Wollongong Coal Pty Ltd v Minister for Planning and Environment

On 1 December 2016, Justice Moore handed down his decision in Wollongong Coal Pty Ltd v Minister for Planning and Environment and dismissed Wollongong Coal's appeal seeking orders that the Planning and Assessment Commission's review report in relation to Russell Vale Colliery dated March 2016 should be set aside. Wollongong Coal is disappointed with the decision and will consider its appeal options in respect of it.

Wollongong Coal notes that the decision, and the Planning and Assessment Commission's review report dated March 2016, does not prevent the progression of its application for the Russell Vale Colliery Underground Expansion Project. Wollongong Coal will now consider its options for progressing this application.
