Disciplined balance sheet management

Extended NAB Facility with existing pricing providing covenant headroom

✓ Extension of existing NAB Debt facility

- Rolled over our existing NAB facility (was due to mature in March 2025); now maturing Sept 2027, with existing pricing maintained

- FCCR covenant ratio has been lowered for the next three quarterly measurement points to provide Baby Bunting with headroom during this transitional period¹
- Beyond this period, delivery of our FY25 plan would see Baby Bunting remain within FCCR and Operating leverage covenant limits¹
