FDV added to the S&P/ASX All Technology Index

Frontier Digital Ventures Limited (“FDV”, ASX: FDV or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that it will be added to the S&P/ASX All Technology Index (ASX:XTX), effective from 21 December 2020.

FDV’s Founder and CEO, Shaun Di Gregorio said:

“FDV’s inclusion in the S&P/All Technology Index marks an important milestone for the Company. Our ongoing focus on driving long-term value creation for shareholders has resulted in a significant increase in our market capitalisation and relative trading liquidity, which are key criteria for potential constituents. Inclusion in the index will enhance FDV’s global profile and increase the Company’s relevance and visibility with a broader base of investors.”

The S&P/ASX All Technology Index was launched in February 2020 and is rebalanced quarterly. The index is designed to capture companies that are yet to qualify for the S&P/ASX 300 Index and provide access to the fastest growing sector on the ASX through a single index. Following the rebalance announcement today, FDV will be the fifth company to be included from the Interactive Media & Services sub-industry, joining REA, SEEK, carsales and Domain.
