Orora Limited – Non-Executive Director Appointment

The Chairman of Orora Limited, Mr Chris Roberts, today announced the appointment of Mr Thomas Gorman as a non-executive director effective 2 September 2019.

Mr Chris Roberts, said “My fellow Board members and I are delighted Tom, who is based in the US, is joining the Orora Board, and look forward to his contribution.”

Thomas Gorman

Mr Gorman brings a wealth of experience to Orora, following a 30 year career in executive positions at Ford Motor Company and Brambles Limited, of which he was CEO. Mr Gorman is currently a non-executive director of WorleyParsons Limited and a director of High Resolves, an Australian-based non-profit focused on middle school education. He has worked in multiple functions including finance, operations, logistics, marketing, and business development in England, France, Australia and the United States (of which he is a resident). Mr Gorman graduated, cum laude, from Tufts University with degrees in Economics and International Relations and obtained an MBA, with distinction, from the Harvard Business School.
