ASX Release

Syndication Agreement with Domain Searching for the Best Real Estate Agent

RMA is pleased to announce it has signed a syndication agreement with real estate technology company Domain (ASX: DHG), whereby real estate agents who are subscribers of RMA or a Platinum subscriber of Domain will have their latest RMA reviews displayed on the Domain platform.

Consumers can see agent profile reviews on Domain's platform and also click through to the RMA platform to research agents further. This relationship will benefit RMA subscribers through increasing consumer traffic and leads.

About RateMyAgent

RMA is a Prop tech company that connects agents with sellers/buyers and allows comparison of agent performance.

The company has a scalable platform and has so far launched in Australia/NZ/US.

The company has multiple products that give agents options to share and promote their performance and reviews across multiple platforms; Google, Facebook and Instagram, increasing the exposure of agent profiles to people searching for the best agent.

In Australia circa 31,500 agents (85% of all agents) have claimed their profile on RMA platform and the company has 650,000 reviews of agent performance.

In the US, there are so far circa 25,000 agents on the platform with 12,500 reviews, both growing rapidly.

As the US entry matures, the company intends to launch in Canada and other countries.
