Name of Director or Secretary authorising Kingsley Hall, Company Secretary

lodgement:

¹ Under Listing Rule 4.7.3, an entity must lodge with ASX a completed Appendix 4G at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX.

Listing Rule 4.10.3 requires an entity that is included in the official list as an ASX Listing to include in its annual report either a corporate governance statement that meets the requirements of that rule or the URL of the page on its website where such a statement is located. The corporate governance statement must disclose the extent to which the entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during the reporting period. If the entity has not followed a recommendation for any part of the reporting period, its corporate governance statement must separately identify that recommendation and the period during which it was not followed and state its reasons for not following the recommendation and what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.4, if an entity chooses to include its corporate governance statement on its website rather than in its annual report, it must lodge a copy of the corporate governance statement with ASX at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The corporate governance statement must be current as at the effective date specified in that statement for the purposes of rule 4.10.3.

² "Corporate governance statement" is defined in Listing Rule 19.12 to mean the statement referred to in Listing Rule 4.10.3 which discloses the extent to which an entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during a particular reporting period.

³ Mark whichever option is correct and then complete the page number(s) of the annual report, or the URL of the web page, where the entity's corporate governance statement can be found. You can, if you wish, delete the option which is not applicable.

Throughout this form, where you are given two or more options to select, you can, if you wish, delete any option which is not applicable and just retain the option that is applicable. If you select an option that includes "OR" at the end of the selection and you delete the other options, you can also, if you wish, delete the "OR" at the end of the selection.

Corporate governance statement

This document discloses the extent to which Micro-X Limited ACN 153 273 735 (Company) has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council in the third edition of its Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (ASX Recommendations) during the relevant part of the reporting period.

The Company recognises that the ASX Corporate Governance Council (Council) issued a fourth edition of its Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations on 27 February 2019, which takes effect for an entity's first full financial year commencing on or after January 2020. For the Company, that date is 30 June 2021.

This document is current and accurate as at 27 August 2021 and has been approved by the board of the Company.

PRINCIPLES AND RECOMMENDATIONS	COMPLY (YES/NO)	EXPLANATION
Principle 1: Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
Recommendation 1.1 A listed entity should disclose: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	Yes to all	The Company has adopted a Board Charter. The Board Charter sets out the specific responsibilities of the Board, requirements as to the Board's composition, the roles and responsibilities of the Board, its Chairman and Company Secretary, details of the Board's relationship with management and the matters delegated to management. A copy of the Company's Board Charter is available on the Company's website (https://micro-x.com/investors/corporate-governance/).
Recommendation 1.2 A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	Yes to all	(a) The Company has detailed guidelines for the appointment and selection of the Board which require the Board to undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a Director. (b) All material information relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a Director will be provided to security holders in a Notice of Meeting pursuant to which the resolution to elect or re-elect a Director will be voted on.
Recommendation 1.3 A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Yes	Each director and senior executive is a party to a written agreement with the Company which sets out the terms of that Director's or senior executive's appointment.

PRINCIPLES AND RECOMMENDATIONS	COMPLY (YES/NO)	EXPLANATION
Recommendation 1.4 The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Yes	The Board Charter provides that the Company Secretary is accountable directly to the Board, through the chair.
Recommendation 1.5 A listed entity should: (a) have a diversity policy which includes requirements for the board: (i) to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity; and (ii) to assess annually both the objectives and the entity’s progress in achieving them; (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it; and (c) disclose as at the end of each reporting period: (i) the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity set by the board in accordance with the entity’s diversity policy and its progress towards achieving them; and (ii) either: (A) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined “senior executive” for these purposes); or (B) the entity’s “Gender Equality Indicators”, as defined in the Workplace Gender Equality Act 2012.	(a) Yes (b) Yes (c) Yes	The Company believes that diversity and inclusion in the workplace are the cornerstones of high organizational performance. The pursuit of diversity creates a workplace environment rich in talent and ideas, which, in turn, drives innovation and original thinking. The Company is committed to inclusion and diversity at all levels of the Company and strives to cultivate an environment of fairness, respect and equal opportunity. The Company recognises the clear corporate benefits of diversity, in that the contribution that people make through their individual backgrounds and perspectives makes us more creative, flexible, productive and competitive. It provides us with the widest pool of available talent, facilitates employee retention, fosters a better understanding of customer needs and values and contributes to our corporate reputation. The Board has adopted a written Diversity and Inclusion Policy (“D&I Policy”). The D&I Policy includes requirements for the Board to set measurable objectives for achieving gender and other forms of diversity, and to assess both the objectives and the Company’s progress in achieving them at the end of each reporting period. A copy of the Company’s Diversity Policy is available on the Company’s website at: https://micro-x.com/wp-content/uploads/2021/06/MX-Diversity-Policy.pdf. 		Ensure, to the extent possible, a balanced selection of final round candidates for any company position and ensure diversity on all interview panels.	Final round candidates for the Company have included, wherever possible, at least a 30% representation of women. The Company is in the process of implementing a tracking tool for these purposes. The Company maintains a selection process which ensures that all candidates undertake “cultural” interview with as many employees as possible, ensuring diversity on panels.
		Ensure that salaries for a specific job type or level will be the same regardless of gender or cultural background and taking into account relevant skills and experience.	The Company tracks its progress against this objective with salary benchmarking on an annual basis.
		Facilitate and support the participation of women in STEM, manufacturing and product service sectors.	The Company facilitated placements for female and international engineering students as part of its STEM Outreach program. The Company has hosted multiple facility and premise tours for high school students, with a focus on encouraging the participation of female students, as part of its STEM Outreach program. The Company’s production and manufacturing department increased its female hires to 20% of all hires in 20/21. The Company hosted female high school work experience students in its engineering and production departments.
		Ensure that MX marketing strategies, plans and materials are prepared and executed with a focus on diversity and inclusivity.	The Company has recently launched its rebranded website, with a focus on diverse and inclusive marketing content, including photos and videos.
		Embrace and highlight focus on	The Company has a new “Careers” recruitment

(e) The number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings is disclosed in the Director's Report contained in the Company's Annual Report for the reporting period.
Recommendation 4.2 The board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	Yes	The Board complies with the Recommendations.

PRINCIPLES AND RECOMMENDATIONS	COMPLY (YES/NO)	EXPLANATION
Recommendation 4.3 A listed entity should disclose its process to verify the integrity of any periodic corporate report it releases to the market that is not audited or reviewed by an external auditor.	Yes	All periodic corporate reporting which is not externally audited is reviewed by the Audit and Risk Committee, with input from the responsible executives. Once the integrity of the report has been verified, the Audit and Risk Committee recommend to the Board that the information be released.
Principle 5: Make timely and balanced disclosure
Recommendation 5.1 A listed entity should have and disclose a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under the Listing Rules 3.1.	Yes	(a) The Company has a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under the Listing Rules. (b) This Continuous disclosure policy is available on the Company's website (https://micro-x.com/investors/corporate-governance/).

Yes	ASX announcements are made when the Company's Board or executive management team become aware of information required to be disclosed to the market in accordance with the Listing Rules. Copies of all material market announcements are promptly made available to the Board once they are released.
Recommendation 5.3 A listed entity that gives new and substantive investor or analyst presentation should release a copy of the presentation materials on the ASX Market Announcements platform ahead of the presentation.	Yes	Any new and substantive investor or analyst presentation is released to the ASX Market Announcements Platform ahead of the presentation.
Principle 6: Respect the rights of security holders
Recommendation 6.1 A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	Yes	Information about the Company's governance is available on the Company's website at (https://micro-x.com/investors/corporate-governance/).

Recommendation 6.2 A listed entity should design and implement an investor relations program to facilitate effective two-way communication with investors.	Yes	The Company has adopted a Shareholder Communications Policy which aims to promote and facilitate effective two-way communication with investors. The Strategy outlines a range of ways in which information is communicated to shareholders. A copy of the policy is available on the Company's website (https://micro-x.com/investors/corporate-governance/).
Recommendation 6.3 A listed entity should disclose the policies and processes it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders.	Yes	The Shareholder Communication Policy, which contains the relevant policies and procedures, is available on the Company's website (https://micro-x.com/investors/corporate-governance/).
Recommendation 6.4 A listed entity should ensure that all substantive resolutions at a meeting of security holders are decided by a poll rather than by a show of hands.	Yes	The Company's Constitution permits a poll be called at the election of the Chair. All resolutions called for at the 2020 AGM were determined by poll, and to ensure consistency with the Recommendation, the Company will ensure that all future substantive resolutions will continue to be determined by poll.

PRINCIPLES AND RECOMMENDATIONS	COMPLY (YES/NO)	EXPLANATION
Recommendation 6.5 A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.	Yes	The Shareholder Communication Policy provides for this facility.
Principle 7: Recognise and manage risk
Recommendation 7.1 The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a committee or committees to oversee risk, each of which: (i) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (ii) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (iii) the charter of the committee; (iv) the members of the committee; and (v) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a risk committee or committees that satisfy (a) above, disclose that fact and the process it employs for overseeing the entity's risk management framework.	Yes	(a) The Company has established an Audit and Risk Committee, which is responsible for overseeing risk. Recommendation 7.2 The board or a committee of the board should: (a) review the entity's risk management framework with management at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound, to determine whether there have been any changes in the material business risks the entity faces and to ensure that they remain within the risk appetite set by the board; and (b) disclose in relation to each reporting period, whether such a review has taken place.	(a) Yes (b) Yes	The Audit and Risk Committee reviews the risk management framework at least annually. The review of the risk management framework was undertaken during the period.

PRINCIPLES AND RECOMMENDATIONS	COMPLY (YES/NO)	EXPLANATION
Recommendation 7.3 A listed entity should disclose: (a) if it has an internal audit function, how the function is structured and what role it performs; or (b) if it does not have an internal audit function, that fact and the processes it employs for evaluating and continually improving the effectiveness of its risk management and internal control processes.	Yes	Due to the current size of the Company, and taking into account cost/benefit considerations, the Board does not currently consider it necessary to have an internal audit function. The Audit and Risk Committee Charter requires the Committee to oversee the evaluation and continual improvement of the effectiveness of the Company's risk management and internal control processes. The Committee will achieve this objective by closely monitoring these areas and will require management to review and report on risk and internal control areas. The Committee will consider the use of external resources to assist as required.
Recommendation 7.4 A listed entity should disclose whether it has any material exposure to environmental and social sustainability risks and, if it does, how it manages or intends to manage those risks.	Yes	The Company currently does not have any material exposure to environmental or social risk. As and when the Company has any material exposure to environmental or social sustainability risk, it will disclose any such exposure and how it manages or intends to manage those risks.
Principle 8: Remunerate fairly and responsibly
Recommendation 8.1 The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a remuneration committee which: (i) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (ii) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (iii) the charter of the committee; (iv) the members of the committee; and (v) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a remuneration committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for setting the level and composition of remuneration for directors and senior executives and ensuring that such remuneration is appropriate and not excessive.	Yes	(a) The Company has established a People and Remuneration Committee, which has responsibility for remuneration matters. (b) A copy of the Committee's Charter is available on the Company's website (https://micro-x.com/investors/corporate-governance/). (c) The Members of the Committee are: a. Alexander Gosling (Chair), Independent Director; b. David Knox, Independent Director; and c. James McDowell, Independent Director. (d) The number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings is disclosed in the Director's Report contained in the Company's Annual Report for the reporting period.

PRINCIPLES AND RECOMMENDATIONS	COMPLY (YES/NO)	EXPLANATION
Recommendation 8.2 A listed entity should separately disclose its policies and practices regarding the remuneration of non-executive directors and the remuneration of executive directors and other senior executives.	Yes	The Company's policies and practices regarding the remuneration of non-executive directors and the remuneration of executive directors and other senior executives are disclosed in the Remuneration Report contained in its Annual Report as lodged with the ASX and issued to shareholders. A copy of the Committee's Remuneration Policy is available on the Company's website (https://micro-x.com/investors/corporate-governance/).
Recommendation 8.3 A listed entity which has an equity-based remuneration scheme should: (a) have a policy on whether participants are permitted to enter into transactions (whether through the use of derivatives or otherwise) which limit the economic risk of participating in the scheme; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	Yes	(a) The Company's long and short-term incentive programs contain an element of remuneration which involves deferred share rights and performance share rights, entitling employees to shares. (b) The Company has a Share Trading Policy which includes a policy prohibiting participants of an equity-based remuneration scheme from entering into transactions (whether through the use of derivatives or otherwise) which limit the economic risk of participating in the scheme. (c) A copy of the Company's Share Trading Policy is available on the Company's website (https://micro-x.com/investors/corporate-governance/)
