

ASX RELEASE

EXTENSION OF VOLUNTARY SUSPENSION

Melbourne, Australia; 3 June 2019: Alchemia Limited (ASX: ACL) ("Alchemia" or "Company") refers to its announcement of 30 April 2019, pursuant to which the Company requested an extension to its voluntary suspension pending an announcement regarding a proposed change to the nature and scale of the Company's activities and ASX's determination as to the application of Listing Rule 11.1 to that transaction.

The Company hereby requests an extension of the voluntary suspension of the Company's ordinary shares listed on the ASX.

In accordance with Listing Rule 17.2, the Company provides the following information in relation to the request:

1. The extension of the voluntary suspension is requested pending an announcement regarding a proposed change to the nature and scale of the Company's activities and ASX's determination as to the application of Listing Rule 11.1 to that transaction ("purpose").
2. The extension of the voluntary suspension is necessary to assist the Company in managing its continuous disclosure obligations as the Company expects to make an announcement to the market in relation to the stated purpose.
3. The Company requests that the voluntary suspension remains in place until the earlier of the commencement of normal trading on Monday, 1 July 2019, or when an announcement with regard to ASX's determination is released to the market.
4. The Company is not aware of any reason why the voluntary suspension should not be extended or of any further information necessary to inform the market about the voluntary suspension.
