

FDA confirms AHF application is still under active review

Contrary to certain media articles which have suggested that all pending applications to the United States Food and Drug Administration (FDA) for accelerated approval to sell infant formula in the United States have been paused, the Board of Australian Dairy Nutritionals Group (AHF or the Group) is pleased to advise that the FDA has confirmed that AHF's FDA application in relation to its future Gradulac Gentle infant formula range remains under active review.

We understand the FDA sent out a deferral letter to many applicants whose application will not be progressed at this time however AHF did not receive this letter and the FDA has confirmed our application is still under active review.

The release of this announcement was authorised by the Board of Directors of AHF.
