30 August 2017

APPOINTMENT OF NEW CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Intellectual property firm QANTM Intellectual Property Limited (QANTM) today announces that Martin Cleaver has been appointed Chief Financial Officer and Company Secretary to replace Warren Howe.

Martin is a Chartered Accountant with over twenty years' experience in senior finance roles, including most recently with Chandler Macleod Group Ltd as Executive General Manager, Finance and also as Deputy Chief Financial Officer. Prior to that Martin held senior finance positions at ANZ Banking Group Ltd and KPMG.

QANTM's Managing Director, Leon Allen stated: "With QANTM's establishment as a publicly listed company, the opportunity has been taken to strengthen further the company's organisational capabilities by the appointment of a chief financial officer with extensive global financial experience, including within a publicly listed company environment. I am confident that Martin can further enhance QANTM's financial reporting, financial disciplines, operational efficiency measures and implementation of common IT systems, as well as play a role in engaging with the company's shareholders and prospective investors. Martin's institutional, M&A and global financial experience will also be valuable in the expansion of QANTM's Asian business interests."

"I would like to acknowledge and thank Warren Howe for his contribution in the period leading up to and following the company's successful public listing in August 2016. I am pleased we will be retaining Warren in his other areas of operational and business services expertise."
