HUNTER HALL INTERNATIONAL LIMITED (HHL) TRADING HALT REQUEST

Hunter Hall International Limited (ASX: HHL) requests an immediate trading halt of its securities on the ASX.

In accordance with Listing Rule 17.1, HHL hereby provides the following information:

1. The reason for the trading halt is the pending announcement of the resignation of Mr Peter Hall's role at HHL as Chief Investment Officer and the possible impact on HHL's investment mandates.
2. HHL expects the trading halt to last until pre-open of the commencement of normal trading on Friday, 30 December 2016.
3. HHL expects the trading halt to be ended by the announcement of assessment of the consequential impact, if any, to HHL's investment mandates by the Board and proposed actions to be taken by HHL to find a replacement Chief Investment Officer.
4. HHL is not aware of any reason why the trading halt should not be granted by ASX.
5. HHL is not aware of any other relevant information in relation to this request.

HHL will update the market prior to the recommencement of trade with further information.
