

ASX Announcement
Company Update

The directors of White Rock Minerals Limited (“WRM” or “the Company”) would like to advise the market that they have appointed Hall Chadwick Chartered Accountants as Investigating Accountant of the WRM Group.

In this role Hall Chadwick will assist the Board by reviewing and assessing the current financial position of the Company, taking into account all the ongoing liabilities of the WRM entities and assisting with various transactions being considered by the Company. This role will include assessing the solvency and going concern of WRM and its subsidiaries.

Hall Chadwick will also assist by joining WRM in liaising with the Regulators in both NSW and Victoria.

The initial review is estimated to take approximately five weeks, at which time further information will be provided to the market.

This announcement has been authorised for release by the Board.
