

ASX: LVH MARKET RELEASE

Update regarding integration with 'Apply with SEEK'

2 May 2018 | Melbourne, Victoria

Further to the announcement released to the ASX on 23 April 2018 (Announcement), as part of LiveHire's 4C Quarterly Update, LiveHire wishes to clarify the statement in the Announcement (together with all associated statements) that "LiveHire has completed a major 6-month integration with the 'Apply with SEEK' product (AwSK Product) provided by SEEK Limited (SEEK).” LiveHire notes that SEEK did not approve the release of the Announcement at the time.

The Announcement states, in respect of the AwSK Product, that “the integration is now live for three large customers: Alfred Health, Sydney Water and Roy Hill.” This statement was incorrect - the integration with Sydney Water and Roy Hill is not live. LiveHire advises the integration is live with Alfred Health. LiveHire retracts the former statement made in the Announcement as it applies to Sydney Water and Roy Hill, and further advises investors that they shouldn't rely on those statements.

LiveHire advises that Roy Hill and Sydney Water are customers of LiveHire and use the LiveHire Talent Community platform to manage their recruitment process and candidate applications, as communicated to the market at the time of launching those customers.

LiveHire, in consultation with SEEK, identified Sydney Water and Roy Hill as LiveHire customers that could potentially integrate with the AwSK Product following the Alfred Health integration. Integration requests on behalf of these clients are currently being considered by SEEK.

For the avoidance of doubt, LiveHire and SEEK do not have an exclusive contractual relationship or joint venture relationship. LiveHire does not have any rights to use data of candidates that apply using the AwSK Product for any purpose (other than to facilitate job applications), and candidate data from such applications is not used to create new LiveHire candidate profiles.
