1. Letter from the Managing Director of Kin Group

25 September 2023

Dear fellow Pact Shareholders

$0.68 unconditional all-cash Offer

We are pleased to present Pact Shareholders with this unconditional offer (Offer) from Bennamon Industries, a wholly owned subsidiary of Kin Group Pty Ltd (Kin Group), to acquire all of your shares in Pact Group Holdings Limited (Pact) for $0.68 cash per Pact Share (Offer Price).

The Offer provides Pact Shareholders with liquidity and certainty through an unconditional, all-cash offer, allowing Pact Shareholders to avoid any further risk associated with their investment in Pact.

We believe the Offer is compelling as:

- Pact Shareholders who accept the Offer will be paid within one month after they accept the Offer or 21 days after the end of the Offer Period, whichever is earlier;
- Pact's share price has significantly declined by 87.1% over 6 years;¹
- Pact has lower earnings, higher leverage, higher capital expenditure and reduced free cash flow in FY23 compared with FY18;²
- accepting the Offer will remove the exposure to share price fluctuations with respect to Pact Shares and the risk of the share price falling further after the Offer closes;
- it is highly unlikely that a competing offer will eventuate, given Kin Group has a controlling interest of over 50% in Pact; and
- in the absence of Kin Group's Offer, the future value of Pact Shares is uncertain.

Key reasons to accept the Offer

Pact is a smaller business and faces a challenging operating environment

Pact faces a challenging operating environment with supply chain disruptions, inflationary pressures, fluctuating resin prices, labour constraints and macroeconomic uncertainty. These factors continue to impact Pact's operations and financial performance.

¹ Share price decline refers to the period from 11 September 2017 up to and including 12 September 2023 (the day prior to the Announcement Date).

² EBITDA, leverage, capital expenditure and free cash flow have been measured during the period from FY18 to FY23 (a 6 year period). Leverage defined as net debt / EBITDA on a pre-AASB 16 basis.

Kin Group is supportive of the sale of 50% of Pact's Crate Pooling Business.³ However, following the sale, the size of Pact's core business, operating scale and available cashflow will be substantially smaller.

In an environment with increasing interest costs and in light of Pact's financial performance, declining EBITDA and capital expenditure needs, there's a possibility that Pact's near-term priority to reduce debt to 2.5x leverage ratio by 30 June 2024 will not be achieved.⁴ The combination of these factors further increase the uncertainty of future dividends and creates an investment environment where the Pact Share price may fall further after the Offer closes.

The Offer provides Pact Shareholders with certainty of value and liquidity

The Offer Price is at a price above the closing price of Pact Shares on 12 September 2023 (the day prior to the Announcement Date). Pact's share price has significantly underperformed the S&P / ASX 300 Index by 67.9% since 1 January 2022,⁵ trading down 73.7%.

The Offer is unconditional, which means it is not subject to any defeating conditions. It provides Pact Shareholders with a straightforward means to sell Pact Shares with certainty of value and liquidity.

Pact is no longer in the S&P / ASX 300 Index, which has substantially reduced institutional investor support and activity on the share register.

After the Offer closes, there is no guarantee that the share price will not continue to fall.

Kin Group intends to delist Pact

Kin Group has every confidence in Pact, its employees, its business and its long-term future, and recognises that Pact, and its people, are a very important part of the Kin Group family.

Kin Group considers the success of Pact is best achieved under private ownership, without the additional costs, market volatility and complexities of being an ASX listed company. Kin Group believes that privatisation, along with additional investment, will allow Pact to achieve its long-term strategy of growth in the circular economy.

As such, Kin Group intends to delist Pact from ASX as soon as it is able to do so (subject to the level of acceptances, compliance with the requirements of the ASX Listing Rules and legal, tax and any other considerations at the relevant time). Should this occur, it may be difficult for Pact Shareholders to sell their Pact Shares in a delisted environment. For further information on the potential for delisting and the relevant ASX requirements, please see sections 10.4(a) and 10.5(a).

4. Why you should accept the Offer

1	Pact faces a challenging environment , with supply chain disruptions, inflationary pressures, fluctuating resin prices, labour constraints and macroeconomic uncertainty	Section 4.1
2	Pact is now a smaller business with a reduced earnings base. Notwithstanding the sale of 50% of Pact's Crate Pooling Business, Pact will likely continue to have high debt in light of its ongoing capital expenditure plan. Accordingly, there is uncertainty about the prospect of future dividends in the short to medium term	Section 4.2
3	Kin Group controls Pact and the prospect of a competing offer eventuating is highly unlikely . Kin Group intends to delist the business as soon as it is able to do so For further information on the potential for delisting and the relevant ASX requirements, please see sections 10.4(a) and 10.5(a)	Section 4.3

4.1 Pact faces a challenging environment

Pact continues to face a challenging environment with supply chain disruptions, inflationary pressures, fluctuating resin prices, labour constraints and macroeconomic uncertainty. Pact's financial results for FY23 highlighted that ongoing inflationary pressures will continue to impact on consumer demand and buying patterns.⁶

Pact's earnings have substantially declined from FY21 to FY23. For instance, Pact's (implied pre-AASB 16) EBITDA has declined by c. $49 million from $244 million in FY21 to $195 million in FY23.⁷ Following the sale of 50% of its Crate Pooling Business, the implied EBITDA, operating scale and available cashflow of Pact's core remaining business will be substantially smaller.

Pact's implied pre-AASB 16 EBITDA from FY21 – FY23⁸ ($m)

Further, in FY20, Pact set a target of greater than 13.5%⁹ return on invested capital (ROIC) which it is yet to achieve. In FY23, Pact reported a ROIC of 9.0%.¹⁰

Pact's declining EBITDA, among other factors, has in turn seen its share price significantly underperform the S&P / ASX 300 Index by 67.9% since 1 January 2022.¹¹ Over the same period, Pact's share price has fallen 73.7%.

⁶ Pact ASX announcement titled "2023 full year results presentation" released on 16 August 2023.

⁷ This decline is also true for EBITDA on a post-AASB 16 basis, with post-AASB 16 EBITDA declining from $315 million in FY21 to $277 million in FY23.

⁹ Post-AASB 16 basis.

¹⁰ Refer to footnote 9.

¹¹ Refer to footnote 5.

Pact's share price since 1 January 2022 until 12 September 2023¹²

4.2 Pact is now a smaller business with a reduced earnings base

In recent years, Pact has become a smaller business. Following completion of the sale of 50% of its Crate Pooling Business (expected before the end of calendar year 2023),¹³ Pact's core business will be smaller.

Net debt and leverage

At 30 June 2023, Pact had $586 million of net debt.¹⁴ Despite Pact's attempt in recent years to reduce debt and its leverage ratio, Pact's leverage ratio for FY23 remained high at 3.0x,¹⁵ compared to 2.4x in FY21 and 2.7x in FY22.

The underlying business performance, together with high levels of capital investment, has contributed to an overall increase, rather than a decrease, in net debt. The business has a new plan to reset its leverage ratio to below 2.5x by 30 June 2024.¹⁶ Despite Pact's intention to use the sale proceeds to reduce debt and leverage,¹⁷ Pact may continue to have higher debt in light of its capital expenditure plan and lower cash generation.

¹² The day prior to the Announcement Date.

¹³ Refer to footnote 3.

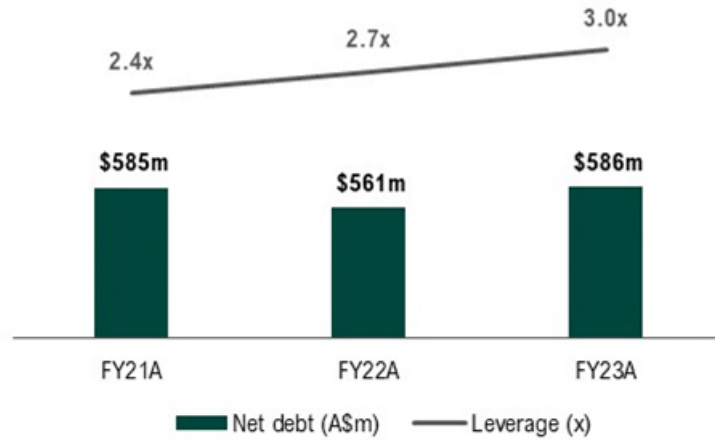

¹⁴ As reported by Pact, excluding lease liabilities.

¹⁵ Leverage defined as net debt / EBITDA on a pre-AASB 16 basis. The FY23 net debt and FY23 leverage represented does not include the proceeds to be received from the sale of 50% of Pact's Crate Pooling Business.

¹⁶ Refer to footnote 4.

¹⁷ Refer to footnote 3.

Net debt and leverage (pre-AASB 16)¹⁸

Free cash flow

Pact reported a $60.1 million drop in free cash flow to $9.3 million in FY23, down from $69.4 million in FY22. The decrease in free cash flow was driven primarily by:

- Rising interest rates, resulting in total interest expense on borrowings (excluding lease liabilities) of $45 million in FY23, up c. $19 million from FY22.
- Substantial capital expenditure, with $90 million in FY22, $130 million in FY23, and a forecast to spend a further $85 million in FY24.
- Decline in earnings, with pre-AASB 16 EBITDA decreasing from $244 million in FY21 to $195 million in FY23.

In addition, Pact paid no dividends in FY23. Any ongoing increase in net interest cost (particularly in a rising interest rate environment) will further impact future free cash flow, and Pact's ability to reduce debt. There is a risk that Pact may not have sufficient cash flow to pay dividends in the short to medium term.

4.3 Kin Group controls Pact and the prospect of a competing offer is highly unlikely

The prospect of a competing offer eventuating is unlikely

Kin Group and its Associates already hold a controlling interest of over 50% in Pact. Kin Group and its Associates have no intention of selling their shareholding. With their controlling interest, no other party would be able to secure control of Pact. As such, Kin Group believes that it is highly unlikely that any competing bid or control proposal for Pact will eventuate.

¹⁸ Refer to footnote 15.

As of the date of this Bidder's Statement, Kin Group and its Associates are not aware of any competing or control proposals being made to Pact.

Ability to pass and block ordinary resolutions

Kin Group and its Associates' controlling interest does not require additional Pact Shareholder support to pass or block ordinary (50%) resolutions (and has the ability to block special resolutions and, depending on voter turnout, may also have the ability to approve certain special resolutions held at future Pact Shareholder meetings without the need for support from other Pact Shareholders).

Pact Shareholders should consider Kin Group's intentions relating to the Offer as set out in section 10, as Kin Group may be able to carry out many of these intentions whether or not the Offer is accepted. These intentions may not align with current Pact Shareholder investment objectives and investment profile.

Intention to delist Pact

Kin Group intends to have Pact removed from the official list of ASX as soon as it is able to do so (subject to the level of acceptances, compliance with the requirements of the ASX Listing Rules and legal, tax and any other considerations at the relevant time). For further information on the potential for delisting and the relevant ASX requirements, please see sections 10.4(a) and 10.5(a).

Accepting the Offer removes exposure to the risks associated with remaining a minority Pact Shareholder if Pact is delisted (or if there is low trading liquidity in Pact Shares), including, but not limited to:

- significantly lower liquidity in Pact Shares, which may make it difficult for you to sell Your Pact Shares outside the Offer; and
- Kin Group's intentions for Pact may not align with your investment objectives and investment profile (including that Kin Group intends to prioritise increased investment into the business and maintain the suspension of dividends to focus on strategic M&A activities and capital expenditure, which may require pursuing equity capital raisings).

Accepting the Offer removes exposure to these risks and Pact Shareholders will receive a certain cash amount for their shares.

4.4 Pact is no longer in the S&P / ASX 300 Index and has low institutional investor support

On 17 March 2023, Pact was officially excluded from the S&P / ASX 300 Index and the S&P / ASX Small Ords Index due to its smaller size (by market capitalisation) and low free float. Pact is now ranked lower than 500th of companies listed on ASX by market capitalisation.¹⁹

¹⁹ Based on official ASX company directory data from <https://www.asx.com.au/markets/trade-our-cash-market/directory> as at close of trading on 12 September 2023 (the day prior to the Announcement Date).

These index exclusions have likely resulted in lower overall institutional investor demand for Pact shares, given some large, institutional investors may not be mandated to own shares in a company outside of the S&P / ASX 300 Index.

From Pact's exclusion from the S&P / ASX 300 Index and the S&P / ASX Small Ords Index on 20 March 2023 until 12 September 2023 (the trading day prior to the Announcement Date),²⁰ Pact's share price has fallen 42.6% from $1.175 to $0.675, significantly underperforming the All Ordinaries Index. After the Offer closes, there is a risk that Pact's share price may fall below the Offer Price and may continue to fall below recent trading prices prior to the Announcement Date.

Pact's share price since falling out of the S&P / ASX 300 Index until 12 September 2023²¹

In recent years, Pact's trading liquidity has diminished due to its financial performance, limited free float, declining share price and reduction in research analyst and market attention. In particular, average daily cumulative trading volume has fallen from c. 1,556,000 Pact Shares per day in 2019 to c. 871,000 Pact Shares per day in the last twelve months to 12 September 2023 (the trading day prior to the Announcement Date).²²

²¹ The day prior to the Announcement Date.

²² Refer to footnote 5.

Average daily liquidity between 2019 and last twelve months to 12 September 2023²³

4.5 Unconditional cash offer providing certainty, a price above the closing price on 12 September 2023 (the trading day prior to the Announcement Date) and liquidity

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, there are 344,290,053 Pact Shares on issue.

The maximum amount of cash that Bennamon Industries would be required to pay under the Offer if acceptances are received for all Pact Shares on issue as at the date of this Bidder's Statement (other than those Pact Shares in which Kin Group currently has Voting Power), or if Bennamon Industries becomes entitled to and exercises the right of compulsory acquisition under the Corporations Act, is approximately $117 million.

In addition, if all unvested Performance Rights vest in accordance with the terms of their issue, and the holders exercise those Performance Rights and accept the Offer in respect of the Pact Shares issued to them, an additional $1.3 million will be payable by Bennamon Industries under the Offer.

Accordingly, the maximum amount that Bennamon Industries could be required to pay under the Offer is $118.4 million (Maximum Offer Amount), together with transaction costs.

9.2 Sources of cash consideration

The cash required to fund the Maximum Offer Amount and all transaction costs in connection with the Offer will be funded by:

- Bennamon Industries drawing under new acquisition debt facilities (New Facilities); and
- Bennamon Industries having access to available existing cash reserves of Kin Group and its Subsidiaries under intercompany loan arrangements. As such, the combination of the amount available under the New Facilities and the intercompany loan arrangements will be sufficient to fund the Maximum Offer Amount.

(a) New Facilities

Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited (Lender) has agreed to provide the full amount of the New Facilities, being $70 million, under a binding commitment letter on the terms set out in a term sheet forming part of the commitment letter (Terms).

Bennamon Industries will enter into a facility agreement (Facility Agreement) with the Lender based on the Terms. Bennamon Industries will be the 'Borrower' under the New Facilities. Certain related entities will be guarantors and security providers (Guarantors) under the New Facilities. A summary of the material details of the New Facilities are set out below:

(i) Purpose

The New Facilities are available for purposes including but not limited to:

- funding the acquisition of Pact Shares pursuant to the terms of the Offer (or reimbursing any payments made by Bennamon Industries for the Pact Shares subject to certain conditions); and
- payment of fees and expenses related to the New Facilities and the Offer.

(ii) Availability

Unless cancelled earlier by Bennamon Industries or in accordance with the Facility Agreement, the New Facilities will be available for drawdown from the date of the Facility Agreement until the earlier of:

- 12 months and 3 weeks from the date of the Facility Agreement; and
- the later of:
 - 21 days after the last day on which the Offer is still open for acceptance; or
 - 6 weeks after the date compulsory acquisition notices are sent (if applicable).

(iii) Conditions precedent

The availability of the New Facilities is subject to certain conditions precedent which are customary for facilities of this nature. The material conditions precedent to the first drawdown under the New Facilities include the following:

- the granting of certain security and guarantees pursuant to the Terms; and
- the Kin Group and its Subsidiaries contributing an equity injection or subordinated loan to Bennamon Industries in the minimum amount specified in the Terms to acquire Pact Shares under the Offer.

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, Bennamon Industries is not aware of any reason why the conditions precedent will not be satisfied in time to allow the proceeds to be able to be drawn down to fund the Offer consideration.

(b) Intercompany loan arrangements

Kin Group and its Subsidiaries has available to it cash reserves deposited at Australian banks required to fund the difference between the amount available under the New Facilities and the Maximum Offer Amount (being $48.4 million). The funds committed by Kin Group and its Subsidiaries to Bennamon Industries for this purpose are internally allocated and are not required for any other arrangements or obligations.

These cash reserves may themselves include funds sourced from other loan facilities or alternative sources of financing available to Kin Group and its Subsidiaries.

Under the intercompany arrangements:

- (i) funding is not subject to any conditions; and
- (ii) repayment cannot be called for until after Bennamon Industries has met all of its obligations under the Offer.

9.3 Provision of consideration

Having regard to the matters set out in this section 9, Bennamon Industries is of the opinion that it has a reasonable basis for forming the view, and it holds the view, that it will be able to satisfy its payment obligations under the Offer, as well as its costs associated with the Offer.

This section 10.3 is a summary only of the remainder of section 10 and is subject to, and should be read in conjunction with, the further comments set out below.

10.4 Intentions for Pact as a controlled entity

This section describes Bennamon Industries' and Kin Group's intentions for Pact, as a controlled entity of Kin Group, if Bennamon Industries is not entitled to proceed to compulsory acquisition in accordance with Part 6A.1 of the Corporations Act.

If Bennamon Industries and its Associates obtain a Relevant Interest in less than 90% of all Pact Shares then on issue, Bennamon Industries' and Kin Group's current intentions are as follows:

(a) Corporate matters

After the end of the Offer Period, Kin Group intends to support the current Pact Board while, subject to the Corporations Act and the constitution of Pact, reserving its right to appoint nominees of Kin Group to the Pact Board to reflect its controlling shareholding. Kin Group has not determined who would be nominated for appointment to the Pact Board in such circumstances, other than Kin Group's current intention is for Mr Geminder to remain as Chairman on the Pact Board.

Kin Group would have regard to (but not necessarily comply with) the recommendations in the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations when determining the composition of the Pact Board and all other governance matters. Kin Group does not consider that compliance with all of the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations would be appropriate and, should any such principles not be complied with, Kin Group would seek to procure that Pact disclose such matters as required by the ASX Listing Rules.

Kin Group intends to have Pact removed from the official list of ASX as soon as it is able to do so (subject to the level of acceptances, compliance with the requirements of the ASX Listing Rules and legal, tax and any other considerations at the relevant time). ASX guidance indicates that the usual conditions that ASX expects to be satisfied in order for it to approve the removal of Pact from the official list of ASX in the context of a successful takeover bid include:

- at the end of the Offer, Bennamon Industries, Kin Group and their Related Bodies Corporate own or control at least 75% of the Pact Shares and the Offer has remained open for at least two weeks after Bennamon Industries, Kin Group and their Related Bodies Corporate attained ownership or control of at least 75% of the Pact Shares; and
- the number of Pact Shareholders (other than Bennamon Industries, Kin Group and their Related Bodies Corporate) having holdings with a value of at least $500 is fewer than 150, and in such case, ASX will not usually require Kin Group to obtain Pact Shareholder approval for Pact's removal from the official list of ASX.

ASX has also stated it will usually require the following conditions to be satisfied before it will act on a request for removal from the official list of ASX:

- Pact send a letter or email to Pact Shareholders advising them of the nominated time and date at which Pact will be removed from the official list of the ASX and that if they wish to sell their Pact Shares on ASX, they will need to do so before Pact is removed from the official list of ASX, and if they do not, that they will only be able to sell their Pact Shares off-market; and
- the removal of Pact from the official list of ASX not take place any earlier than 3 months after that statement has been sent to Pact Shareholders, so that they have at least that period to sell their Pact Shares on ASX should they wish to do so.

In addition, if Bennamon Industries does not meet the above conditions following the takeover, ASX may approve an application for Pact to be removed from the official list of ASX with Pact Shareholder approval. Where such removal is sought later than 12 months after the end of the Offer Period, Bennamon Industries, Kin Group and their Associates would be entitled to vote on the resolution approving the removal.

After the end of the Offer Period, Kin Group will consider whether to initiate this course of action and may decide to seek the removal of Pact from the official list of ASX in accordance with the above, and will consider its ability to do so subject to its and its Associates' Relevant Interest in Pact Shares following the end of the Offer Period.

If Pact is removed from the official list of ASX, there may be risks related to remaining as a minority shareholder in Pact. These include significantly reduced liquidity if Pact Shareholders wish to sell their Pact Shares.

If Pact is not removed from the official list of ASX, Kin Group may seek to continue to increase its Relevant Interest in Pact under the "3% creep" exception in item 9 of section 611 of the Corporations Act.

(b) Capital structure and management

After the end of the Offer Period, Kin Group intends to conduct a review of Pact's overall capital allocation and capital structure as part of a larger review of Pact's business operations as a whole referred to in section 10.2.

Kin Group intends to support and prioritise increased investment in capital expenditure and strategic M&A, which may require pursuing equity capital raisings. Pact may also need to consider additional asset divestments which will effectively reduce the overall size of its earnings base.

Additionally, it is unlikely that Pact will resume payment of dividends if appropriate opportunities exist to reinvest cash flows. In its review of Pact's capital structure and requirements, Kin Group will take into account, among other things, the capital structure of the business when it was previously a wholly owned subsidiary of Kin Group.

(c) Business and assets

To the extent practicable, Kin Group intends to request Pact undertake the review and analysis set out in section 10.2 and seek to implement such outcomes of that review in a manner consistent with Kin Group's shareholding interest in Pact at that time.

Subject to the review and analysis set out in section 10.2, Kin Group's overall intention is to ensure Pact's business operates efficiently and competitively, while reducing its overhead cost base in line with Pact's cost out programme.

Kin Group intends to prioritise capital investment and strategic M&A opportunities as they arise as part of its commitment to support the expansion of Pact's business.

On 16 August 2023, Pact announced that it has agreed to sell 50% of its Crate Pooling Business, which sits within the business' materials handling and pooling division to Morrison & Co.³¹ Kin Group is supportive of the sale and the transaction is expected to be completed in the 2023 calendar year.³²

(d) Limitations in giving effect to intentions

The ability of Kin Group to implement the intentions set out in this section 10 will be subject to the legal obligations of Pact directors to have regard to the interests of Pact and all Pact Shareholders. Kin Group will only make a decision on the abovementioned courses of action following legal and financial advice in relation to those requirements.

In particular, if Kin Group controls (but does not own 100% of) Pact, Kin Group will be a “related party” of Pact within the meaning of Chapter 2E of the Corporations Act and, for as long as Pact remains listed on ASX, within the meaning of the ASX Listing Rules. Kin Group’s ability to implement its intentions would therefore be subject to its obligations and the obligations of Pact to comply with applicable provisions of the Corporations Act, and provided Pact remains listed, the ASX Listing Rules relating to transactions between related parties.

Pact Shareholders should be aware that if Bennamon Industries is not entitled to proceed to compulsory acquisition in accordance with Part 6A.1 of the Corporations Act, if Pact continues to be listed on ASX following the Offer, then the decrease in the number of Pact Shares available for ASX trading may have a material adverse effect on their liquidity and market value.

(e) Impact on employees

Kin Group recognises Pact’s management and employees to be an integral part of the Pact business’ success. The Pact business relies on the motivations and the quality of its team members.

Kin Group looks forward to continuing to work constructively with Pact employees in an open and transparent manner. Kin Group, together with the Pact Board, will assess the ongoing resourcing requirements of Pact with a view to ensuring the strategic priorities identified in this section can be implemented whilst also remaining a strong and attractive employer.

Other than to the extent noted in this section 10, Kin Group has not formed any present intention to materially reduce or increase Pact’s current staffing levels.

10.5 Intentions for Pact as a wholly-owned controlled entity

Without limiting the comments in sections 10.1 and 10.2, this section describes the current intentions of Bennamon Industries and Kin Group if at the end of the Offer Period, Bennamon Industries and its Associates acquire a Relevant Interest in at least 90% of the Pact Shares

then on issue and so becomes entitled to proceed to compulsory acquisition of outstanding Pact Shares in accordance with Part 6A.1 of the Corporations Act.

(a) Corporate matters

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, it is intended that Kin Group would:

- (i) proceed to compulsory acquisition of the outstanding Pact Shares if permitted under Part 6A.1 of the Corporations Act;
- (ii) arrange for Pact to be removed from the official list of ASX;
- (iii) consider amending the constitution of Pact to reflect that it is a wholly owned subsidiary of Bennamon Industries and seek to convert Pact from a public company to a proprietary limited company; and
- (iv) reserve its right as a Pact Shareholder to reconstitute the Pact Board, in a manner consistent with Pact becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of Kin Group. Kin Group has not determined the precise size or composition of the Pact Board in such circumstances, other than Kin Group's current intention is for Mr Geminder to remain on the Pact Board.

(b) Business and assets

Kin Group's intentions for Pact as a wholly-owned controlled entity are the same as set out in section 10.4(c).

(c) Impact on employees

Kin Group's intentions for Pact as a wholly-owned controlled entity are the same as set out in section 10.4(e).

10.6 Other intentions

Subject to the matters described above in this section 10 and elsewhere in this Bidder's Statement, it is the intention of Kin Group, on the basis of the facts and information concerning Pact that are known to it and the existing circumstances affecting the assets and operations of Pact at the date of this Bidder's Statement, that:

- (a) the business of Pact will be conducted in substantially the same manner as at the date of this Bidder's Statement;
- (b) no other major changes will be made to the business of Pact;
- (c) there will be no redeployment of the fixed assets of Pact; and
- (d) Kin Group will evaluate the future head office and management requirements of Pact but expects the current employees of Pact will continue to be employed by Pact.

11. Tax considerations

The information provided below is intended to be a general overview only and does not purport to be a complete analysis of the potential tax consequences applicable to the particular circumstances of any Pact Shareholder of accepting the Offer. The tax consequences for each Pact Shareholder will vary depending on their specific profile, characteristics and circumstances. Pact Shareholders should seek their own tax advice, including in respect of any tax applicable in foreign jurisdictions.

Pact Shareholders are specifically informed that the outline below only relates to possible Australian income tax (including CGT), stamp duty and GST consequences on disposal of their Pact Shares based on the existing Australian tax laws and publicly known administrative practices of the ATO as at the date of this Bidder's Statement. The information provided below:

- (a) does not consider the taxation implications in jurisdictions outside Australia; and
- (b) should not be relied upon by any Pact Shareholder in ascertaining the Australian tax consequences that may arise as a result of the disposal of their Pact Shares to Bennamon Industries.

The following comments are only relevant to those Pact Shareholders who are individuals, companies (other than life insurance companies), trusts and complying superannuation entities that hold their Pact Shares on capital account for Australian income tax purposes. They do not apply to Pact Shareholders who:

- (c) hold their Pact Shares on revenue account or as trading stock (which will generally be the case if they are a bank, insurance company or carry on a business of share trading);
- (d) hold Performance Rights or acquired their Pact Shares, or any rights in relation to the Pact Shares, as the result of an employee share plan or employee share option plan;
- (e) are under a legal disability;
- (f) are exempt from any Australian tax or are superannuation entities with accounts in a tax-free pension phase;
- (g) are entities subject to special taxation rules such as the Investment Manager Regime and the Taxation of Financial Arrangement rules;
- (h) are taken to have acquired their Pact Shares before 20 September 1985;
- (i) are non-resident Pact Shareholders who currently hold, or have held Pact Shares at any time through a permanent establishment in Australia or who are temporary residents of Australia;
- (j) are temporary residents of Australia for Australian tax purposes;
- (i) change their tax residence while holding Pact Shares; or

- (j) obtained roll-over relief in connection with the acquisition of their Pact Shares.

11.1 Disposal of Pact Shares – Resident Pact Shareholders

This section 11.1 applies to Pact Shareholders who are residents of Australia for Australian tax purposes.

(a) CGT event

A Pact Shareholder that accepts the Offer, and transfers their Pact Shares to Bennamon Industries, will be treated as having disposed of their Pact Shares for Australian tax purposes when they accept the Offer.

A Pact Shareholder whose Pact Shares are compulsorily acquired will be taken to have disposed of their Pact Shares when the shares are transferred to Bennamon Industries.

The disposal of the Pact Shares will trigger CGT event A1 for Australian tax purposes. The CGT event will happen on the date on which the Offer is accepted or the transfer of Pact Shares occurs (as applicable).

(b) Determination of capital gains and losses

A Pact Shareholder should realise a capital gain in connection with the disposal of a Pact Share equal to the amount by which the Offer Price exceeds the cost base of that Pact Share.

Conversely, a Pact Shareholder should realise a capital loss equal to the amount by which the reduced cost base of the Pact Share exceeds the Offer Price. A capital loss may be used to offset a capital gain made in the same income year or be carried forward to offset a capital gain made in a future income year, subject to the satisfaction of certain loss recoupment tests. Capital losses cannot reduce or offset other income or gains.

Any resulting net capital gain after the application of any available capital losses and any available CGT discount (refer below) should be included in a Pact Shareholder's assessable income and subject to Australian income tax at the applicable tax rate.

(c) Cost base and reduced cost base

The cost base of a Pact Share should generally include the amount paid (or deemed to be paid) to acquire the Pact Share, which includes certain non-deductible incidental costs (such as brokerage fees) relating to the acquisition, holding and disposal of the Pact Share.

The reduced cost base of a Pact Share would usually be determined in a similar, but not identical manner (e.g. it does not include certain amounts such as certain non-deductible interest).

(d) CGT discount

A Pact Shareholder that is a resident of Australia for tax purposes and is an individual, trust (other than one taxed as a company) or complying superannuation entity may be entitled to reduce their capital gain (after first reducing the capital gain by any available capital losses) by the applicable CGT discount provided that:

- (i) the Pact Shares were acquired (or are taken to have been acquired) at least 12 months before disposal to Bennamon Industries (excluding the date of acquisition and the date of disposal); and
- (ii) the Pact Shareholder did not choose to index the cost base of their Pact Shares (where applicable).

The applicable CGT discount is as follows:

- (i) 50% for individuals and trusts (except a trust that is a complying superannuation entity or that is taxed as a company); and
- (ii) 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ % for a complying superannuation entity.

The CGT discount is not available to any Pact Shareholders that are companies or trusts that are taxed like companies.

The availability of the CGT discount to beneficiaries of the trusts will depend on the tax profile of the beneficiaries. Trustees should seek their own advice on how the CGT discount provisions will apply to them and the beneficiaries.

11.2 Disposal of Pact Shares – non-resident Pact Shareholders

This section 11.2 applies to Pact Shareholders who are not residents of Australia for Australian tax purposes and who have not held their Pact Shares at any time in carrying on business through a permanent establishment in Australia at the relevant times. Section 11.2(b) is also relevant for Pact Shareholders where Bennamon Industries does not reasonably believe that Pact Shareholder is an Australian resident and either the Pact Shareholder has an address outside Australia or Bennamon Industries is authorised to make a payment to a place outside Australia.

(a) CGT

A Pact Shareholder that is not a resident of Australia for tax purposes and who has not held their Pact Shares at any time in carrying on business through a permanent establishment in Australia should not be subject to the CGT rules unless their Pact Shares are characterised as “indirect Australian real property interests”. This will be the case if both of the following requirements are satisfied:

- (i) the Pact Shareholder (together with any associates as defined by the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 (Cth)) owned at least 10% of Pact either at the time the Pact Shares are disposed of (or taken to have been disposed of) or for at least 12 months during the 24 months before the Pact Shares are disposed of (for CGT purposes) (Non-Portfolio Interest Test); and

- (ii) at the time the Pact Shares are disposed of, more than 50% of the value of Pact's assets is represented by "taxable Australian real property" (Principal Asset Test). Pact Shares would generally pass this test if the market value of Pact's direct and indirect interests in Australian real property (including land and leases of Australian land) is more than the market value of other assets at the time the Pact Shares are disposed of.

If either element is absent, any capital gain (or capital loss) made on the disposal of a Pact Share by a non-resident should be disregarded for Australian tax purposes.

A non-resident Pact Shareholder who is subject to the CGT rules on disposal of their Pact Shares must account for their capital gain or loss in the same way as described in section 11.1. However, they will only be eligible to apply a CGT discount to part of their capital gain if they acquired, or are taken to have acquired, their Pact Shares on or before 9 May 2012 (subject to the other conditions being satisfied).

(b) CGT Withholding Obligations

Bennamon Industries may have an obligation to pay an amount equal to 12.5% of the Offer Price (CGT Withholding Tax) on each Pact Share to the ATO if the Pact Share is an "indirect Australian real property interest" (i.e. both the Non-Portfolio Interest Test and the Principal Asset Test are satisfied) and Bennamon Industries:

- (i) knows, or reasonably believes, that the Pact Shareholder is a foreign resident; or
- (ii) does not reasonably believe that the Pact Shareholder is an Australian resident, and either the Pact Shareholder has an address outside Australia or Bennamon Industries is authorised to make a payment to a place outside Australia.

A Pact Shareholder may make and provide to Bennamon Industries a written foreign resident capital gains withholding declaration, to declare that it is an Australian resident or that its Pact Shares are not "indirect Australian real property interests". The form to make such a declaration may be obtained on the website of the Australian Taxation Office. However, if the Pact Shareholder does not make and provide a valid declaration by the relevant time or if Bennamon Industries reasonably believes that the declaration is false, the declaration will not be effective and Bennamon Industries may withhold the CGT Withholding Tax from the Offer Price if it considers the Pact Shares are "indirect Australian real property interests".

If Bennamon Industries determines that it has an obligation to make a payment as described above, Bennamon Industries may withhold the CGT Withholding Tax from the Offer Price and pay that amount to the ATO. In such an instance, the relevant Pact Shareholder will only receive the net proceeds and will be taken to receive the full Offer Price for the purposes of the Offer.

11.3 Stamp duty

Any stamp duty payable on the transfer of Pact Shares to Bennamon Industries pursuant to the Offer will be paid by Bennamon Industries.

11.4 Goods and services tax

GST should not be payable on the disposal of Pact Shares pursuant to the Offer.

Pact Shareholders may be charged GST on costs (such as adviser fees relating to their participation in this Offer). Pact Shareholders should seek their own advice to determine whether any GST incurred on costs in relation to the disposal of their Pact Shares is recoverable.
