

Adherium CFO Resignation

San Mateo, CA - January 23, 2018: Adherium (ASX: ADR), a digital health company that improves medication adherence and patient outcomes, advises that it's Chief Financial Officer has tendered his resignation.

Mr Marcotte will leave Adherium January 31, 2018 to take up a chief executive position in Silicon Valley.

Mr Arik Anderson, Adherium's Group CEO said: "We wish Tim well in taking up his new CEO role, and Adherium will announce his replacement in due course."

About Adherium

Adherium is a provider of digital health solutions. The Company develops, manufactures and supplies patients, pharmaceutical companies, healthcare providers and contract research organizations with the broadest range of "smart" medication sensors for respiratory medications to address sub-optimal medication use and improve health outcomes in chronic disease.

Adherium operates globally from bases in the USA, Europe and Australasia.

Inquiries

Global: Arik Anderson, ArikA@adherium.com

United States: Vik Panda, VikP@Adherium.com

Europe: Scott Fleming, ScottF@adherium.com, +31 6 4687 6989

Australia: Monsoon Communications, Rudi Michaelson, +61 3 9620 3333

Email: contact@adherium.com

Web: www.adherium.com