ASX Announcement

Refinancing of syndicated debt facilities

Perpetual Limited (Perpetual) (ASX:PPT) today announced it has refinanced its syndicated debt facilities. The syndication was oversubscribed with solid interest from existing and new banking partners.

The arrangement refinances all of Perpetual's existing corporate debt, including the previous core and acquisition facilities¹ into four new facilities, on improved terms and covenants, reflecting strong confidence in Perpetual and its underlying businesses. Perpetual has no debt maturities until 2027.

Key details for the four new facilities are provided below.

Overview of facilities

Key Terms	Facility A	Facility B	Facility C	Facility D
Type	Revolving	Term loan	Bank guarantee	Bridge
Maximum Commitment	A$300m	US$130m	A$185m	A$400m
Maturity	31 July 2028	31 July 2029	31 July 2028	31 January 2027
Interest Rate	BBSY + margin	SOFR + margin	Margin	BBSY + margin

In addition, in recent months, Perpetual has made further progress in relation to its gross (and net) debt position and as a result now expects gross debt to be between $740 million to $750 million by 30 June 2025². This is an improvement from the previously communicated target gross debt level of $750 million to $770 million by 30 June 2025³. Beyond FY25, debt reduction will be driven by the Group's diversified earnings, cost reduction program, cost and investment discipline, and the proposed sale of Wealth Management.
