Titomic extends Mr. Herbert Koeck's contract as Managing Director

Titomic Limited (ASX:TTT) ("Titomic" or "Company"), is pleased to confirm the extension of Herbert Koeck's employment contract as Managing Director for a further term of at least 12 months and up to two years.

During his tenure as Managing Director, Mr. Koeck has overseen the transition of the Company from an R&D focused operation to a robust commercial company. Titomic is seeing increased interest in its Cold Spray Additive Manufacturing ("CSAM") technology, patented as Titomic Kinetic Fusion®, with significant commercial traction for both manufacturing solutions as well as repair and maintenance within several industrial sectors, including aerospace, glass manufacturing, defence, mining, oil & gas, automotive and maritime. As a result, Titomic's revenue has grown significantly as the business journeys further into commercialisation and continues its expansion into Europe, the United States, Asia Pacific, and globally.

Prior to joining Titomic in July 2021, Mr. Koeck was a member of the executive management team of 3D-Systems Corporation, a global, leading 3D-printing solution supplier. As Executive Vice-President of Global-Go-To-Market, he was accountable for the sales and global orders of the group which included influencing product development to ensure customer success. Prior to this, Mr. Koeck held the role of Senior Vice-President, responsible for operations in Europe and India. Before joining 3D-Systems, Mr. Koeck held the role of Managing Director at Hewlett Packard, responsible for operations in Europe, the Middle East, and Africa. Mr. Koeck also held the role of Senior Vice-President for the PC and Printing Solution Group.

Titomic's Chair of the Board, Mr. Dag W.R. Stromme, commented:

"During this period of commercialisation and growth, there is no better person to lead Titomic than Herbert Koeck. Herbert is a proven leader with deep additive manufacturing experience, business vision, and ability to bring people together. His vision and experience in bringing advanced technologies to customers around the world is exactly what Titomic needs as the Company continues the commercialisation of its CSAM technology, centred on building partnerships as well as joint ventures with customers."

Titomic's Managing Director, Mr. Herbert Koeck, commented:

"Titomic is in a rare position to truly revolutionise traditional manufacturing as well as repair and maintenance work across multiple industrial sectors. It is an honour and privilege to continue to lead the great work initiated and executed by the people of Titomic. The opportunities ahead of Titomic are vast, but to seize them we must continue to focus, build robust process, and move fast. I look forward to continuing our endeavours with our investors and customers in commercialising cold spray and maximising business outcomes for our Company."

Herbert Koeck's reappointment as Managing Director reaffirms the strategic vision and direction of the Company. It also reflects the shareholders' confidence in Titomic's commitment to maintaining its focused approach and steadfast path.

In addition to Herbert Koeck, the Titomic Board of Directors continues to consist of Chairman Mr. Dag W.R. Stromme, former Morgan Stanley Managing Director and private equity executive; Dr. Andreas Schwer, current CEO of EOS and former CEO of SAMI; Mr. Humphrey Nolan, a seasoned Board Director and CEO with 30 years' experience in the industrial, logistics, and distribution industries, including
