ANZ completes Institutional Entitlement Offer

ANZ today announced the completion of the institutional component (Institutional Entitlement Offer) of its fully underwritten pro rata accelerated renounceable entitlement offer (Entitlement Offer) to raise ~$3.5 billion of new ANZ shares (New Shares)¹.

Summary of the Institutional Entitlement Offer

- The Institutional Entitlement Offer raised gross proceeds of approximately $1.7 billion and will result in the issue of approximately 89 million New Shares
- The Institutional Entitlement Offer was well supported by ANZ's institutional shareholders with approximately 95% of entitlements available to institutional shareholders taken up
- The institutional shortfall bookbuild was also well supported by eligible institutional shareholders and new investors
- Entitlements not taken up by eligible institutional shareholders and entitlements of ineligible institutional shareholders were sold and cleared in the institutional shortfall bookbuild at $21.65 per New Share which was $2.75 above the offer price of $18.90 per share (Offer Price)

The institutional shortfall bookbuild was completed on Wednesday, 20 July 2022. Eligible institutional shareholders who elected not to take up their entitlements, and ineligible institutional shareholders, will receive $2.75 for each entitlement sold for their benefit in the institutional shortfall bookbuild (less any withholding tax).

The New Shares to be issued as part of the Institutional Entitlement Offer will be allotted and begin normal trading on Monday, 1 August 2022. The New Shares issued as part of the Institutional Entitlement Offer will rank equally with existing ANZ shares, including in respect of future dividends.

Commencement of the Retail Entitlement Offer

The retail component of the Entitlement Offer (Retail Entitlement Offer) will open at 9.00am (Melbourne time) on Tuesday, 26 July 2022. Eligible retail shareholders with registered addresses in Australia and New Zealand will have the opportunity to participate in the Retail Entitlement Offer at the same Offer Price and offer ratio as the Institutional Entitlement Offer.

Under the Retail Entitlement Offer, eligible retail shareholders may:

- elect to take-up some or all of their entitlements before the Retail Entitlement Offer closes at 5.00pm (Melbourne time) on Monday, 15 August 2022 and receive New Shares;
- sell or transfer some or all of their entitlements. Retail entitlements may be traded on the ASX from Thursday, 21 July 2022 (on a deferred settlement basis) and Friday, 29 July 2022 (on a normal settlement basis) to Monday, 8 August 2022. Retail entitlements will trade under the ASX ticker "ANZR"; or

- do nothing, in which case their entitlements will be sold under the retail shortfall bookbuild.

The New Shares issued as part of the Retail Entitlement Offer will rank equally with existing ANZ shares, including in respect of future dividends.

Retail entitlements that are not taken up by the close of the Retail Entitlement Offer, and retail entitlements that would otherwise have been offered to ineligible retail shareholders, will be sold under the retail shortfall bookbuild to be conducted on or about Thursday, 18 August 2022, with any premium received above the Offer Price (less any withholding tax) paid to the relevant shareholders. There is no guarantee that there will be any proceeds. The ability to sell entitlements under the retail shortfall bookbuild and the ability to obtain any premium will be dependent upon various factors, including market conditions.

On or around 26 July 2022, eligible retail shareholders will be sent either electronically (if they have elected to receive electronic communications) or by mail:

- a Retail Information Booklet containing full details on the Retail Entitlement Offer; and
- a personalised Entitlement and Acceptance Form. That form will contain details of the eligible retail shareholder's entitlements and their personalised payment details.

Eligible retail shareholders may also access the Retail Information Booklet and their personalised payment details at www.RetailEntitlementOffer.anz.com from 26 July 2022. To access that website, eligible retail shareholders will need their shareholder reference number (SRN), holding identification number (HIN) or Holder Number.

Before deciding whether to participate in the Retail Entitlement Offer, eligible retail shareholders should read carefully and in full the Retail Information Booklet.

Retail shareholders outside of Australia and New Zealand or who do not satisfy the other eligibility criteria are ineligible to participate in the Retail Entitlement Offer.

In particular, shareholders in the United States are not eligible to participate in the Retail Entitlement Offer, and those who are acting for the account or benefit of persons in the United States (including custodians and nominees) are not eligible to participate on behalf of those persons.

Further details on the eligibility criteria for the Retail Entitlement Offer will be set out in the Retail Information Booklet.
