Operating Revenue by Quarter ('000)

Active Trader Growth by Quarter

Melbourne, Australia – 6th July 2020: SelfWealth Ltd (ASX: SWF) ("SelfWealth" or "the Company"), has released its fourth FY20 Quarterly Cash Flow and Activities Report. This report shows further evidence of large numbers of new clients joining SelfWealth's retail trading platform and establishing their investment portfolios which in turn has led to a significant increase in operating revenue for the Company.

SelfWealth's Managing Director, Mr Rob Edgley had this to say on the quarterly results, "Key structural changes that have been emerging over time in investment markets have been accelerated by the COVID-19 pandemic, leading to changes in investor behaviour. Ultra-low interest rates globally and the digitisation of investment markets have led to large numbers of new investors in the share market, particularly amongst the Millennial and Gen Y demographic. A generation of savers is being transformed into a generation of investors, providing a sharp increase in the addressable market for SelfWealth's retail trading platform. This is evidenced by an additional 14,132 'active traders' joining our platform in the past three months.

"It is very pleasing to see this increase in 'active traders' which has led to six consecutive record months in trade volumes during the first half of 2020, and a more than doubling of total trades quarter-on-quarter. The tailwinds assisting the online broking industry as a whole have been particularly prevalent in SelfWealth's case.

The Company's highly-scalable, cost-efficient and well-performing solution is proving attractive to new and existing investors alike.

"The increased client numbers and activity levels have resulted in the Company's first quarter of positive cash flow from operating activities in its history. An $809k positive operating cash flow for the quarter was achieved with each month contributing positive cash flow numbers -- in particular the month of June which was aided by our annual 'end of financial year' SelfWealth Premium subscription offer."

Key Performance Indicators

Trade Growth by Quarter

Despite March being the strongest month for new active trader growth to date, April through June saw a continued influx of new clients, setting a record quarterly number of 14,132 new 'active traders'. Substantial customer growth contributed to a more than doubling of trade volumes across the June quarter.

Total Client Cash by Quarter

Total Securities Held on HIN by Quarter

The strong rally in share markets over the quarter combined with the influx of new clients has seen a significant increase in the total securities held on HIN on the platform. The end of June total securities held on HIN rose to $2.52bn, up from $1.56bn.

70% of the total orders filled on the platform during the quarter were on the 'buy' side as investors put their money to work in the market. Despite this large percentage of buy transactions, the total client cash held on the platform increased to $366m.

Product and Technology Update

The SelfWealth project team is working hard with our partner Phillip Capital to prepare the technology required for the launch of US equity trading in the fourth quarter of this calendar year. The project is progressing according to plan, and we hope to be able to invite all SelfWealth customers to open a US trading account within their existing SelfWealth membership over the next few months in the lead up to the launch later in the year.

An additional project to deliver an entirely new SelfWealth mobile app for iOS and Android, which aims to be a market leader in design and usability, has begun and is expected to be delivered in the coming months. The app will improve the trading experience for existing SelfWealth clients and attract new clients, especially in the younger demographic.

Operating Cash Flow

As expected, with a substantial increase in new clients, quarterly revenue grew strongly, and the balance sheet of the Company improved further. As of June 30, the Company has a net cash position of $XXXm and no outstanding debt.

The next quarter will see an increase in the Company's investment in growth and new revenue streams, most notably supporting the development of the international trading product and refreshed mobile applications.

In accordance with Listing Rule 4.7C, payments made to related parties and their associates included in items 6.1 of the Appendix 4C incorporates directors fees, remuneration and superannuation at commercial rates.
