Appointment of Chief Financial Officer

EQT Holdings Limited (ASX:EQT) is pleased to announce the appointment of Johanna Platt as Chief Financial Officer (CFO), effective Monday 22 July 2024.

This appointment follows the announcement on 15 December 2023, of the decision by the current Chief Financial Officer and Chief Operating Officer, Philip Gentry, to step down from the position.

The appointment of Ms Platt followed an extensive search process over several months that assessed a strong field of candidates.

Ms Platt has more than 25 years of experience working in, and leading, finance teams; she is a collaborative and commercial CFO with multi-industry sector experience and a proven track record.

She is currently the interim CFO at ISPT and responsible for the finance, procurement, insurance, tax, treasury and valuation functions of the business. Prior to this, she was the CFO for Vanguard Australia, where she led the Australian 200-person finance function and was part of the executive team governing the establishment of the Vanguard superannuation business.

Managing Director, Mick O'Brien said: "Johanna brings an exceptional suite of skills to EQT and our growing business. We warmly welcome Johanna to Equity Trustees and I look forward to working alongside her."

The Managing Director has authorised that this document be given to the ASX.
