Medibio Managing Director, Mr Claude Solitario commented that –

"The Capital Raising is a very positive outcome for Medibio, in what is currently a challenging operating and financing environment for many businesses, given the well documented impact of COVID-19. Importantly, we have structured the Capital Raising in a manner that will provide existing shareholders with the opportunity to participate in the Capital Raising through the Entitlement Offer. Additionally, the Board of Medibio is pleased to have the continuing support of CPS Capital. Their commitment to Medibio is very much appreciated. It reflects the solid progress the Company has made since their appointment and their confidence in the Company."
