In June 2025, Platinum experienced net outflows of approximately $428 million. This figure includes net outflows from the Platinum Trust Funds² of approximately $427 million.

In addition to the above outflows, Platinum funds will also pay distributions (net of reinvestment) of approximately $151 million in July, which will be reflected in the FUM figures in next month’s announcement.

Market update

Platinum Asset Management Limited continues to make good progress on reducing expenses with full year operating costs (excluding turnaround) expected to be circa $75 million and turnaround program implementation costs, including non-cash acceleration of share-based payment amortisation, of approximately $30 million.

As previously advised³, the Company is taking steps to generate further FY26 cost savings to help offset any future revenue declines. The FY26 savings target⁴ has now been increased from circa $5m to between $10m and $15m.

Investment gains and other income items (including interest) for FY25 are expected to range between $14 million and $16 million.

The Company did not earn any performance fees in the second half of FY25.
