CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Paul O'Sullivan
Chairman

ANZ produced a strong outcome for our shareholders in the 2023 financial year with all four core divisions performing well.

The Australia Retail division saw continued strong home loan growth above industry levels and the Australia Commercial business grew deposits and lending. Our de-risked Institutional business significantly increased its return on equity and the New Zealand division retained its number one market position.

The performance of all four divisions illustrates the value of our investment and diversification and reflects our consistent strategy.

This produced a well-balanced result and a full-year statutory profit of $7.1 billion, flat on the prior year. Cash profit was $7.4 billion, up 14% on the prior year.

Our total 2023 dividend was 175 cents per share with the final dividend of 94 cents partially franked at 56%. The final dividend comprised an 81 cents dividend partially franked at 65% and an additional one-off unfranked dividend of 13 cents. The dividend outcome reflects our geographic diversity and the particularly strong results of our businesses outside of Australia.

Globally this year saw a combination of rapidly rising interest rates and higher inflation. Central banks continue to grapple with those trends as consumers deal with the associated cost-of-living increases.

While the inflationary pressures have moderated and central banks have largely paused interest rate tightening, considerable uncertainty remains and we know many of our customers are feeling the impacts.

Against this backdrop, ANZ is well prepared with high levels of provision balance, capital, liquidity and funding. This allows us to help those customers in need.

Furthermore, while the financial services industry continues to change rapidly, we have been investing for several years now to enable ANZ to better compete in the emerging world.

Digital technology

Your Board recognise that banking is changing and doing so rapidly. Key to that change is the growing use of digital technology across the business including improved customer assistance, faster application approvals, better operational efficiency and importantly the protection of your information.

The investments we have made in new technology and improved processes include our new digital retail banking platform in Australia, ANZ Plus, migration to more flexible cloud-based applications and the increased capacity of our Institutional platforms services business and payments technology.

Suncorp Bank

In July 2022 we announced the acquisition of Suncorp Bank to add significant scale to our retail business and to our digital bank platform allowing ANZ to more effectively compete in the Australian market.

ANZ has filed an application with the Australian Competition Tribunal for authorisation for the proposed acquisition. A decision is likely in February 2024.

The acquisition then remains subject to approval from the Federal Treasurer and the passage of legislative amendments by the Queensland Parliament. We continue preparations to integrate Suncorp Bank into the ANZ Group, subject to these conditions being met.

Environment Social and Governance (ESG)

ANZ is a leader in acting on climate change. Our consistent strategy is to support and encourage our customers, especially in the energy sector, to set and pursue net zero aligned transition plans.

Our goal is to be the leading Australia and New Zealand bank supporting customers' transition to net zero by 2050. Our social and environmental sustainability target to fund and facilitate a further $100 billion by the end of 2030 makes our aspiration clear.

We were the Australian first bank to formally engage with 100 of our largest emitting business customers on their transition plans and disclose progress – both since followed by our domestic and global peers.

We were also the first Australian bank to publish commitments on emissions reduction pathways linked to our lending for energy intensive industries – including power generation, commercial real estate, oil & gas, aluminium, cement and steel.

We are expanding these commitments to include 2030 targets for four new industries: thermal coal, aviation, shipping and auto manufacturing.

We have high expectations for our customers, especially in the energy sector, and we expect plans to be net-zero aligned, public, specific and measurable.

We recognise we can have the most impact by working with our customers to reduce their emissions. Our policy is to back their plans by providing more finance for less emissions.

We believe it is in our shareholders' interests for the bank to support companies genuinely committed to implementing their climate transition plans.

More broadly, ESG helps determine how we manage relationships with suppliers, customers, staff and the wider community.

We set high standards in these areas and produce a range of reports for a wide range of stakeholders, including our ESG supplement and Climate Related Financial Disclosures (TCFD report) which are released at the same time as our Annual Report.

Board Renewal

Your board continues its process of renewal as we continue to attract the skills and expertise required for the evolving financial services industry.

I would like to acknowledge the enormous contributions of Ilana Atlas and John Macfarlane who will be retiring from the Board at the upcoming Annual General Meeting (AGM).

Ilana has been an invaluable member of the board since 2014, most recently as Chair of the Human Resources Committee and a member of the Audit Committee, Ethics, Environment, Social and Governance Committee and Nomination and Board Operations Committee.

John has provided tireless service during his nine years as a Non-Executive Director, particularly in his role chairing the Risk Committee and as a member of the Audit Committee, Digital Business and Technology Committee and Nomination and Board Operations Committee.

I will personally miss their insight, experience, professionalism and wise counsel.

I am also pleased to formally welcome Holly Kramer, who joined the Board in August and will stand for election at the AGM.

Holly has extensive experience as a director and has served on a range of major listed and unlisted boards in Australia and New Zealand. She has chaired remuneration, sustainability, and audit and risk committees.

As an executive, Holly was Chief Executive Officer of retailer Best & Less and served in a range of senior customer-facing roles at Telstra, Ford and Pacific Brands.

Holly brings a strong focus on people, customers and culture, as well as extensive experience in retail and digital channels.

Finally, I would like to thank our customers and my fellow shareholders for their support in what has been a successful year for the Group against a backdrop of significant uncertainty.

I would also like to acknowledge the more than 40,000 people who come to work at ANZ each day, who embody our purpose and culture and who work tirelessly for our customers.

Paul O'Sullivan Chairman

CEO'S MESSAGE

Our performance and strategy

This year ANZ reported a strong and consistent outcome for our shareholders, customers and the community. The one-year total shareholder return was 20%, while the three-year return was 76%.

Each of our four divisions performed well to contribute to a 13% year-on-year increase in cash revenue and a 14% year-on-year increase in cash profit from continuing operations to $7.4 billion. These are record results.

Our long-standing commitment to our purpose, shaping a world where people and communities thrive, and our transformation to a simpler, better run bank, helped generate these steady and sustainable returns.

Over the last seven years we have significantly reshaped ANZ through the disposal of assets in lower performing, non-core or riskier segments, resulting in a unique, diversified portfolio of high performing businesses which differentiates us from our peers. This is particularly valuable in a more challenging environment and gives us more options for growth.

Our focus on long-term productivity has provided the capacity for us to increase investment to transform and re-platform all of our divisions for long-term success. This includes our Institutional technology and payments systems and our new retail platform ANZ Plus.

We have further strengthened our balance sheet and reduced overall risk. We closed the year with more capital than ever before.

We also continue to see the benefits of the disciplined execution of our strategy. We finalised our Non-Operating Holding Company structure, completed the BS11 regulatory program in New Zealand, and made a strategic investment in View Media Group. We exceeded our target of two million Cashrewards members, while ANZ Worldline Payment Solutions launched 'Tap to Pay on iPhone'.

Divisional highlights

Today we have four core divisions: Australia Retail, Australia Commercial, New Zealand and Institutional. Each has a clear sense of purpose and a well-articulated strategy, with a funded roadmap to build contemporary, relevant customer propositions to win in the marketplace.

Australia Retail continued to invest in processing capability for Home Loans, which delivered improved service levels and consistent turnaround times contributing to high quality growth in our retail balance sheet.

Australia Commercial is our highest returning division and gross loans and advances achieved the highest level on record while deposits grew to $113 billion. Named as 2023 Small Business Bank of the Year from Canstar, this division has a strong future and we are investing at record levels to build further capability and capacity.

Institutional continued to show the benefits of its transformation, to a sustainable value-creating business built around cash management, currency and processing rather than lending alone. We are particularly pleased with the strong performance in Transaction Banking. After long-term and sustained investment, and a complete re-platforming of our technology, ANZ has extended its market leadership in Payments and Cash Management in Australia and New Zealand, with a developing presence in Asia. This business is fast growing, high-returning and capital efficient.

We facilitated the movement of $164 trillion in all payments and capital flows to, from and within the markets in which we operate, and either cleared or provided payment services to more than 90% of the world's globally systemic banks. This enterprise business has enormous economies of scale and this year's results are a major step forward.

The strength of our New Zealand franchise was once again evident as we maintained leading market positions in major segments including home loans, retail deposits, institutional, agriculture and funds management. Our brand consideration in New Zealand is at an all-time high and we were again named Canstar Bank of the Year for Small Business and for Agriculture. At the same time, we supported our customers following the devastation of Cyclone Gabrielle, pledging NZ$3 million to communities that were affected.

ANZ Plus

When we launched ANZ Plus, we set out to create a point of difference for ANZ in Australia that would support our customers' financial wellbeing and respond to their rapidly evolving needs, in a way that was highly engaging, far more efficient, quick to adapt and low cost to run.

Since then, ANZ Plus has become one of the fastest growing digital banking platforms in Australia. As of 30 September 2023, ANZ Plus had attracted more than 460,000 customers and $9.4 billion in deposits.

About 40% of ANZ Plus customers are new to ANZ, and since going live we have added more than 200 new features or enhancements. Our new ANZ Plus digital home loan is now available and being rolled out to eligible customers.

In line with our financial wellbeing ambitions, some 35% of ANZ Plus customers are actively saving towards a goal, which is the single most important action a customer can take to improve their financial wellbeing. Importantly, the advanced security measures on ANZ Plus continue to result in one of the lowest incidents of digital fraud in the industry.

Supporting our customers and communities

This year we have worked hard to support our customers and the community, and help keep them safe.

We have deployed significant resources, including 440 customer protection specialists, to help prevent more than $100 million of customer's money from going into the hands of cyber criminals.

We also supported financial wellbeing and literacy, with more than 87,000 people participating in our education programs, Saver Plus and Money Minded, the latter of which was delivered in 16 of our markets this year.

Through the year we supported more than 19,000 first home buyers in Australia and New Zealand, and funded and facilitated $610 million to deliver more affordable, accessible and sustainable housing to buy and rent in Australia.

Supporting sustainability

We have made significant progress in our ambition to be the leading Australia and New Zealand-based bank in supporting customers' transition to net zero emissions by 2050.

In April 2023, we commenced a new social and environmental sustainability target, to fund and facilitate a further $100 billion by the end of 2030 towards improving social and environmental outcomes. Since then we have funded and facilitated approximately $8.8 billion against this target, across 54 transactions.

In New Zealand, we supported more than 6,400 households in lending through our Good Energy Home Loan top up, while our business and agriculture customers accessed over NZ$30 million to reduce emissions or improve sustainability through our Business Green Loans.

We are also reducing the direct impact of our own business activities on the environment, with 49% of energy consumption associated with our operations now coming from renewable energy and a 71% reduction in waste to landfill since 2017. More information about our progress is contained in this annual report.

Our outlook and priorities

Our priorities for the coming year are clear: to further build out ANZ Plus, increase productivity across the Group, focus on sustainability, currency and cash management platforms, and strengthen our digital and data offerings. We also want to continue the disciplined growth in each of our divisions.

We remain committed to completing the acquisition of Suncorp Bank once all sale conditions are met. The acquisition would create value and scale for our Australian Retail and Commercial businesses, allowing us to be competitive over the long term.

Shayne Elliott
Chief Executive Officer

A combined bank would be better equipped to respond to competitive pressures and deliver significant customer and public benefits, particularly in Queensland.

We recognise that while our customers have generally remained resilient some are facing increased pressure amid rising costs and sustained high interest rates.

Our simpler, stronger bank coupled with growth and positive momentum across our businesses, means we are in a strong position to support these customers, whether big or small, and help them navigate the uncertain environment ahead.

We are more resilient than ever before and have the right portfolio balance, leadership team and strategy in place, underpinned by a highly-engaged, diverse workforce and a purpose-led culture. I want to thank the team at ANZ for their efforts.

As CEO, I am pleased with our progress and look forward to continued momentum across our businesses in the years ahead.

Shayne Elliott Chief Executive Officer

OUR OPERATING ENVIRONMENT

Our operating environment

The environment in which we operate is characterised by a range of conflicting forces.

Economic activity and inflationary pressure have broadly moderated, resulting in an evolving peak in the most aggressive interest rate tightening cycle in more than a decade. This has reduced the risk of a deep recession, but a range of economic outcomes are still possible.

China has tracked a different path, with weak activity and a flirtation with deflation promoting policy easing. Economic activity in China continues to grow, albeit at a slower rate than has been the case in recent decades. The world's second largest economy remains an important source of demand and business activity, even as its slowdown is contributing to businesses and investors examining other opportunities.

Unemployment remains low and immigration has returned to Australia and New Zealand at record rates. These are supporting house price levels and demand for mortgages, even as consumer spending has moderated. Workforce shortages are not as acute, but input costs remain a challenge for many businesses.

On average, household balance sheets are strong and corporates hold high levels of liquidity. In some part this reflects the regulatory efforts of the past 15 years. This has reduced the level of delinquencies in the current interest rate tightening cycle, but also contributed to sustaining demand.

Public sector demand is strong across a range of sectors including infrastructure, defence, and housing. Housing affordability, in particular, has been subject to more vigorous policy action. Many governments are also active in addressing perceived supply chain vulnerabilities and prioritising domestic resilience.

The climate transition has gathered momentum. Over the past year Australia has introduced the safeguard mechanism, New Zealand has agreed methane should be taxed differently from carbon dioxide, the USA introduced the Inflation Reduction Act and in Europe the Carbon Border Adjustment Mechanism began administrative operation. This is altering patterns of economic activity, investment, and trade, and creating opportunities and challenges for banks.

Economic outlook

The year ahead is likely to be one of economic consolidation across ANZ's geographies. In Australia and New Zealand we expect somewhat slower growth and only modest movements in interest rates around the peak in the cycle. Consumer spending is likely to remain weak as the full impact of interest rate increases is felt. Demand is also likely to be supported by strong household balance sheets, resilient housing markets, government activity, solid business investment intentions in Australia and strong migration in New Zealand. Modest increases in unemployment and underemployment, while disruptive for the individuals involved, should be sufficient to encourage inflation back towards target without undue delinquency stress. Both ANZ and the Reserve Bank of Australia expect to see inflation back at the top of the band by the end of 2025.

In China, weak demand has been the main challenge. Policy has responded, activity has begun to stabilise and inflation, though there are still deflationary pressures normalise. China's stabilisation will support the region as it copes with the effects of its own tightening cycle and weaker global demand.

REMUNERATION OVERVIEW

The Remuneration Overview for ANZ Group Holdings Limited (ANZGHL) provides a summary of the remuneration for our ANZGHL Key Management Personnel (KMP): Non-Executive Directors (NEDs), Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and Disclosed Executives. ANZGHL replaced Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited (ANZBGL) as the listed entity on 3 January 2023 under a scheme of arrangement approved by shareholders at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) on 15 December 2022. This overview includes disclosures for the full financial year 2023 (1 October 2022 to 30 September 2023).

In this section we have included the remuneration tables that feedback from shareholders has told us are of the most interest. The full ANZGHL Remuneration Report is contained in the ANZGHL Annual Report from page 46 onwards - it includes discussion of the Board's decisions concerning executive remuneration outcomes, with particular reference to the CEO, together with our remuneration strategy and structure and the practices that apply to KMP. The report can be accessed via the ANZ website at anz.com/annualreport.

Non-Executive Director (NED) remuneration

The HR Committee reviewed NED fees and determined not to increase fees for 2023. See section 9 of the full ANZGHL Remuneration Report contained in the ANZGHL Annual Report for the 2023 NED fee policy structure.

For 2024, the HR Committee has reviewed and approved a 2% increase to the NED member fee (from $240,000 to $245,000) which has remained unchanged since 2016. The Board Chairman fee remains unchanged. Following review, the HR Committee also approved the alignment of the fee structure across all Committees increasing each Committee chair fee to $68,000, and each Committee member fee to $34,000. This fee review considered increased complexity in the regulatory environment, uplifts for ANZ's broader employee population, and the external market.

The fee structure is applicable to NEDs of ANZGHL and ANZBGL. Fees prior to the implementation of the Non-Operating Holding Company (NOHC) structure related to membership of the ANZBGL Board, and post implementation are viewed as a single fee covering both Boards (i.e., membership of ANZGHL and ANZBGL Boards/Committees). Currently the fee structure applies irrespective of whether NEDs serve on one or more Boards.

NEDs receive a fee for being a Director of the Board, and additional fees for either chairing, or being a member of a Board Committee. The Chairman of the Board does not receive additional fees for serving on a Board Committee.

2023 Statutory remuneration – NEDS

The following table outlines the statutory remuneration of NEDs¹ disclosed in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards.

1. In addition to the fee shown below, Sir John Key received NZD 422,050 in 2022 and 2023 for his role as Chairman for ANZ Bank New Zealand Limited.

G Liebelt elected to receive all payments in fees and therefore did not receive superannuation contributions during 2022 and 2023 with exception to fees paid in Q422. 2. Non monetary benefits generally consist of company-funded benefits (and the associated Fringe Benefits Tax) such as car parking and gifts provided upon retirement. 3. Long-term benefits and share-based payments do not apply for the NEDs. 4. Remuneration based on time as a NED (2022 for C O'Reilly and J Smith, 2023 for H Kramer and G Liebelt).

CEO and Disclosed Executives' Remuneration

2023 Received remuneration

This table shows the remuneration the CEO and Disclosed Executives actually received in relation to the 2023 financial year as cash paid, or in the case of prior equity awards, the value which vested in 2023.

Fixed remuneration (FR) adjustments were received by Disclosed Executives in accordance with the executive remuneration structure changes made in 2022, as disclosed in the 2022 Remuneration Report. There were no other adjustments to FR for Disclosed Executives in 2023, apart from the Group Executive, Technology & Group Services whose FR was increased on 1 November 2022 from $1.15m to $1.25m to reflect the expansion of responsibilities and to improve alignment with the market.

1. Deferred variable remuneration which either vested or lapsed/forfeited during the year is the point in time value of previously deferred remuneration granted as deferred shares, deferred shares rights and/or restricted rights/performance rights, and is based on the one day Volume Weighted Average Price (VWAP) of the Company's shares traded on the ASX on the date of vesting or lapsing/forfeiture multiplied by the number of deferred shares/deferred share rights and/or restricted rights/performance rights. No previously deferred variable remuneration lapsed/forfeited during the year for the CEO or Disclosed Executives (due to no performance rights due to vest in 2023) other than for K van der Merwe -$4,880,967, which relates to forfeiture on resignation of unvested deferred remuneration. 2. The sum of fixed remuneration, cash variable remuneration and deferred variable remuneration which vested during the year. 3. Fixed remuneration reflects changes in fixed remuneration during the financial year due to expanded role (G Florian). 4. Fixed remuneration based on time as a Disclosed Executive (R Howell, C Morgan, A Strong, K van der Merwe). 5. Other deferred remuneration for C Morgan relates to deferred remuneration forfeited and bonus opportunity forgone as a result of joining ANZ, that was deferred as cash and vested during the year. 6. Paid in NZD and converted to AUD. Year to date average exchange rate used to convert NZD to AUD as at 30 September for the relevant year.

2023 variable remuneration (VR) Awarded

The below charts show the Short Term Variable Remuneration (STVR) and Long Term Variable Remuneration (LTVR) awarded to the CEO and Disclosed Executives for the year ending 30 September 2023.

For the CEO, the Board determined that an STVR outcome of $2.4m (96% of maximum opportunity) was appropriate for 2023 having regard to both the overall performance of the CEO and also the overall performance of the Group. The average STVR outcome for current Disclosed Executives is 89% of maximum opportunity which reflects both the overall assessment of ANZ Group performance as above target, and also individual performance.

The first award of LTVR under the new remuneration structure was made at the start of the 2023 financial year to Disclosed Executives (Nov 2022) and the CEO (Dec 2022 post AGM), and it was awarded at full opportunity.

See the full ANZGHL Remuneration Report contained in the ANZGHL Annual Report for details on the 2023 remuneration outcomes for the CEO and Disclosed Executives.
