ASX Announcement

FY2025 Financial Report

The ASX Appendix 4E and FY2025 Financial Report for Jatcorp Limited (ASX: JAT) ("Jatcorp" or "the Company") have been lodged today with ASX.

Results

Total revenue for the year was $34.8m, down 34% (decrease of $17.6m) on the previous comparative period ('pcp') from continuing operations. The gross profit was $11.4m, down 41% on pcp. The loss for the year attributable to the owners of Jatcorp was $2.5M

Jatcorp's statutory net loss after tax (NPAT) for FY25 was $6.9 million, down 533% on the pcp, and a slight improvement on the expected loss of $7.6 million to $8 million contained in the market update given on 11 July 2025. The main drivers for that loss were as set out in that announcement and the attached Financial Report.

Outlook

While the financial results for FY25 as a whole show a loss, the second half of the year was more encouraging.

Going forward, the current Financial Year will be about expansion and strategic consolidation. Jatcorp aims to enter new markets, partnerships, and product categories. The team is focused on unlocking value from Jatcorp's digital-first strategy, defending and strengthening its IP portfolio, and delivering consistent growth across the Asia-Pacific. Please refer to the attached Financial Report for further details.
