GENERAL BUSINESS

The last quarter of FY21 saw business operating conditions continue to rebuild following the disruption of COVID 19 working constraints, current lockdowns in NSW, and Kuala Lumpur are being managed effectively with resources redeployed elsewhere in the business where possible. Capital expenditure commitments and maintenance expenditure across the liquid fuels, construction sector and gas energy sector are now forecast to grow in the current and upcoming financial years following a period of constraint in 2020.

BROCKMAN ENGINEERING

Brockman is currently delivering five tank design and construction projects, the largest of these being the Hastings Terminal Expansion project for United Petroleum. In addition to delivering new tank projects, our workshop in Geelong continues to be at a high level of activity supporting the Viva Geelong refinery shutdown maintenance event and also supporting our construction projects with fabricated items. The workshop is expected to remain at the current high levels of activity for a further quarter.

Brockman are the selected preferred contractor on three tank new build projects in the liquid fuels and chemical process sectors (cumulative expected contracted value $17M) which are expected to convert in Q1FY22.

Quarterly Update

Larger tank project opportunities are expected to increase significantly during the remainder of FY22 as a result of the recently released Federal Government "Boosting Australia's Diesel Storage Program" (BADSP) grant allocations to major industry players across Australia. Brockman is well positioned to secure additional large contract wins during FY22 from this grant funding scheme.

SYFON SYSTEMS

Syfon Systems continued to deliver consistent results during the quarter and the financial year to date. Outlook remains positive for FY22.

Work in hand remains at historically high levels supporting growth in future periods. Recent success in securing new projects in South Korea, Vietnam and Malaysia provides a positive forward outlook based on an internationally diversified project portfolio for FY22.

Tun Razak Exchange Project, Kuala Lumpur

Quarterly Update

Melbourne Water Bald Hill, Kalkallo Reservoir

TSF POWER

TSF Power service workload and parts sales have grown in recent months with the improvement of global supply chain logistics and continuing customer demand for our technical support and our value for money offering.

The recent renewal of the NBN power systems maintenance multi year contract for all Australian NBN sites supports our business strategy of delivering value across the power generation sector.
