +61 1800 992 145 (from outside Australia).

As permitted by ASIC Corporations (Consents to Statements) Instrument 2016/72 (Instrument 2016/72), this Bidder's Statement may also include or be accompanied by certain statements:

- which fairly represent what purports to be a statement by an official person;
- which are a correct and fair copy of, or extract from, what purports to be a public official document; or
- which are a correct and fair copy of, or extract from, a statement which has already been published in a book, journal or comparable publication.

In addition, as permitted by Instrument 2016/72, this Bidder's Statement contains share price trading data sourced from IRESS without their consent.

9.2 Potential for waiver of Conditions

The Offer is subject to a number of conditions set out in section 10.6. Under the terms of the Offer and the Corporations Act, any or all of those Conditions may be waived by HTABV.

If an event occurs which results (or would result) in the non-fulfilment of a Condition, HTABV might not make a decision as to whether it will either rely on that occurrence, or instead waive the Condition in respect of that occurrence, until the date for giving notice as to the status of the conditions of the Offer under section 630(3) of the Corporations Act (see section 10.7(c)). If HTABV decides that it will waive a Condition it will announce that decision to the ASX in accordance with section 650F of the Corporations Act.

9.3 Status and effect of other Conditions

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, HTABV is not aware of any events or circumstances which would result in the non-fulfilment of any of the Conditions in section 10.6.

If any of the Conditions are not fulfilled, and HTABV decides to rely on that non-fulfilment, then any contract resulting from acceptance of the Offer will become void at (or, in some cases, shortly after) the end of the Offer Period, and the relevant HTAL Shares will be returned to the HTAL Shareholder.

9.4 Social security and superannuation implications of the Offer

Acceptance of the Offer may have implications under your superannuation or pension arrangements or on your social security entitlements. If in any doubt, HTAL Shareholders should seek specialist advice before accepting the Offer.

9.5 Approvals for payment of consideration

HTABV is not aware of any HTAL Shareholders who require any approval referred to in section 10.8(e) in order to be entitled to receive any consideration under the Offer.

9.6 Withholding of consideration

HTABV is not currently aware of any amounts that are or would be treated as withholding amounts under section 10.8(f). In particular, under the 'foreign resident capital gains withholding' regime, HTABV must withhold 15% of the purchase price from non-Australian resident HTAL Shareholders and remit it to the Australian Taxation Office if the HTAL Shares meet the criteria for indirect taxable Australian property interests. As noted in section 8.3, it is expected that the HTAL Shares should not constitute 'indirect Australian real property interests'. Therefore, HTABV should not have an obligation to withhold or make any payment to the Australian Taxation Office under the 'foreign resident capital gains withholding' regime. HTABV may seek a vendor declaration from HTAL Shareholders confirming that foreign resident capital gains withholding is not required. Also, it is possible that HTABV may become aware of an obligation in this regard after the date of this Bidder's Statement.

For example, under section 255 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 (Cth), the Australian Taxation Office may notify HTABV that all or part of the consideration otherwise payable under the Offer to HTAL Shareholders who are non-residents of Australia is to be retained by HTABV, and paid to the Australian Taxation Office, instead of being paid to the relevant HTAL Shareholders.

Under section 260-5 of Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 (Cth), the Australian Taxation Office may require HTABV to pay to the Australian Taxation Office all or part of the consideration otherwise payable under the Offer to HTAL Shareholders who owe tax-related debts to the Australian Government.

9.7 No collateral benefits

Neither HTABV nor any of its Associates has in the four months before the date of this Bidder's Statement, or in the period between the date of this Bidder's Statement and the date of the Offer, given, offered to give or agreed to give a benefit which is not offered to all HTAL Shareholders under the Offer to another person which was likely to induce the other person (or an Associate) to accept the Offer or dispose of HTAL Shares.

9.8 No escalation agreements

Neither HTABV nor any of its Associates have entered into any escalation agreement that is prohibited by section 622 of the Corporations Act.

This is an Offer for all of the HTAL Shares that you own. You cannot accept this Offer for only some, but not all, of your HTAL Shares.

(b) Issuer Sponsored Holdings

If your HTAL Shares are held in an Issuer Sponsored Holding (in which case your Securityholder Reference Number will commence with 'I'), you may accept this Offer in respect of those HTAL Shares online (or, if you have received a physical copy of this Bidder's Statement, by using the physical Acceptance Form which accompanies this Bidder's Statement):

Online acceptance

- (i) To accept this Offer online, you must:
 - (A) log in to <https://events.miraqle.com/HTALTakeoverOffer> and follow the instructions. You will need your Securityholder Reference Number and the postcode or country of residence (if your holding of HTAL Shares are registered outside Australia) associated with your HTAL Shares to log in; and

- (ii) Where your HTAL Shares are held in more than one name, a holder must have the authority of all other joint holders to act on their behalf in order to submit an online acceptance of the Offer in respect of all of the jointly held HTAL Shares.
- (iii) If you do not receive a confirmation email after attempting to accept this Offer online, please contact the Offer Information Line on 1800 992 145 (toll-free within Australia) or +61 1800 992 145 (from outside Australia).
- (iv) Your online acceptance of this Offer must be made before the end of the Offer Period.

Physical Acceptance Form

If you have received a physical copy of this Bidder's Statement, to accept this Offer using a physical Acceptance Form, you must:

- (i) complete and sign the Acceptance Form (in accordance with the instructions set out in the Acceptance Form), which accompanies this Bidder's Statement; and
- (ii) return the Acceptance Form (using the enclosed reply paid envelope for use within Australia if you wish), together with all other documents required by the instructions on the Acceptance Form, so that the Acceptance Form and any other required documents are received before the end of the Offer Period at the address indicated on the Acceptance Form.

(c) CHESS Holdings

If your HTAL Shares are held in a CHESS Holding (in which case your Holder Identification Number will commence with 'X'), you may accept this Offer in respect of those HTAL Shares online (or, if you have received a physical copy of this Bidder's Statement, by using the physical Acceptance Form which accompanies this Bidder's Statement) or through your Controlling Participant:

Online acceptance

- (i) To accept this Offer online, you must:
 - (A) log in to <https://events.miracle.com/HTALTakeoverOffer> and follow the instructions. You will need your Holder Identification Number and the postcode or country of residence (if your holding of HTAL Shares is registered outside Australia) associated with your HTAL Shares to log in; and
 - (B) follow the instructions and select the "Accept" option and submit your acceptance of the Offer. You will receive on-screen confirmation of submission of your acceptance of the Offer, and a further confirmation via email to the email address you provided after you logged in. This will authorise HTABV and the Share Registry to request your Controlling Participant to initiate acceptance of the Offer on your behalf.
- (ii) Where your HTAL Shares are held in more than one name, a holder must have the authority of all other joint holders to act on their behalf in order to submit an online acceptance of the Offer in respect of all of the jointly held HTAL Shares.
- (iii) If you do not receive a confirmation email after attempting to accept this Offer online, please contact the Offer Information Line on 1800 992 145 (toll-free within Australia) or +61 1800 992 145 (from outside Australia).
- (iv) Your online acceptance of this Offer must be made before the end of the Offer Period.

- (v) If you are a CHESS holder, HTABV strongly recommends that you submit your online acceptance of this Offer by no later than 5:00pm (AEST) on the last day of the Offer Period. This is because the Share Registry will need to confirm any online submission of your acceptance of the Offer with your Controlling Participant before it can be taken as validly submitted. There may not be sufficient time to do so for any online acceptance submitted by CHESS holders after 5:00pm (AEST) on the last day of the Offer Period. Your online acceptance is not a valid acceptance until your Controlling Participant confirms acceptance.

Controlling Participant

To accept this Offer through your Controlling Participant, you must instruct your Controlling Participant, in accordance with the sponsorship agreement between you and the Controlling Participant, to initiate acceptance of this Offer in accordance with Rule 14.14 of the ASX Settlement Operating Rules, so as to be effective before the end of the Offer Period.

Physical Acceptance Form

If you have received a physical copy of this Bidder's Statement, to accept this Offer using a physical Acceptance Form, you must:

- (i) complete and sign the Acceptance Form (in accordance with the instructions set out in the Acceptance Form), which accompanies this Bidder's Statement; and
- (ii) return the Acceptance Form (using the enclosed reply paid envelope for use within Australia if you wish), together with all other documents required by the instructions on the Acceptance Form, so that the Acceptance Form and any other required documents are received before the end of the Offer Period at the address indicated on the Acceptance Form.

By returning this form, this will authorise HTABV to initiate, or alternatively to instruct your Controlling Participant to initiate, acceptance of this Offer on your behalf in accordance with Rule 14.14 of the ASX Settlement Operating Rules before the end of the Offer Period.

You must ensure that the Acceptance Form (and all other documents required by the instructions on the Acceptance Form) are received in sufficient time for HTABV to give instructions to your Controlling Participant, and for your Controlling Participant to carry out those instructions, before the end of the Offer Period.

However, if you are the Controlling Participant in respect of your HTAL Shares, to accept this Offer, you must yourself initiate acceptance of this Offer in accordance with Rule 14.14 of the ASX Settlement Operating Rules before the end of the Offer Period.

(d) Unregistered purchaser

- (i) If, at the time of your acceptance of this Offer, you are not the registered holder of your HTAL Shares but section 10.9(b)(ii)(B) applies to your HTAL Shares, to accept the Offer you must:
 - (A) if your HTAL Shares will be held in an Issuer Sponsored Holding, follow the instructions for online acceptance set out at section 10.3(b); and
 - (B) if your HTAL shares will be held in a CHESS Holding, follow the instructions for online acceptance set out at section 10.3(c).
- (ii) However, if the Offer becomes unconditional, then notwithstanding anything else in this Bidder's Statement, HTABV's obligation to provide the Offer consideration in respect of your HTAL Shares as described in this section 10.3(d), will be subject to you becoming the registered holder of your HTAL Shares.

10.4 Status and effect of the Acceptance Form

(a) Status of Acceptance Form

If you have received a physical copy of this Bidder's Statement, the Acceptance Form that accompanies this Bidder's Statement forms part of this Offer, and the instructions on the Acceptance Form must be followed in using it to accept this Offer.

(b) Effect of Acceptance Form

By accepting the Offer, including by accepting online or signing and returning the Acceptance Form in accordance with section 10.3 (if you have received a physical copy of this Bidder's Statement), you irrevocably authorise HTABV and its nominees:

- (i) to rectify any errors in, or omissions from, the online acceptance or Acceptance Form that are necessary to make it an effective acceptance of this Offer or to enable registration of the transfer of all of your HTAL Shares to HTABV; and
- (ii) in respect of any of your HTAL Shares held in a CHESS Holding, to:
 - (A) initiate, or alternatively instruct your Controlling Participant to initiate, acceptance of this Offer in respect of all such HTAL Shares in accordance with Rule 14.14 of the ASX Settlement Operating Rules; and
 - (B) give any other instructions concerning those HTAL Shares to your Controlling Participant on your behalf under the sponsorship agreement between you and the Controlling Participant, as determined by HTABV (or its nominee) acting in its own interests as a beneficial owner and intended registered holder of your HTAL Shares, and acknowledge that:

- (C) with respect to sub-paragraph (A) above, HTABV (or its agents or nominees) will merely forward your online acceptance or Acceptance Form to your Controlling Participant (being the only person who can accept this Offer on your behalf) and that it is your responsibility to allow sufficient time for your Controlling Participant to initiate acceptance of this Offer;
- (D) HTABV (or its agents or nominees) is not responsible for any delays incurred by the process described in sub-paragraph (B) above or any losses whatsoever you incur by the fact that your acceptance is not processed before the end of the Offer Period; and
- (E) you must promptly give any further instructions or take any further actions necessary concerning your HTAL Shares to your Controlling Participant to initiate acceptance of this Offer on your behalf in accordance with Rule 14.14 of the ASX Settlement Operating Rules prior to the end of the Offer Period.

(c) Validation of Acceptance Form

Notwithstanding sections 10.3(b), 10.3(c) and 10.3(d), HTABV may (except in relation to HTAL Shares held in a CHESS Holding) treat the receipt by it of an online acceptance or a signed Acceptance Form either:

- (i) before the end of the Offer Period; or

- (ii) after the end of the Offer Period but where the Acceptance Form is sent by post and the envelope in which it is posted is post-marked before the end of the Offer Period, as valid even though it does not receive the other documents required by the instructions online or on the Acceptance Form or there is non-compliance with any one or more of the other requirements for acceptance. If HTABV does treat such an online acceptance or Acceptance Form as valid, subject to section 10.8, HTABV will not be obliged to pay the consideration for your HTAL Shares until HTABV receives all of those documents and all of the requirements for acceptance referred to in section 10.3 have been met (other than the requirement of your online acceptance or Acceptance Form to be received before the end of the Offer Period).

HTABV will make all determinations, in its sole discretion, in respect of the validity of the form of documents, eligibility to accept the Offer and the time of receipt of an acceptance of the Offer. HTABV is not required to communicate with you prior to making this determination. The determination of HTABV will be final and binding on all parties.

(d) Risk in Acceptance Form

- (i) Acceptance Form: The transmission by you of the Acceptance Form and any other documents in accordance with section 10.3 is at your own risk. No acknowledgement of receipt of any such documents will be given to you by or on behalf of HTABV.
- (ii) Online acceptance: In respect of acceptance of the Offer online:
 - (A) When using the online facility available at <https://events.miracle.com/HTALTakeoverOffer> to accept this Offer, for your acceptance to be valid, you must ensure that your acceptance is submitted before the end of the Offer Period. Neither HTABV nor the Share Registry accepts any responsibility or liability for any website downtime, delays or access failure that may occur due to circumstances beyond its reasonable control, and which may delay or impede your ability to access <https://events.miracle.com/HTALTakeoverOffer> or submit an acceptance online.
 - (B) When using the online facility available at <https://events.miracle.com/HTALTakeoverOffer> to accept this Offer in respect of the HTAL Shares held in a CHESS Holding, you must ensure that the acceptance is submitted in time for HTABV to instruct your Controlling Participant to initiate acceptance of this Offer on your behalf in accordance with Rule 14.14 of the ASX Settlement Operating Rules before the end of the Offer Period. There may not be sufficient time to do so for any online acceptances submitted by you if you accept too close to the end of the Offer Period.
 - (C) The use of <https://events.miracle.com/HTALTakeoverOffer> to accept this Offer is at your own risk.

(e) Revocation of acceptance

- (i) Once you have accepted this Offer, you will be unable to revoke or withdraw your acceptance of this Offer or otherwise dispose of your HTAL Shares, except as follows:

- (A) if, by the relevant times specified in section 10.4(e)(ii), a Condition, as set out in section 10.6, is not fulfilled or waived, then this Offer will automatically terminate and your HTAL Shares will be returned to you; or
 - (B) if the Offer Period and the obligation of HTABV to pay the consideration under the Offer is extended for more than one month and, at the time, this Offer is subject to one or more Conditions, as set out in section 10.6, then you may be able to withdraw your acceptance in accordance with section 650E of the Corporations Act. A notice will be sent to you at the time explaining your rights in this regard.
- (ii) The relevant times for the purposes of section 10.4(e)(i)(A) are:
 - (A) in the case of the Condition in section 10.6(b) – the end of the third business day after the end of the Offer Period; and
 - (B) in relation to all other Conditions, the end of the Offer Period.
- (f) Power of attorney or deceased estate

When accepting this Offer, you must, in accordance with the instructions set out in the Acceptance Form (which accompanies this Bidder's Statement if you have received a physical copy of this Bidder's Statement) return with your Acceptance Form for inspection by the Share Registry:

 - (i) if the Acceptance Form is executed by an attorney, a certified copy of the power of attorney; and
 - (ii) if the Acceptance Form is executed by the executor of a will or the administrator of the estate of a deceased HTAL Shareholder, a certified copy of any relevant probate, letter of administration or certificate of grant.

10.5 Agreement resulting from acceptance

By accepting this Offer in accordance with section 10.3:

- (a) you accept this Offer (and any variation of it) in respect of all of your HTAL Shares at the date your acceptance is processed (even if the number of HTAL Shares you have specified differs from the number of your HTAL Shares) and agree to the terms and conditions of this Offer;
- (b) subject to all of the Conditions being fulfilled or waived, you agree to transfer, and consent to the transfer in accordance with the ASX Settlement Operating Rules of all of your HTAL Shares to HTABV in accordance with this Offer and subject to the conditions of the constitution of HTAL on which they were held immediately before your acceptance of this Offer (and HTABV agrees to take those HTAL Shares subject to those conditions);
- (c) you represent and warrant to HTABV that, at the time of your acceptance and at the time the transfer of your HTAL Shares to HTABV is registered:
 - (i) all of your HTAL Shares are and will be fully paid;
 - (ii) you have full power and capacity to sell and transfer the legal and beneficial ownership of your HTAL Shares (including any Rights) to HTABV;
 - (iii) HTABV will acquire good title to your HTAL Shares and full beneficial ownership of them free from all Encumbrances or any restriction on transfer of any nature; and
 - (iv) you have paid to HTAL all amounts which at the time of your acceptance have fallen due for payment to HTAL in respect of your HTAL Shares;

- (d) subject to all of the Conditions being fulfilled or waived (and you not having withdrawn your acceptance of this Offer either in accordance with its terms or under section 650E of the Corporations Act), you irrevocably appoint HTABV and each of its directors and nominees severally as your attorney to exercise all powers and rights that you have as the registered holder of your HTAL Shares, including:
- (i) attending any meeting of HTAL, and voting in respect of your HTAL Shares, proposing or seconding any motion, and demanding a poll for any vote at any such meeting;
 - (ii) requisitioning the convening of any general meeting of HTAL and convening a general meeting pursuant to any such requisition; and
 - (iii) signing any form, notice, instrument or other document (including any proxy appointment) relating to your HTAL Shares,
- such appointment will terminate on the registration of HTABV as the holder of your HTAL Shares;
- (e) you agree that, in exercising the powers and rights conferred by the power of attorney in section 10.5(d), each attorney may act in the interests of HTABV as the intended registered holder and beneficial owner of your HTAL Shares;
- (f) except as contemplated by section 10.5(d) and while the appointment in that section continues, you agree not to attend or vote in person or by proxy, attorney or corporate representative at any meeting of HTAL, or to exercise or purport to exercise (in person or by proxy, attorney, or corporate representative or otherwise) any of the powers conferred by the power of attorney in section 10.5(d);
- (g) you irrevocably authorise and direct HTAL to pay to HTABV, or to account to HTABV for, all Rights in respect of your HTAL Shares (except to the extent that HTABV elects to waive its entitlement to those Rights), subject, however, to any such Rights received by HTABV being accounted for by HTABV to you if any contract resulting from your acceptance of this Offer is rescinded or rendered void;
- (h) subject to all of the Conditions being fulfilled or waived, you irrevocably authorise HTABV and its nominees to do all things necessary to transfer your HTAL Shares to HTABV (including to cause a message to be transmitted in accordance with the ASX Settlement Operating Rules so as to transfer your HTAL Shares, if held in a CHESS Holding, to the Takeover Transferee Holding), even if HTABV has not at that time paid or provided the consideration due to you under this Offer;
- (i) you agree to indemnify HTABV and each of its agents in respect of any claim or action against it or any loss, damage or liability whatsoever incurred by it as a result of you not producing your Holder Identification Number or your Securityholder Reference Number or in consequence of the transfer of your HTAL Shares to HTABV being registered by HTAL without production of your Holder Identification Number or your Securityholder Reference Number; and
- (j) you agree to do all acts, matters and things that HTABV may require to give effect to the matters the subject of section 10.5 or that HTABV may consider necessary or desirable to convey and transfer your HTAL Shares and any Rights to HTABV.

The representations, warranties, authorities and indemnity referred to in this section 10.5 will (unless otherwise stated) remain in force after you receive the Offer consideration for your HTAL Shares and after HTABV becomes the registered holder of them.

Between and including the date of this Bidder's Statement and the end of the Offer Period (each inclusive), HTAL does not make, determine as payable, or declare any dividend.

10.7 Nature and operation of Conditions

(a) Nature of Conditions

Each Condition is a condition subsequent to the formation of a binding contract upon your acceptance of this Offer. None of those Conditions prevents a contract to sell your HTAL Shares resulting from your acceptance of this Offer, but:

- (i) breach of any of those Conditions entitles HTABV to rescind that contract by written notice to you; and
- (ii) non-fulfilment of any of those Conditions at the end of the Offer Period will have the consequences set out in section 10.7(e).

(b) Separate Conditions for benefit of HTABV

- (i) Each paragraph and sub-paragraph of each paragraph of section 10.6 constitutes, and is to be construed as, a separate, several and distinct Condition. No Condition will be taken to limit the meaning or effect of any other Condition.
- (ii) Subject to the Corporations Act, HTABV alone is entitled to the benefit of the Conditions and to rely on breach or non-fulfilment of, or to waive, any of those conditions.

(c) Freeing of Conditions

Subject to the Corporations Act, HTABV may free this Offer, and any contract resulting from your acceptance of this Offer, from all or any of the Conditions generally or in relation to a specific fact, matter, event, occurrence or circumstance by giving written notice to HTAL and to the ASX declaring the Offer to be free from the relevant condition or conditions specified, in accordance with section 650F of the Corporations Act. This notice may be given:

- (i) in the case of the Condition in section 10.6(b) – not later than three business days after the end of the Offer Period; and
- (ii) in the case of the other Conditions – not less than seven days before the last day of the Offer Period.

(d) Notice on status of Conditions

The date for giving the notice as to the status of the Conditions required by section 630(1) of the Corporations Act is  2025 (subject to extension in accordance with section 630(2) of the Corporations Act if the Offer Period is extended).

(e) Contract void if Conditions not fulfilled

Your acceptance of this Offer, and any contract resulting from your acceptance of this Offer, will be automatically void if:

- (i) at the end of the Offer period (or, in the case of the Conditions in section 10.6(b), at the end of the third business day after the end of the Offer Period), any of the Conditions are not fulfilled; and
- (ii) HTABV has not declared this Offer and any contract resulting from your acceptance of it free from that Condition in accordance with section 10.7(c).

10.8 Payment of consideration

(a) When you will generally be paid

Subject to this section 10.8 and the Corporations Act, if you accept this Offer and the Conditions are fulfilled or waived, provided that all documents required by the Acceptance

Form (or otherwise) have been received by HTABV, HTABV will pay you the consideration for your HTAL Shares under this Offer on or before the earlier of:

- (i) the day that is one month after the date of your acceptance or, if at the time of your acceptance this Offer is subject to a Condition, one month after any contract resulting from your acceptance of this Offer becomes, or is declared, unconditional; and
- (ii) the day that is 21 days after the end of the Offer Period.

(b) Payment where additional documents are required

Where additional documents are required, either by the Acceptance Form or otherwise, to be given to HTABV with your acceptance to enable HTABV to become the holder of your HTAL Shares (such as a certified copy of a power of attorney) then, subject to sections 10.8(c) to 10.8(f) and the Corporations Act:

- (i) if those documents are given to HTABV with your acceptance, HTABV will pay you the consideration for your HTAL Shares in accordance with section 10.8(a);
- (ii) if those documents are given to HTABV after your acceptance and before the end of the Offer Period, while this Offer is subject to a Condition, HTABV will pay you the consideration for your HTAL Shares by the earlier of:
 - (A) one month after any contract resulting from your acceptance of this Offer becomes, or is declared, unconditional; and
 - (B) 21 days after the end of the Offer Period;
- (iii) if those documents are given to HTABV after your acceptance and before the end of the Offer Period, while this Offer is not subject to a Condition, HTABV will pay you the consideration for your HTAL Shares by the earlier of:
 - (A) one month after HTABV is given those documents; and
 - (B) 21 days after the end of the Offer Period; and
- (iv) if those documents are given to HTABV after the end of the Offer Period, and the Offer is not subject to a Condition, HTABV will pay you the consideration for your HTAL Shares within 21 days after those documents are given. However, if, at the time those documents are given to HTABV, the contract resulting from your acceptance of this Offer is still subject to the Condition in section 10.6(b), HTABV will pay you the consideration for your HTAL Shares within 21 days after the contract becomes, or is declared, unconditional.

(c) Delivery of consideration

Payment of any cash amount to which you are entitled will be made by cheque drawn in Australian dollars in your favour. The cheque will be sent to you, at your risk, by ordinary mail (or, in the case of HTAL Shareholders with addresses outside of Australia, by airmail) to your address shown on the Acceptance Form or shown to you when you are submitting your acceptance online, or your address last notified to HTABV by HTAL.

(d) Rights

If HTABV becomes entitled to any Rights as a result of your acceptance of this Offer, it may require you to give to HTABV all documents necessary to vest title to those Rights in HTABV, or otherwise to give HTABV the benefit or value of those Rights. If you do not do so, or if you have received or are entitled to receive (or any previous holder of your HTAL Shares has received or is entitled to receive) the benefit of those Rights, HTABV will be entitled to deduct the amount (or an amount equal to the value, as reasonably assessed by HTABV) of those Rights from any consideration otherwise payable to you under this Offer. If HTABV does not, or cannot, make such a deduction, you must pay that amount to HTABV, except to the extent that HTABV elects to waive its entitlement to those Rights.

(e) Non-Australian residents

If, at the time of acceptance of this Offer, any authority or clearance of a Public Authority is required for you to receive any consideration under this Offer or you are resident in or a resident of a place to which, or you are a person to whom, any law of Australia or regulation under the Charter of the United Nations that would make it unlawful for HTABV to provide consideration for your HTAL Shares applies, then acceptance of this Offer will not create or transfer to you any right (contractual or contingent) to receive the consideration specified in this Offer unless and until all requisite authorities or clearances have been obtained by HTABV.

(f) Withholding of consideration by HTABV

If any amount (the withholding amount) is required, under any Australian law or by any Public Authority, to be:
