Jervois Mining: Resignation of Interim CFO

Jervois Mining Limited (ASX: JRV) (TSX-V: JRV) (OTC: JRVMF) (FRA: IHS) (“Jervois” or the “Company”) advises that as anticipated at the time of the M2 Cobalt Corp (“M2 Cobalt”) merger, Andy Edelmeier has resigned as Interim Chief Financial Officer (“CFO”).

Mr Edelmeier was a founder and CFO of M2 Cobalt and joined Jervois as Interim CFO at the time of the acquisition of M2 Cobalt. Jervois would like to thank Mr Edelmeier for his service and contributions, especially through the integration processes following the acquisitions of eCobalt Solutions Inc (“eCobalt”) and M2 Cobalt.

Moving forward, Jervois’ finance function will be managed by both Cameron Knox (Group Controller) and Mandeek Manhas (Corporate Controller) who continue in their current roles.

Mr Manhas joined eCobalt as Controller in September 2017; prior to this time he was in audit with Deloitte and Grant Thornton.

Mr Knox was previously CFO of Laguna Gold and held accounting roles at Tigers Realm (Russian coal), Citadel Resource Group (Saudi Arabian copper) and Nyrstar (global zinc smelting and refining).

In accordance with Canadian regulations, Jervois is required to have a designated CFO. Mr Knox will fulfill this role as Acting CFO for the Company.
