Merger of SKY Network Television Limited and Vodafone New Zealand Limited

As part of the Commerce Commission clearance process for the proposed merger between Sky and Vodafone, the Commerce Commission, Sky and Vodafone have now agreed a new extension to the decision date for the merger application.

The new decision date is Wednesday 21 December 2016, reflecting the fact that the Commerce Commission will have new submissions and cross submissions to review, including from multiple third parties.

The Commission continues to take an appropriately thorough approach to this transaction and Sky will continue to provide any additional information sought by the Commission as swiftly as possible.

End.
