

TALi receives R&D Tax Incentive

TALi Digital Ltd (ASX: TD1, “TALi” or “the Company”) is pleased to report it has received $509,505 from the Australian Taxation Office under the Federal Government’s Research and Development Tax Incentive (RDTI) Scheme for FY2022.

The Company has also had its advanced overseas finding approved by AusIndustry which allows specific overseas expenditure, including expenditure incurred in the period ending 30 June 2022 to be eligible for the RDTI. The approved overseas finding results in an additional RDTI refund of $171,584 for FY2022, resulting in a total RDTI refund for FY2022 of $681,089.

The Federal Government RDTI incentive encourages companies engaging in beneficial research and development to Australia by providing a cash rebate of 43.5% for qualifying activities.

About TALi Digital

TALi Digital Limited (ASX: TD1) is a digital health company delivering diagnostic and therapeutic solutions to enhance cognitive function and behaviour. The Company has built a patented platform technology with our first solution targeting cognitive attention skills during early childhood via the evidence-based screening (DETECT®) and training (TRAIN®) modules. This program is complementary to existing diagnosis and therapy, placing TALi at the forefront of improving early intervention for childhood attention and concentration performance. We believe in healthy, happier minds – our vision is to deliver a personalised digital experience to enhance cognitive care.

A continuous innovation focus will see the Company deliver a series of product developments in ADHD (Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder) and ASD (Autism Spectrum Disorder). Learn more at talidigital.com.
