(c) Financial instruments

(i) Classification

In accordance with AASB 9 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement, the Trust's investments are categorised in one of three categories: amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income and fair value through profit or loss.

The Trust classifies its investments based on its business model for managing those financial assets and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial assets.

Certain debt securities may be held within a business model whose objective is achieved by collecting the contractual cash flows, which represent solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI), as well as selling them. Such debt securities are classified as fair value through other comprehensive income.

The remaining debt securities are classified at fair value through profit or loss on the basis their contractual cash flows do not represent SPPI.

The Trust's other financial assets including the manager loan which is held for collection and is classified at amortised cost.

All financial assets held in the Trust are managed by the Investment Manager in accordance with the Trust's investment guidelines.

(ii) Recognition/derecognition

The Trust recognises financial assets and financial liabilities on the date it becomes party to the contractual agreement (trade date) and recognises changes in the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities from this date.

Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial assets have expired or the Trust has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership. Financial liabilities are derecognised when the obligation under the liabilities are discharged, cancelled or expired.

(iii) Measurement

At initial recognition, the Trust measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss (FVPL), transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at FVPL are expensed in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income.

Financial assets and liabilities

- Financial assets and liabilities at fair value through other comprehensive income

At initial recognition, the Trust measures a financial asset at its fair value. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at fair value through other comprehensive income are amortised in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income using the effective interest method.

(c) Financial instruments (continued)

Subsequent to initial recognition, gains and losses arising from changes in the fair value of 'financial assets or liabilities at fair value through other comprehensive income' category are recognised in the other comprehensive income in the period in which they arise, and they are reclassified to profit or loss when they are derecognised. For further details on how the fair values of financial instruments are determined, please see Note 4 to the financial statements.

- Financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

At initial recognition, the Trust measures a financial asset at its fair value. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are expensed in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income.

Subsequent to initial recognition, all financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are measured at fair value. Gains and losses arising from changes in the fair value of 'financial assets or liabilities at fair value through profit or loss' category are presented in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income in the period in which they arise. For further details on how the fair values of financial instruments are determined, please see Note 4 to the financial statements.

- Financial assets and liabilities at amortised cost

At initial recognition, the Trust measures financial asset at amortised cost at fair value including directly attributable costs.

Subsequent to initial recognition, all financial assets at amortised cost are measured using the effective interest rate method less any allowance for expected credit losses. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition is recognised directly in profit or loss and presented in other gains/(losses). Impairment losses are presented as a separate line item in the statement of profit or loss.

Cash and cash equivalent, receivables and loan assets (manager loan) are carried at amortised cost.

(iv) Impairment

At each reporting date, the Fund shall estimate a loss allowance on each of the financial assets carried at amortised cost (cash and cash equivalents and receivables) at an amount equal to the lifetime expected credit losses if the credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition. If, at the reporting date, the credit risk has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the Fund shall measure the loss allowance at an amount equal to 12-month expected credit losses. Significant financial difficulties of the counter party, probability that the counter party will enter bankruptcy or financial reorganisation, and default in payments are all considered indicators that the asset is credit impaired. If the credit risk increases to the point that it is considered to be credit impaired, interest income will be calculated based on the net carrying amount adjusted for the loss allowance. A significant increase in credit risk is defined by management as any contractual payment which is more than 30 days past due. Any contractual payment which is more than 90 days past due is considered credit impaired.

The expected credit loss (ECL) approach is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Fund expects to receive. The shortfall is then discounted at an approximation to the asset's original effective interest rate.

The amount of the impairment loss is recognised in the statement of comprehensive income within other expenses. When a trade receivable for which an impairment allowance had been recognised becomes uncollectible in a subsequent period, it is written off against the allowance account. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited against other expenses in the statement of comprehensive income.

(v) Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the statement of financial position when the Trust has a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts, and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

As at the end of the reporting period, there are no financial assets or liabilities offset or with the right to offset in the statement of financial position.

(d) Net assets attributable to unitholders - equity

Units in the Trust are listed on the ASX, traded by unitholders and are therefore classified as equity. The units can be traded on the ASX for cash based on listed price. While a listed investment trust, liquidity is generally expected to exist in the secondary market (ASX), there are no guarantees that an active trading market with sufficient liquidity will be available.

Under AASB 132 Financial instruments: Presentation, puttable financial instruments are classified as equity where certain strict criteria are met. The Trust classifies the net assets attributable to unit holders as equity as they satisfy the following criteria:

- the puttable financial instrument entitles the holder to a pro-rata share of net assets in the event of the Trust's liquidation;
- the puttable financial instrument is in the class of instruments that is subordinate to all other classes of instruments and class features are identical;
- the puttable financial instrument does not include any contractual obligations to deliver cash or another financial asset, or to exchange financial instruments with another entity under potentially unfavourable conditions to the Trust, and it is not a contract settled in the Trust's own equity instruments; and
- the total expected cash flows attributable to the puttable financial instrument over the life are based substantially on the profit or loss.

(e) Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions and other short term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

Payments and receipts relating to the purchase and sale of investment securities are classified as cash flows from operating activities, as trading of these securities represent the Trust's main income generating activity.

(f) Investment income

(i) Interest income

The Trust generates interest income from its investments in financial assets, loans, and cash investments. Interest income is recognised daily as it accrues, taking into account the actual interest rate on the financial asset and is recognised in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income.

Interest income from financial assets at amortised cost is recognised on a time-proportionate basis using the effective interest method and includes interest from cash and cash equivalents. Interest from financial assets at fair value is determined based on the contractual coupon interest rate.

(g) Expenses

All expenses are recognised in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income on an accruals basis.

(h) Income tax

Under current legislation, the Trust is not subject to income tax provided it attributes the entirety of its taxable income to its unitholders.

Financial instruments at fair value may include unrealised capital gains. Should such a gain be realised, that portion of the gain that is subject to capital gains tax will be distributed so that the Trust is not subject to capital gains tax.

Realised net capital losses are not distributed to unitholders but are retained in the Trust to be offset against any realised capital gains in future years. If realised capital gains exceed realised capital losses, the excess will be classified within unitholders' equity.

(i) Distributions

The Trust may distribute its distributable income, in accordance with the Trust's constitution, to unitholders by cash or reinvestment. The distributions are recognised in the statement of changes in equity.

(j) Other receivables

Receivables may include amounts for interest earned by the Trust. Interest is accrued at the end of each reporting period from the time of last payment in accordance with the policy set out in Note 2(f) above. Amounts are generally received within 30 days of being recorded as receivables.

(k) Payables

Payables include liabilities, accrued expenses owed by the Trust and any distributions declared which are unpaid as at the end of the reporting period.

A separate distribution payable is recognised in the statement of financial position.

(l) Applications and redemptions

The Trust is a closed-end vehicle in that there are no redemptions by unitholders. Instead, while the Trust is listed, unitholders wishing to exit their investment will be able to do so via the ASX. From time to time, the Trust may raise additional capital through the issue of additional units in the Trust which are represented by applications and are disclosed in the statement of changes in equity of the Trust.

(m) Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The GST incurred on the costs of various services provided to the Trust by third parties such as audit fees, custodial services and investment management fees have been passed onto the Trust. The Trust qualifies for reduced input tax credits at a rate of at least 55% hence investment management fees, custodial fees and other expenses have been recognised in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income net of the amount of GST recoverable from the Australian Taxation Office (ATO). The net amount of GST recoverable from the ATO is included in receivables in the statement of financial position. Cash flows relating to GST are included in the statement of cash flows on a gross basis. Accounts payable are inclusive of GST.

(n) Use of estimates and judgment

The Trust makes estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities. Estimates are continually evaluated and based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Revisions to the accounting estimates are recognised prospectively.

The Trust's investments are fair valued using external valuation techniques which are validated and reviewed by the Responsible Entity in conjunction with the Investment Manager.

For certain other financial instruments, including other receivables and payables, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to the short-term nature of these financial instruments.

In accordance with AASB 9, the Trust applies an expected credit loss (ECL) impairment model, which has not materially impacted the Trust. Please see Note 3 for more information on credit risk.

(o) Rounding of amounts

The Trust is an entity of a kind referred to in ASIC Corporations (Rounding in Financial/Directors' Reports) Instrument 2016/191 relating to the "rounding off" of amounts in the financial statements. Amounts in the financial statements have been rounded to the nearest thousand dollars unless otherwise indicated.

3 Financial risk management

The Trust's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks including market risk (including price risk and interest rate risk), credit risk and liquidity risk.

The Trust's overall risk management programme focuses on ensuring compliance with the Trust's investment guidelines. It also seeks to maximise the returns derived for the level of risk to which the Trust is exposed and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Trust's financial performance. The Trust's policy allows it to use derivative financial instruments in managing its financial risks.

All securities investments present a risk of loss of capital. The maximum loss of capital on long RMBS and ABS is limited to the fair value of those positions.

The investments of the Trust, and associated risks, are managed by the Investment Manager under an Investment Management Agreement ("IMA") approved by the Responsible Entity, and containing the investment strategy and guidelines of the Trust.

The Investment Manager has deliberately positioned the Trust's investments with significant protections against market stress. The Investment Manager undertakes regular stress testing of the bondholder protections (using the APRA '1 in 200-year catastrophic event' scenario) and ongoing surveillance and monitoring of the investment's performance and underlying collateral, to ensure the continued robustness of these protections.

The Trust uses different methods to measure and manage different types of risk to which it is exposed. These methods are explained below.

(a) Market risk

(i) Price risk

Price risk is the risk that the fair value of investments will change as a result of changes in market prices, whether those changes are caused by factors specific to the individual security or factors affecting all instruments in the market. Changes to the fair value of an investment will impact the Trust's net asset value. The Investment Manager manages this risk through the daily review of the carrying value of each of the assets held by the Trust.

All Trust fixed income investments are independently priced on a daily basis by a leading third party security pricing provider. Australian fixed income securities, including RMBS and ABS, are largely traded 'over-the-counter' and are not priced or traded via an exchange. The market pricing for such securities is driven by observable secondary market trades or the pricing of comparable new issues.

The Trust is an investor (not a trader), and as such, short-term fluctuations in bond values do not shape investment decisions nor does the Trust rely on short-term trading profits to meet its targeted investment returns. Additionally, unrealised gains and losses do not impact the Trust's ability to pay monthly distributions.

The table at Note 3(b) summarises the sensitivities of the Fund's assets and liabilities to price risk. The analysis is based on the reasonably possible shift that the investment portfolio of the Fund moves by +/-10% (2024: +/-10%).

(ii) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that a financial asset's value will fluctuate as a result of changes in market interest rates.

The Trust's assets are primarily invested in floating rate RMBS and ABS whose interest rates reset monthly. Absolute returns on floating rate RMBS and ABS therefore rise and fall largely in correlation with the RBA Cash Rate.

The table below summarises the Trust's exposure to interest rate risk at 30 June 2025 and 30 June 2024.

	Floating interest rate $'000	Fixed interest $'000	Non-interest bearing $'000	Total $'000

The table at Note 3(b) summarises the impact of an increase/(decrease) of interest rates on the Trust's operating profit and net assets attributable to unitholders through changes in fair value of changes in future cash flows. The analysis is based on the assumption that the interest rates changed by +/- 100 basis points from the year end rates with all other variables held constant.

(b) Summarised sensitivity analysis

The following table summarises the sensitivity of the Trust's operating profit and net assets attributable to unitholders to market risks. The reasonably possible movements in the risk variables have been determined based on the Investment Manager's best estimate, having regard to a number of factors, including historical levels of changes in interest rates and the historical correlation of the Trust's investments with the relevant benchmark and market volatility. However, actual movements in the risk variables may be greater or less than anticipated due to a number of factors, including unusually large market movements resulting from changes in the performance of and/or correlation between the performances of the economies, markets and securities in which the Trust invests. As a result, historic variations in risk variables should not be used to predict future variances in the risk variables.

	Impact on operating profit/net assets attributable to unitholders

As at 30 June 2024	60	(60)	(293)	294

The Trust has no foreign exchange exposure.

3 Financial risk management (continued)

(c) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that a counterparty will be unable to pay amounts when they fall due. The Investment Manager manages credit risk by undertaking a detailed due diligence process prior to entering into transactions with counterparties and ongoing daily monitoring of the credit exposures.

The initial due diligence process is detailed in the investment process of the Investment Manager and addresses aspects relevant to an assessment of the credit risk and includes risk assessments of both a qualitative and quantitative nature.

The Investment Manager further seeks to mitigate credit risk by adhering to the investment parameters of the Trust which have been designed in a manner that seeks to mitigate credit risk by ensuring the portfolio is diversified.

The Investment Manager determines credit risk and measures expected credit losses for financial assets measured at amortised cost using probability of default, exposure at default and loss given default. The Investment Manager considers both historical analysis and forward looking information in determining any expected credit loss. The Investment Manager considers the probability of default to be close to zero as these instruments have a low risk of default and the counterparties have a strong capacity to meet their contractual obligations in the near term. As a result, no loss allowance has been recognised based on 12-month expected credit losses as any such impairment would be wholly insignificant to the Trust.

(i) Debt Securities

The Trust invests in RMBS and ABS which may be rated or credit assessed by one or more of S&P Global, or Fitch Ratings or an independent, third party consultant that applies credit rating criteria consistent with the credit rating criteria of S&P Global's, Moody's or Fitch's Ratings. The Trust's investment guidelines require at least 50% of the financial assets to be rated investment grade (BBB- rating or higher).

An analysis of debt by rating is set out in the table below.

Rating	30 June 2025	%	30 June 2024	%
Asset Backed Securities
AAA	19,128		6,500
AA	78,334		9,960

Total Non-Investment Grade	312,222	30%	178,282	30%
Total	1,034,302		597,777

(ii) Cash and cash equivalents

The exposure to credit risk for cash and cash equivalents is considered low as all counterparties are investment grade Australian Authorised Deposit Institutions and all funds are placed on an 'at call' basis.

(iii) Manager Loan

The Trust's investment in the Manager Loan measured at amortised cost is considered to have low credit risk. The loss allowance on the Manager Loan is not deemed material as it has a low risk of default and the counterparty has a strong capacity to meet its contractual cash flow obligations in the near term.

(iv) Other

The Trust is not materially exposed to credit risk on other financial assets.

(v) Maximum exposure to credit risk

The maximum exposure to credit risk before any credit enhancements at the end of each reporting period is the carrying amount of the financial assets. None of these assets are impaired nor past due but not impaired.

3 Financial risk management (continued)

(d) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that an entity will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities.

The Investment Manager monitors the Trust's cash flow requirements and undertakes cash flow forecasts including capital budgeting on a daily basis. Cash flow reconciliations are undertaken daily to ensure all income and expenses are managed in accordance with contracted obligations.

The key aspects of liquidity management for the Trust are:

- It is a closed-end fund so it does not require liquidity to fund unitholder redemptions
- Unitholder distributions and Trust expenses are funded out of interest income
- The Trust receives monthly interest on its investment portfolio
- RMBS and ABS investments have structural protections to reduce liquidity risk for investors

(i) Maturities of non-derivative financial liabilities

The table below analyses the Trust's non-derivative financial liabilities into relevant maturity groupings based on the remaining period at reporting date to the contractual maturity date. The amounts in the table are the contractual undiscounted cash flows.

4 Fair value measurements

The Trust measures and recognises financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss on a recurring basis.

The Trust has no assets or liabilities measured at fair value on a non-recurring basis in the current reporting period.

AASB 13 Fair Value Measurement requires disclosure of fair value measurements by level of the following fair value measurement hierarchy:

- Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1);
- Observable prices from an independent pricing provider in markets which are not defined as active (level 2); and
- Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs) (level 3).

The Trust values its investments in accordance with the accounting policies set out in Note 2 to the financial statements. The Trust's investments in RMBS and ABS are classified as financial assets and the Trust relies on daily security pricing provided by a specialist, independent fixed income pricing provider for the valuation of its financial assets.

(a) Fair value in an active market (Level 1)

The fair value of financial assets and liabilities traded in active markets is based on last traded prices at the end of the reporting period without any deduction for estimated future selling costs. For the majority of financial assets and liabilities, information provided by the quoted market independent pricing services is relied upon for valuation.

A financial instrument is regarded as quoted in an active market if quoted prices are readily and regularly available from an exchange, dealer, broker, industry group, pricing service, or regulatory agency, and those prices represent actual and regularly occurring market transactions on an arm's length basis. An active market is a market in which transactions for the financial asset or liability take place with sufficient frequency and volume to provide pricing information on an ongoing basis.

(b) Fair value in an inactive or unquoted market (Level 2 and Level 3)

RMBS and ABS are issued to and invested by institutional investors over the counter and are not listed on any exchange. Although all financial assets invested in by the Trust are priced daily using mid-market prices provided by a specialist, independent fixed income pricing provider, it is deemed that transactions are not conducted with sufficient frequency for these financial assets to be classified as fair value in an active market (Level 1).

The Trust relies on information provided by an independent pricing service for the valuation of its level 2 investments.

Recognised fair value measurements

The tables below set out the Trust's financial assets measured at fair value according to the fair value hierarchy:

There are no separate classes of units and each unit has the same rights attaching to it as all other units of the Trust.

Capital risk management

The Trust considers its net assets attributable to unitholders as capital. There is minimal capital risk movement as redemptions are not allowed back to the Trust.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial report section of our report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Independence

We are independent of the Trust in accordance with the auditor independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001 and the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional & Ethical Standards Board's APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including Independence Standards) (the Code) that are relevant to our audit of the financial report in Australia. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code.

Our audit approach

An audit is designed to provide reasonable assurance about whether the financial report is free from material misstatement. Misstatements may arise due to fraud or error. They are considered material if individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the financial report.

We tailored the scope of our audit to ensure that we performed enough work to be able to give an opinion on the financial report as a whole, taking into account the geographic and management structure of the Trust, its accounting processes and controls and the industry in which it operates.

Audit scope	Key audit matter
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Our audit focused on where the Trust made subjective judgements; for example, significant accounting estimates involving assumptions and inherently uncertain future events.• Our audit approach reflects the nature of the investments held by the Trust and	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Amongst other relevant topics, we communicated the following key audit matter to the Audit and Risk Committee:<ul style="list-style-type: none">– Valuation and existence of financial assets at fair value: $1,034,302,000 consideration of the work undertaken by third party service organisations. The key third party service organisations relevant to our audit were the administrator who maintains the accounting records of the Trust, the custodian who provides custodial services for the Trust's investments and the Trust's external pricing expert who values the Trust's investments.

Key audit matter

- This is further described in the Key audit matter section of our report.

Key audit matter

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the financial report for the current period. The key audit matter was addressed in the context of our audit of the financial report as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on this matter. Further, any commentary on the outcomes of a particular audit procedure is made in that context.

Key audit matter

Valuation and existence of financial assets at fair value: $1,034,302,000

Refer to note 2 (Summary of significant accounting policies) and note 4 (Fair value measurements)

Investments in financial assets at fair value were comprised of investments in residential mortgage-backed securities and asset-backed securities.

The valuation and existence of financial assets at fair value was a key audit matter because they are the most significant item in the statement of

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Valuation procedures

The Trust obtains fair values of financial assets recognised at fair value from an external pricing expert. In relation to the fair values provided by that external pricing expert, we:

- Independently obtained a confirmation from that external pricing expert of the fair values of all financial assets at fair value as at balance sheet date and compared those amounts to the fair values used by the Trust; and
- Along with our PwC valuation experts, understood and evaluated the valuation methodology, data and significant assumptions used by that external pricing expert.

Key audit matter

financial position, accounting for approximately 98% of the Trust's net assets attributable to unitholders.

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

For a sample of those financial assets at fair value, we:

- Independently calculated their fair values and compared those amounts to the fair values used by the Trust; or
- Obtained fair values from external pricing services, other than the external pricing expert used by the Trust, and compared those amounts to the fair values used by the Trust; or
- Obtained the actual prices of transactions close to the balance sheet date and compared those amounts to the fair values used by the Trust.

We assessed the design and operating effectiveness of relevant controls at the Trust's service organisations by inspecting the most recent internal control reports provided to the Trust's Responsible Entity on fund administration and custody services. These reports outlined the controls in place at the service organisations and included audit opinions over the design and operating effectiveness of those controls. We assessed the reports by:

- Developing an understanding of the control objectives and associated control activities relevant to the valuation of the Trust's financial assets at fair value; and
- Evaluating the tests undertaken by the auditors of the Trust's administrator and custodian, the results of those tests and the conclusions formed by their auditors on the design and operational effectiveness of controls to the extent relevant to our audit of the Trust.

We performed tests over key controls operating at the investment manager of the Trust in relation to their monitoring and evaluation of daily prices provided by the Trust's external pricing expert.

Other information

The directors of the Responsible Entity are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report for the year ended 30 June 2025, but does not include the financial report and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial report does not cover the other information and accordingly we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial report, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial report or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed on the other information that we obtained prior to the date of this auditor's report, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the directors of the Responsible Entity for the financial report

The directors of One Managed Investment Funds Limited (the Responsible Entity) are responsible for the preparation of the financial report in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Act 2001, including giving a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the directors of the Responsible Entity determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial report, the directors of the Responsible Entity are responsible for assessing the ability of the Trust to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors of the Responsible Entity either intend to liquidate the Trust or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the financial report.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial report is located at the Auditing and Assurance Standards Board website at:
