Long term partnership signed with Hume Rural Health Alliance

- Alcidion has signed an agreement with Hume Rural Health Alliance (“HRHA”) for the use of Miya Precision as an enterprise digital platform with a focus on patient flow and virtual care
- The Total Contract Value (TCV) is approximately $4M over a 5-year period with the majority to be recognised as annual subscription revenue
- The contract was awarded following detailed market analysis by HRHA and independent probity advice from Infrastructure Advisory Group

Melbourne, Victoria: Alcidion Group Limited (ASX:ALC) today advises it has signed a new contract with Hume Rural Health Alliance (HRHA) for use of its Miya Precision platform - a single integrated digital health platform - as a regional enterprise wide solution, with the initial focus on improved patient flow and virtual care functionality. The implementation and use of this technology will increase visibility of bed availability across the region anticipated to lead to increased efficiency in bed management and better patient throughput.
