H1 FY19: Executing on our growth strategy

H2 FY19: Benefits flowing from business transition

OVERVIEW OF H1 FY19

ST DAVID DAIRY

- Acquisition completed 1 August 2018 - 5 months' results in H1 FY19
- Top line growth exceeding internal expectations and addressing near term input cost inflation

PARIS CREEK FARMS

- Rebranding complete and rollout into Eastern seaboard commenced; currently in 500+ stores in Eastern Sea Board... well positioned for growth
- Product and channel repositioning has taken longer than initially anticipated... a refined strategy for revenue growth from new branded products and cost base improvements is expected to drive improved performance

MAGGIE BEER

- Strong turnaround in operating performance from new categories, major retailer sales, and active cost out program, delivering strong EBITDA result
- Entered final negotiations to acquire the remaining 52% for $10m, to round out Longtable's premium food brand portfolio

CORPORATE

- Complete executive team now in place – highly experienced and well credentialed to drive the growth strategy of Longtable and deliver on the opportunities we see ahead
- Building a premium food group having carefully acquired two high quality businesses, with acquisition of remaining MBP shares planned

Normalised Portfolio results H1 FY19

¹MBP's Gross Profit includes fully absorbed costs such as direct labour (P&L by Function) hence lower GP% relative to the other Longtable businesses (P&L by Nature)

Saint David Dairy

- Sales growth trajectory ahead of expectations
- Addressing higher near term input costs – cream and overtime labour – that impacted H1 margin

Paris Creek Farms

- Revenue reflects business transition during the rebranding period
 - commenced Metcash rollout adding a further 200 Metcash stores since December
 - total national store count is now more than 1000 stores and growing across 3 key supermarket chains
- Expense increases predominantly related to unrecovered labour and higher marketing investment in support of the brand product refresh strategy
- Benefits from business transition to start flowing in late H2 as new distribution channels start to drive sales uplift

Maggie Beer Products

- Turnaround due to new product sales and new retailers alongside sustainable cost out initiatives

Corporate

- Investment in key staff and group office costs to support growth strategy, plus equity accounted portion of Maggie Beer Products' (MBP) profit

H1 FY19: Executing on our growth strategy

H2 FY19: Benefits flowing from business transition

Key priorities for H2 FY19

The future is very exciting and Longtable looks forward to building opportunities and unlocking value in its existing brands

FULLY INTEGRATE MAGGIE BEER PRODUCTS

- Focus on the opportunities that can be activated quickly including sales team integration, new product development, and manufacturing

GROW DISTRIBUTION

- Focus on growing distribution points for each brand as a primary revenue driver across entire portfolio

LEVERAGE STRATEGIC ADVANTAGE

- Harness manufacturing synergies across the businesses
- Unlock value of strong executive team

INNOVATE AND CREATE

- Marketing campaigns to deliver awareness, matching costs to estimated growth profile
- Actively prepare for launch in wellness and nutrition for value added dairy

UNLOCKING VALUE IN OUR BRANDS

Saint David Dairy strategy to expand rapidly

Growing a premium brand into new markets.

| What? | Why? | Status |
|---|--|--|
| Expand in Melbourne | Leverage existing infrastructure to reach more customers in Melbourne and grow brand | Underway. Continued organic growth in customer numbers to be enhanced by recent appointment of brand ambassador |
| Saint David Dairy Sydney | Grow revenue by expanding opportunity in Sydney with locally sourced milk and local facilities | In development. A new Sydney site is being scoped with Fitzroy style footprint. Sydney distributor performing well-growing customers and basket size – which will underpin expansion |
| Saint David Dairy <New City> | Grow revenue and expand brand awareness with launch of Saint David Dairy business in new cities | To be commenced in FY20. City/Areas to be selected will be those most aligned to the brand attributes of Saint David – Boutique, urban, single source, local. |
| New product development | Build product offering with “single source” products to complement offering to restaurants and cafes | In development. Offers would include plant based milk alternatives to complement our existing range of dairy products. |

Paris Creek Farms executing against strategy LONGTABLE GROUP

Implementing frameworks to deliver on growth opportunities with Australia's largest biodynamic organic dairy business

| What? | Why? | Status |
|---------------------------|--|--|
| Brand Relaunch | To attract broader national audience as a 100% Biodynamic Organic brand | Launch Complete. Continue Marketing activities to drive trial by new consumers |
| Product Relaunch | New innovative products developed in all categories to drive retailer and consumer interest | Implemented. Good success with cheese and yogurt. Reversion to traditional 1L and 2L milk bottles is positive. |
| Pricing Reset | Implement pricing reset across the entire range to reflect the brands premium positioning | Implemented. Price sticking but opportunity to improve volume with minor adjustments |
| Market opportunity | Build distribution by engaging Metcash and independent retailers to drive national penetration | Underway. Slower than expected rollout over Christmas/January period, with momentum now improving. |
| Milk Pool growth | Sustainably grow the biodynamic milk pool in line with demand expectations | Underway. Milk supply increased by 17% to 6.8m litres with existing farmer network. New farms identified to increase in line with demand |

Maggie Beer: Growth strategy underpinning acquisition
