Notes to the financial statements
As at 28 June 2014

1 Summary of significant accounting policies

The principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the period presented, unless otherwise stated. The financial statements are for Ingham Holdings I Pty Limited. The financial period covers the period, from incorporation, 6 March 2013 to 28 June 2014.

(a) Basis of preparation

In the directors' opinion, the company is not a reporting entity because there are no users dependent on general purpose financial statements.

This is a special purpose financial report that has been prepared for the sole purpose of complying with the Corporations Act 2001 requirements to prepare and distribute a financial statement to the members and must not be used for any other purpose. The directors have determined that the accounting policies adopted are appropriate to meet the needs of the members. Ingham Holdings I Pty Limited is a for-profit entity for the purpose of preparing the financial statements.

The financial report has been prepared in accordance with the recognition and measurement principles of Australian Accounting Standards and other mandatory professional requirements in Australia. It contains only those disclosures considered necessary by the directors to meet the needs of the members.

(i) Historical cost convention

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the historical cost convention, except for certain assets which, as noted, are at fair value.

(ii) Critical accounting estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the company's accounting policies.

(iii) Deficiency of Capital

As at 28 June 2014, the company has a working capital deficiency of $3,870,000. Included in the company's liabilities are amounts representing current tax liabilities. Tax funding arrangements are in place whereby parties to the agreement have committed to settle any amounts owing in relation to tax within the group.

Based on the reliance on this arrangement, the directors have concluded that no material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the company's ability to continue as a going concern. Accordingly the directors' have prepared the financial report on a going concern basis in the belief that the company will realise its assets and settle its liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business and for at least the amounts stated in the financial report.

(b) Income tax

The income tax expense or revenue for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period in the countries where the company's subsidiaries operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Ingham Holdings I Pty Limited
As at 28 June 2014

1 Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred income tax is also not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are not recognised for temporary differences between the carrying amount and tax bases of investments in foreign operations where the company is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in the consolidated income statement, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income respectively.

(i) Tax consolidation legislation

Ingham Holdings I Pty Limited, the ultimate Australian controlling entity, and its subsidiaries, have implemented the tax consolidation legislation.

The subsidiaries in the tax consolidated group account for their own current and deferred tax amounts. These tax amounts are measured as if each entity in the tax consolidated group continues to be a stand alone taxpayer in its own right. In addition to its own current and deferred tax amounts, Ingham Holdings I Pty Limited, the ultimate controlling entity, also recognises the current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets arising from unused tax losses and unused tax credits assumed from subsidiaries in the tax consolidated group.

Assets or liabilities arising under tax funding arrangements within the tax consolidated entities are recognised as amounts receivable from or payable to other entities in the group. Under the tax funding arrangement the members of the tax consolidated group compensate Ingham Holdings I Pty Limited for any current tax payable assumed, and are compensated by Ingham Holdings I Pty Limited for any current tax receivable and deferred tax assets relating to unused tax losses or unused tax credits that are transferred to Ingham Holdings I Pty Limited.

Ingham Holdings I Pty Limited
As at 28 June 2014

1 Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

(c) Investments

Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost. Dividends received from the subsidiaries are recognised in the parent entity profit or loss, rather than being deducted from the carrying amount of these investments.

(d) Contributed equity

Ordinary shares are classified as equity.

(e) Deferred shares

Under the Ingham Long Term Management Incentive Plan a select group of employees, of subsidiary companies, have been issued shares, subject to vesting conditions, in Ingham Holdings I Pty Limited which is recognised as an employee benefits expense with a corresponding increase in equity in the subsidiary. As these individuals are employed by subsidiary companies and are being provided these shares in relation to their employment in those subsidiary companies, the amount of this expense is recognised in the consolidated accounts of Ingham Holdings II Pty Limited and no expense or associated reserve is required to be recognised in these accounts.

(f) Impairment of assets

Assets are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at the end of each reporting period.

(g) Rounding of amounts

The company is of a kind referred to in Class Order 98/100, issued by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission, relating to the 'rounding off' of amounts in the financial statements. Amounts in the financial statements have been rounded off in accordance with that Class Order to the nearest thousand dollars, or in certain cases, the nearest dollar.
