

ASX RELEASE

1 June 2021

---

Change of Industry Classification

---

EneGex Limited (EneGex) (ASX: ENX) is pleased to announce that from 1 June 2021 a Change of Industry Classification by the ASX from “Energy” to “Materials”. The reclassification to “Materials” will more accurately reflect EneGex’s activities and allow shareholders appropriate peer analysis and comparison.

This change reflects EneGex’s emergence as a credible energy minerals exploration company; one that has well positioned exploration acreage in the South West Terrane of Western Australia.
