Part 3 – +Closed period

Were the interests in the securities or contracts detailed above traded during a +closed period where prior written clearance was required?	Yes
If so, was prior written clearance provided to allow the trade to proceed during this period?	No. Due to an oversight, prior written clearance, as required by the Company's Securities Trading Policy (the Policy), was not obtained by the director prior to the acquisition of the CDIs by the director's superannuation fund on 8 March 2024. As soon as this oversight was identified on 13 March 2024, the relevant CDIs were disposed of by the director's superannuation fund at a sale price less than their original purchase price. The director has been counselled and reminded of the requirement of the Policy that any trading of the Company's securities during a closed period requires prior written approval. The director has confirmed that he is aware of the Policy and that he will comply with it in the future, including ensuring that any required written approval is obtained prior to any trades taking place during a closed period. The Company has also reminded all "Relevant Persons" of the Company, including directors, of the requirements of the Policy, in particular the requirements for written approval for trading during a closed period. The Company considers this to be an inadvertent and isolated oversight by the relevant director and notes that, at the time of the trading, he was not in possession of any information not generally available to the market that would be likely to have a material effect on the price of the Company's shares.
