TITOMIC APPOINTS MIRA RICARDEL AS NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Titomic (ASX:TTT) ('Company') is pleased to advise that it has appointed Ms. Mira Ricardel as Non-Executive Director of the Company. Ricardel is a senior executive and former high-ranking White House official with in-depth industry as well as government leadership experience.

Ricardel is a principal at The Chertoff Group, a leading global security advisory firm, where she advises U.S. and international clients across a broad spectrum of sectors in managing regulatory risk related to foreign direct investments, technology controls and supply chain regulations. She was previously Assistant to the U.S. President and Deputy National Security Advisor. Prior to serving at the National Security Council, Ricardel was presidentially appointed and confirmed by the U.S. Senate as Under Secretary of Commerce for Export Administration leading the Bureau of Industry and Security which oversees export controls on dual-use and emerging technologies, export enforcement, and defense industrial base matters. For nearly a decade, Ricardel was a Vice President for Business Development at The Boeing Company, Network & Space Systems. From 2001-2005, she held significant roles in the U.S. Department of Defense, including Acting Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Security Policy.

Ricardel was awarded the U.S. Department of Defence's top civilian honour, the Distinguished Civilian Service Medal and is a graduate of the School of Foreign Service, Georgetown University and completed two years of doctoral course work in international security policy at The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Tufts University.

Dr Andreas Schwer, Titomic's Non-Executive Chairman said, "I am thrilled Mira is joining the Board of Directors of our company. Mira has deep and broad global experience that spans Titomic's strategic needs and potential. With her unique experience, adaptability and credibility, Mira is ideally suited to help us navigate the future as we continue to transform Titomic into a global additive manufacturing company with focus on the global defence, aerospace and manufacturing sectors."

Mira Ricardel commented, "I am delighted to be joining Titomic's Board of Directors. The Company has already established itself as a technology leader and credible partner with several of the World's leading defence & aerospace companies, as well as government institutions. I look forward to helping this outstanding Company grow into a global leader in additive manufacturing."

This announcement has been authorised for release by the Board of Titomic.
