Iress appoints Chief Communications & Marketing Officer

Iress today announces the appointment of Kelly Fisk to the role of Chief Communications & Marketing Officer.

Iress CEO Andrew Walsh said: "I am delighted to announce the appointment of Kelly to lead communications and marketing at Iress. Kelly has been acting as chief communications & marketing officer since October.

"I have been impressed with Kelly's ability to create internal and external understanding and momentum around Iress' strategic objectives and focus on working collaboratively across teams to achieve results."

Ms Fisk brings close to 20 years' experience in marketing and communications to the role. She joined Iress in 2017 as head of communications before expanding her role to include head of marketing for APAC and South Africa. Prior to joining Iress she held senior roles at Westpac and National Australia Bank.

Ms Fisk will be a member of Iress' leadership team and will report to CEO Andrew Walsh. Ms Fisk's appointment is effective immediately.
