Dear Dean

REQUEST FOR TRADING HALT

Hydrix Limited (ASX: HYD) (the Company) requests two consecutive halts to the trading of the Company's quoted securities on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) in accordance with ASX Listing Rule 17.1, effective from commencement of trading today, 28 October 2020.

In accordance with Listing Rule 17.1, the Company provides the following information in relation to the request:

1. The trading halt is necessary to assist the Company in managing its continuous disclosure obligations, as the Company expects to make a material announcement to the market in relation to a proposed capital raising by way of a placement. The Company requests two consecutive trading halts for the purposes of enabling it to consider, plan and execute the proposed capital raising.
2. The Company requests that the two consecutive trading halts remain in place until the earlier of commencement of normal trading on 3 November 2020, or when the announcement regarding the proposed capital raising is released to the market.
3. The Company expects to make the announcement to the market before the commencement of normal trading on 3 November 2020.
4. The Company is not aware of any reason why the trading halt should not be granted or of any further information necessary to inform the market about the trading halt.

Please contact me if you require any further information concerning this matter.

Yours sincerely
