Q1 FY19 Business update

Elite: World-class teams and associations continue to join market leader Catapult

Catapult have announced the signing of the French Football Federation, which includes 2018 FIFA World Cup Champions, the French men's national football team. The marquee signing meant that 15 of the 32 teams competing at this year's World Cup were using Catapult products.

Catapult has signed an agreement with another of the biggest and most successful football clubs in the world, Real Madrid CF. This agreement sees Catapult's elite wearables technology used by Real Madrid's prestigious football and basketball teams. Real Madrid will also use Catapult's ClearSky technology and have the integrated services of a Catapult performance consultant.

Catapult has also signed Football Association of Wales (FAW), which will see Catapult's elite wearables technology used by the Wales senior men's national team, as well as the U21, U19, and U17 age group squads. In addition to wearable technologies, the FAW will be implementing the Catapult AMS system to assess and share performance, medical, and wellness data internally from a centralised software platform.

More clients are seeing the value of Catapult's integrated performance technology stack. The company continues to empower performance across different markets, leagues, and sports, including the following notable renewals/new signings:

- National Hockey League (US) - extended the league wide deal to provide in-game video analysis services to all NHL teams until the end of 2020-2021 season. "We believe this will enhance the in-arena coaching experience," said David Lehanski, NHL Senior Vice President, Business Development and Global Partnerships. "It is important we provide each NHL Club's coaching staff with access to the best possible products that offer deeper insights into the game in near real time."
- Milwaukee Bucks and San Antonio Spurs (US) - renewed NBA clients using elite wearables technology
- Depaul University & University of South Carolina (US) – new signing for the Catapult Vision video product
- Chelsea FC (UK) - renewed marquee Premier League client for 2 years using elite wearables technology
- S.L. Benfica (EMEA) – the largest and most successful football club in Portugal, introduced elite wearables technology ClearSky, Catapult Connect, and Catapult Vision
- FC Copenhagen (EMEA) - first Danish football team, adopting both elite wearables and Athlete Management System (AMS)
- Argentinos Juniors (LATAM) – 11th client in the 26 club Superliga Argentina de Futbol using our elite wearables technology
- Sportivo Luqueño and Sol de America (LATAM) - taking Catapult to eight of the 12 teams in the Paraguayan Primera Football División using our elite wearables technology
- Colchester United (UK) - the largest performance technology investment for an English Football League Two team (the fourth tier of football in England) using elite wearables technology.

Prosumer: Positive product reviews, sales channels expanded and increasing social and digital engagement

Following positive reviews of PLAYR in Planet Football, Football365, Soccer365, Absolute Gadget, Gadget Head and Goal.com, PLAYR also announced a partnership with Fuse Soccer, where the technology will be used by footballers at Universal Orlando Resorts in association with Celtic FC and New Balance.

PLAYR is rated excellent on Trustpilot, demonstrating the very high quality customer focused products that we deliver.

PLAYR is now selling through established channels in the UK, Scandinavia, Europe, US and Singapore including ProDirectSoccer, Unisport, XXL, LovellSoccer, Greaves, soccer.com, b8ta, amazon.co.uk, amazon.com and Weston Corp.

PLAYR social and digital engagement is growing week to week following a focused program of content marketing. Since launching in June 2018 PLAYR already has more than 7,000 Instagram followers and is delivering positive sales growth in line with the company's ambitious expectations.
