

Retirement of Executive Director, Dr Chien Ho from Board

22 February 2021, Melbourne

Integral Diagnostics Limited (ASX: IDX) announces that Dr Chien Ho is taking an extended period of leave from his radiologist duties with the Company and also will be stepping down from the IDX Board in the role of Executive Director effective 1 March 2021. The succession process for the position will recommence when COVID-19 travel restrictions ease.

Chair of Integral Diagnostics, Helen Kurincic said: “We all applaud Dr Chien Ho for his valuable, tremendous contribution over nearly 13 years, as a Board member and Clinical Leader of the Company since 2014 and as a Director of Lake Imaging prior to that. Dr Ho has been a full-time radiologist, Board member, inaugural Chair of the Integral Clinical Leadership Committee (ICLC), subsequent member of the ICLC and a member of the Victorian Clinical Leadership Committee. We wish him well and look forward to continuing to work with Dr Chien Ho in the future”.
