ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

Resignation of Director

Today Medical Developments International Limited (ASX: MVP) announced the resignation of David Williams from the Board effective 26 April 2023.

David leaves the Board to focus on other personal and business interests.

David said, "The Company, under the leadership of Gordon Naylor as Chair and Brent MacGregor as CEO, is in great hands. I leave the Board with confidence that the team has the capability to execute on the Company's exciting strategic agenda, including plans for the commercial launch of Pentrox in the US. To the extent I am able, I will remain keenly interested in the Company's search for a partner for this market".

The Chair, Gordon Naylor, said: "We will miss David's wisdom and experience on the Board. David was instrumental in building the company and his thoughtful transition of the Chair role to me was invaluable. On behalf of my fellow Directors, I thank David for his remarkable contribution to the Company".

"As the Company progresses US Pentrox entry, skills and experience in this market will be highly regarded. This will be considered as the Board optimises its membership and capabilities to drive the business forward."
