Protecting our customers against scams

Keeping our customers safe from scams and fraud is one of our top priorities. It's clear that the rise in scams is a growing problem in Australia and globally. To tackle this issue, it takes ongoing collaboration with government, business sectors, the community and customers. And that's what we're doing.

Each year, we invest significantly into technology and expertise, and recently, we've worked with Australian telecommunication companies to introduce measures to help prevent criminals infiltrating bank phone numbers and text message threads. Read more by visiting nab.com.au/stopscams.
