ANZ 2023 Interim Dividend - key dates and associated information

The Group announced a proposed fully franked 2023 Interim Dividend of 81 cents per share. New Zealand imputation credits of NZD 9 cents per share will also be attached.

ANZ also announced that the Dividend Reinvestment Plan (DRP) will continue to operate for the Interim 2023 Dividend at no discount and that it plans to neutralise the impact of the ordinary shares allocated under the DRP.

Dividend, DRP & BOP Information

For the 2023 Interim Dividend, under the DRP and Bonus Option Plan (BOP) Terms and Conditions, the following will apply when calculating the Acquisition Price used to determine the number of ANZ ordinary shares to be issued:

- no discount will be applied;
- the Pricing Period will be 10 trading days (refer to the key dates below); and
- both the ASX and Cboe Australia trading platforms will apply.

The neutralisation of the DRP may involve ANZ ordinary shares being purchased on-market during the DRP Pricing Period or otherwise by a third-party appointed by ANZ. To the extent that the on-market purchase is not able to be completed for any reason, then ANZ will issue new ordinary shares to meet its obligations under the DRP. DRP participants do not need to take any action in respect of this in order to receive their shares under the DRP.

New ANZ ordinary shares will be issued to satisfy ANZ's obligations under the BOP.

Election notices from shareholders wanting to commence, cease or vary their participation in the DRP or BOP for the 2023 Interim Dividend must be received by ANZ's Share Registrar, Computershare, by 5.00pm (Australian Eastern Standard Time) on 17 May 2023.
