Charter Hall and Abacus enter into SIA to acquire AOF

Charter Hall Group (“Charter Hall”) and Abacus Property Group (“Abacus”) (together “the Consortium”), are pleased to announce, that following a period of due diligence, CHAB Office Pty Ltd as trustee of CHAB Office Trust (“CHAB”) (an entity owned by the Consortium) has entered into a binding Scheme Implementation Agreement (“SIA”) to acquire all of the units in Australian Unity Office Fund (ASX: AOF) that it does not already hold for $3.04 cash per unit (“Scheme”). The Scheme has been unanimously recommended by the independent board members of Australian Unity Investment Real Estate Limited, as Responsible Entity of AOF.

Under the terms of the Scheme, the Consortium will acquire all the units in AOF for a price of $3.04 per unit. This price will be reduced by any distribution announced or paid before the completion of the transaction other than the 3.95 cent per unit distribution announced on 21 June 2019.

The Scheme is conditional upon a number of matters set out in the SIA including, among other things, approval by the requisite majorities of AOF unitholders. The Consortium notes AOF’s announcement to the ASX today which outlines further details of the Scheme.

Charter Hall will fund its share of the AOF portfolio through an established wholesale partnership which will acquire Charter Hall’s interest in AOF. Abacus will fund its share of the acquisition from existing cash and debt facilities.
