
Update to ASX Code and Name Change Timing

Fortifai Limited (formerly Mighty Kingdom Limited, “the Company”) has been advised by ASX that the effective date for the change of Company name and ASX Code will occur following the completion of the Consolidation, approved by the Company’s shareholders at the Extraordinary General Meeting held on Friday 20 June 2025. Until that time the Company will be trading under its existing Code (ASX:MKL).

The name change will not take effect on ASX’s systems from 25 June 2025 as previously advised on 20 June 2025, due to timing limitations with the sequencing of corporate actions.
