

Resignation of Chief Financial Officer

Melbourne, Australia; 26 August 2022: Redbubble Limited (ASX:RBL) advises that Chief Financial Officer Emma Clark has resigned in order to pursue a career opportunity with a private technology company. Ms Clark will remain with Redbubble until late December 2022.

Redbubble CEO Michael Ilczynski thanked Emma for the significant contribution she has made to the Company since joining Redbubble in June 2019.

“On behalf of all at Redbubble I would like to acknowledge Emma for her commitment and dedication to Redbubble. Emma has played an important role in our business in stewarding the ongoing strong financial position of Redbubble and I would like to personally thank her for her support she has provided me since I joined Redbubble in January 2021.

“The Board and I wish Emma all the very best in her new role.”

Redbubble has commenced a search process for a new Chief Financial Officer.

For further information, please contact: peter.kopanidis@redbubble.com

This announcement has been authorised for release to the ASX by the Redbubble Limited Board of Directors.

About Redbubble Group

Founded in 2006, the Redbubble Group incorporates Redbubble Limited and its subsidiaries, including TP Apparel LLC (TeePublic). The Redbubble Group owns and operates the leading global online marketplaces, Redbubble.com and TeePublic.com, powered by independent artists. The Redbubble community of passionate creatives sell uncommon designs on high-quality, everyday products such as apparel, stationery, housewares, bags, wall art and so on. Through the Redbubble and TeePublic marketplaces, independent artists are able to profit from their creativity and reach a new universe of adoring fans. For customers, it's the ultimate in self-expression. A simple but meaningful way to show the world who they are and what they care about.