QANTM APPOINTS NEW CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

QANTM Intellectual Property Ltd (ASX:QIP) is pleased to announce the appointment of Brenton Lockhart as Chief Financial Officer, effective today.

Brenton is a Chartered Accountant and has been a senior executive within the QANTM Group for the past four years, serving as Head of Finance for the FPA Patent Attorneys business since September 2019, and as Head of M&A for QANTM since February 2022. Brenton previously held senior roles at Kearney Group and Crowe Horwath Australia (now Findex). Brenton is a Member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and holds a Bachelor of Business and Commerce from Monash University.

Brenton brings considerable experience in leadership of professional services, financial and management reporting, process improvement and internal controls. Brenton will succeed Peter Loosmore, who has served as interim CFO since 28 August 2021.

CEO, Craig Dower, said: "We are thrilled to have an executive of Brenton's calibre taking on the role of QANTM Group CFO. We did an extensive market search and short-listed some outstanding external candidates. Brenton's deep knowledge of the IP industry, his knowledge and insights into the QANTM businesses, and his energy and passion for driving change will be a major contribution to the executive team as QANTM executes on its strategic agenda. The flexibility that has allowed QANTM to add to its senior management while also retaining knowledge built up over the last few years was a good outcome."

Brenton Lockhart said: "I am very excited to be taking on the role of CFO for the QANTM Group. We are well-positioned to deliver continued growth and value to all of our stakeholders."

The QANTM Board would like to thank Peter Loosmore for his service to the Group as interim CFO. Peter will work with Brenton over the next couple of months to ensure a smooth transition.
