¹ Under Listing Rule 4.7.3, an entity must lodge with ASX a completed Appendix 4G at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX.

Listing Rule 4.10.3 requires an entity that is included in the official list as an ASX Listing to include in its annual report either a corporate governance statement that meets the requirements of that rule or the URL of the page on its website where such a statement is located. The corporate governance statement must disclose the extent to which the entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during the reporting period. If the entity has not followed a recommendation for any part of the reporting period, its corporate governance statement must separately identify that recommendation and the period during which it was not followed and state its reasons for not following the recommendation and what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.4, if an entity chooses to include its corporate governance statement on its website rather than in its annual report, it must lodge a copy of the corporate governance statement with ASX at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The corporate governance statement must be current as at the effective date specified in that statement for the purposes of rule 4.10.3.

² “Corporate governance statement” is defined in Listing Rule 19.12 to mean the statement referred to in Listing Rule 4.10.3 which discloses the extent to which an entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during a particular reporting period.

ASX BEST PRACTICE RECOMMENDATIONS

Item	ASX Best Practice Recommendation	Comment	Implemented
Principle 1: Lay a solid foundation for management and oversight
1.1	A listed entity should disclose: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	The Role of the Board The Board is responsible for, and has the authority to determine, all matters relating to strategic direction, policies, practices, management goals and the operations of the Company. The Role of Management It is the role of senior management to manage the Company in accordance with the direction and delegations of the Board and the responsibility of the Board to oversee the activities of management in carrying out these delegated duties.	Yes
1.2	A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	The Company undertakes checks on any person who is being considered as a director. These checks may include character, experience, education and financial history and background. All security holder releases will contain material information following the guidance contained in the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (3 rd Edition) about any candidate to enable security holders to make informed decisions regarding the candidate's election or re-election.	Yes
1.3	A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	The Company requires that a detailed letter of appointment or employment contract is agreed with each director and employee. The Company's officers and management have all entered into service contracts	Yes

		which outline the responsibilities of each of the Company's officers and of management personnel when performing their roles for the Company.
1.4	The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	The Company Secretary has a direct reporting line to the Board, through the Chair.	Yes
1.5	A listed entity should: (a) Have a diversity policy which includes requirements for the board or a relevant committee of the board to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and to assess annually both the objectives and the entity's progress in achieving them; (b) Disclose that policy or a summary of it; and (c) Disclose as at the end of each reporting period the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity set by the board or a relevant committee of the board in accordance with the entity's diversity policy and its progress towards achieving them, and either: (1) The respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or (2) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act.	The Board values diversity and recognises the benefits it can bring to the organisation's ability to achieve its goals. The Board has established a Diversity Policy and will endeavour, where appropriate and practicable, to comply with this policy. A copy of the Policy is available at the Company's website. The Company intends to set meaningful gender and diversity objectives commensurate with the Company's size and operations. There are currently no women on the Board or in senior managements positions.	Partial

1.6	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	Due to the current size of the Board and the Company, a Remuneration and Nomination Committee has not been established and the Board is currently responsible for evaluating its performance, its committees and individual directors. The evaluation procedure involves a review and assessment of performance against key performance indicators. No review was conducted in the reporting period. It is intended that a review will be conducted in 2019.	Yes
1.7	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	The Board is responsible for evaluating the performance of the senior executives. The evaluation procedure for senior executives includes a review and assessment of performance against key performance indicators. No review was conducted in the period. It is intended that a review will be conducted in 2019.	Yes
Principle 2: Structure the board to add value
2.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the	The Board is responsible for the nomination and selection of Directors. Given the size of the Company and the nature of its operations, the Board does not believe it to be appropriate to establish a nomination committee at this time. The composition of the Board, its performance and the appointment of new Directors will be reviewed periodically by the Board, taking advice from external advisors where considered appropriate.	Yes

2.2	A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	The Board has not, at this time adopted a board skills matrix. However, the Board is comprised of directors with appropriate skills, experience and expertise.	No
2.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) The names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) If a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) The length of service of each director.	The Company has four directors, being Mr Rodney Hannington, Mr Michael Reh, Mr Reinier van der Drift and Mr Daniel Dickens. An independent director is a non-executive director who is not a member of management and who is free of any business or other relationship that could materially interfere with, or could reasonably be perceived to materially interfere with, the independent exercise of their judgement. Two of the Directors are independent, being Mr Rodney Hannington and Mr Daniel Dickens. The length of service of each director is disclosed in the Company's annual report.	Yes
2.4	A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors	Two of four directors are considered to be independent. The Board considers that having two independent directors, one of whom is the chairman of the Company, to be appropriate at the current stage in the Company's development. The Board intends to review its composition as the Company's operations evolve and may in the future appoint additional independent Directors as it deems appropriate.	No

2.5	The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	The Chair of the Board is Mr Rodney Hannington, an independent Director. The role of CEO and Chairman are not exercised by the same person.	Yes
2.6	A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and provide appropriate professional development opportunities for directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	The Board shall induct new directors in accordance with the process set out in the Company's Board Charter which is disclosed on the Company's website.	Yes
Principle 3: Act ethically and responsibly
3.1	A listed entity should: (a) have a code of conduct for its directors, senior executives and employees; and (b) disclose that code or a summary of it.	The Board has established a Code of Conduct for the Board. The Board is committed to meeting their responsibilities under the Constitution and Corporations Act when carrying out their functions as company officers. The Code of Conduct is disclosed on the Company's website.	Yes
Principle 4: Safeguard integrity in corporate reporting
4.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have an audit committee which: (1) has at least three members, all of whom are non-executive directors and a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, who is not the chair of the board, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee; and (5) in relation to each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have an audit	The Company has established an Audit and Risk Committee which shall be responsible for monitoring and reviewing financial reporting by the Company. The Company has adopted a Charter for the Audit and Risk Committee which sets out the committee's responsibilities, procedures, guidelines and composition.
